HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE

Eighth Session

SUMMARY RECORDS OF THE 177th TO 194th MEETINGS

held at the Palais dos Nations, Geneva,

from 15-26 October 1979

Corrigendum

PUBLIC MEETINGS

The present document contains the corrections received from the members of the Human Rights Committee and from the secretariat applying to the English text of the summary records of the public meetings, or parts thereof, of the Committee at its eighth session (CCPR/C/SR.177-181, 186-190 and 192).

The Committee also held eight closed meetings, the records of which (CCPR/C/SR.182-185, 191, 192/Add.1, 193 and 194) were issued in restricted distribution. The corrections to the records of these closed meetings appear in document CCPR/C/SR.177-194/Corrigendum/Add.1, which is also issued in restricted distribution.

With the issuance of the corrigenda (CCPR/C/SR.177-194/Corrigendum and Add.1) the records of the above-mentioned meetings are to be considered final.

Add the following paragraph:

58a. In reply to the questions raised by Mr. Hanga and Mr. Koulishev on the role of the social organizations in running the country, she said that they played a very important role. The Workers Management Act of 20 December 1958 provided for the extensive participation of the society in the management of the enterprises. That Act assured the employees of socialized enterprises access to the management of the enterprise and a role in promoting economic progress and the organization of their work. The main organ of management was the "Conference on Workers Management" the members of which were elected and represented the management of the enterprise, the employees and the social organizations operation in the enterprise. It was also responsible for the following tasks: the adoption of the work rules of the enterprise, decisions on the construction of housing for employees of the enterprise and social and cultural activities. The residents' committees, self-management organs of the residents of towns, districts, blocks of flats, villages, took decisions as regards the development of the region, exercised control over the quality and conditions of life and dealt with matters referred to them by the Municipal Council.
