SECRETARY-GENERAL'S BULLETIN

To: Members of the Staff of the United Nations

Subject: STAFF RULES

1. Attached are revised Staff Rules 104.9, 104.13 and 109.1 which take effect from 1 June 1957.
2. The purpose of the revision is to regularize the appointment status of staff members of the Technical Assistance Board.

Dag HAMMARSKJÖLD
Secretary-General

Rule 104.9

Appointment and Promotion Board

- (b) (i) All proposed Probationary Appointments and other proposed appointments of a probable duration of one year or more, at or above the intermediate level of the General Service category at Headquarters and equivalent levels at other duty stations, excluding however the appointment of persons recruited specifically for service with a mission and appointments at the level of Director and above and the appointment of persons recruited specifically for service with the United Nations Children's Fund or with the Technical Assistance Board.

Rule 104.13

Permanent and Regular Appointments and Review Board

- (c) (ii) The function of the Review Board shall be:

(a) To consider the suitability for permanent appointment of staff members, except those specifically recruited for service with the United Nations Children's Fund or with the Technical Assistance Board and staff members at the Director level and above, and to recommend to the Secretary-General in each case the granting of a Permanent Appointment, or one additional year of probation or separation from the service.

(b) To review the appointments of staff members, except those specifically recruited for service with the United Nations Children's Fund or with the Technical Assistance Board, holding Permanent or Regular Appointments, upon the completion of the first five years of such appointments, and thereafter when asked to do so by the Secretary-General. The Review Board will inform the Secretary-General, after consideration of the conduct and performance of each staff member, whether it is of the opinion that during the period under review the staff member concerned has maintained the standards of efficiency, competence and integrity established in the Charter.

(c) The Executive Director of the United Nations Children's Fund and the Executive Chairman of the Technical Assistance Board shall appoint boards whose composition and functions shall be generally comparable to those of the Review Board provided under (c) above to advise them in the case of staff members recruited specifically for service with the UN Children's Fund or with the Technical Assistance Board.

Rule 109.1

Special Advisory Board, Definition of Termination, and Abolition of Posts and Reduction of Staff

- (c) (ii) (b) Staff members specifically recruited for service with a mission, or for service with an agency or office of the United Nations which enjoys a special status in matters of appointment under a Resolution of the General Assembly or as a result of an agreement entered into by the Secretary-General, such as the Technical Assistance Board, have no entitlement under this rule for consideration for posts outside the mission, agency or office for which they were recruited. Similarly, staff members specifically recruited for the United Nations Children's Fund have no entitlement under this rule for consideration for posts outside that agency.
