SIXTH COMMITTEE: ORGANIZATION

REVISED DRAFT OF ARTICLE 93 (RELATIONS WITH NON-MEMBERS)

PREPARED BY THE DELEGATION OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

Article 93

Relations with Non-Members

1. No Member shall seek preferential advantages from any non-Member which result, directly or indirectly, in the application by the non-Member to any other Member of measures which would if applied by a Member be inconsistent with any provisions of this Charter.

2. A Member may

(a) continue to grant to a non-Member any advantage which it is so granting at the date on which this Charter becomes effective for the Member;

(b) grant to a non-Member advantages including any of the advantages or tariff concessions accorded by the Member respectively under Chapter IV of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade or in consequence of negotiations carried out under Article 17;

Provided that a Member shall notify the Organization of any advantages granted or to be granted in accordance with this paragraph and the Organization shall inform the other Members thereof.

3. If any Member considers that its interests are injured, or that the purpose set forth in Article 1 are being impeded, by any such grant or proposed grant, it may request the Organization for a decision upon the matter.

4. The Organization, having due regard to the purpose and objectives set forth in Article 1 and to the legitimate interests of all interested Members, shall thereupon decide whether or not -

(i) in the case of an advantage granted or to be granted under an agreement with the non-Member, that agreement shall be denounced by the Member in whole or in part;

(ii) in the case of an advantage granted or to be granted otherwise, it shall be withdrawn or not granted
