"trustee" means a trustee appointed by the High Court in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section thirty-three.

(2) Any reference in this Act to a person being charged with an offence is a reference to an allegation being laid against the person for the offence, whether or not—

(a) a summons has been issued against the person; or

(b) a warrant for the arrest of the person has been issued.

(3) Any reference in this Act to a benefit derived by a person includes a reference to a benefit derived by another person at the request or direction of the first-mentioned person.

(4) Any reference in this Act to the property of a person includes a reference to property in respect of which the person has a beneficial interest.

3. (1) Parts II to VII, other than section forty-six, shall not apply to the conviction of a person of an offence if the conviction took place before the date of commencement of this Act. Application.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), this Act shall apply in respect of—

(a) any offence, whether committed before or after the date of commencement of this Act;

(b) a person's conviction of an offence whether before or after the date of commencement of this Act.

PART II

CONFISCATION

4. (1) Where a person is convicted of a serious offence, the Attorney-General may, subject to subsection (2), apply to the court convicting the person or any appropriate court, not later than six months after the conviction of the person, for— Application for confiscation order.

(a) a forfeiture order against any property that is tainted property in respect of the offence; or

(b) a pecuniary penalty order against the person in respect of any benefit derived by the person from the commission of the offence.

(2) The Attorney-General shall not, except with the leave of the court, make an application in terms of subsection (1) for a forfeiture order or a pecuniary penalty order—

(a) if an application has previously been made under that subsection or in terms of any other enactment; and

(b) the application has been finally determined on the merits.

(3) The court shall not grant leave in terms of subsection (2) unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the property, which is tainted property, or the benefit to which the new application relates was identified only after the first application was determined; or
- (b) necessary evidence became available only after the first application was determined; or
- (c) it is in the interests of justice to grant the leave.

(4) An application may be made in terms of this section for a pecuniary penalty order in respect of an offence notwithstanding that section nineteen applies to the offence.

Notice of application.

5. (1) Where the Attorney-General makes an application in terms of subsection (1) of section four for a forfeiture order against property in respect of a person's conviction of an offence—

- (a) the Attorney-General shall give written notice of the application to the person or to any other person he has reason to believe may have an interest in the property; and
- (b) the person, and any other person who claims an interest in the property, may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application; and
- (c) the court may, at any time before the final determination of the application, direct the Attorney-General to give notice of the application to a specified person or class of persons in a manner and within such time as the court considers appropriate.

(2) Where the Attorney-General makes an application for a pecuniary penalty order against a person—

- (a) the Attorney-General shall give the person written notice of the application; and
- (b) the person may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

Amendment of application.

6. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Attorney-General makes an application for a confiscation order, the court hearing the application may amend the application at the request, or with the consent, of the Attorney-General.

(2) The court may not amend an application so as to include additional property in an application for a forfeiture order or an additional benefit in an application for a pecuniary penalty order unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the property or benefit was not reasonably capable of identification when the application was originally made; or
- (b) necessary evidence became available only after the application was originally made.

(3) Where the Attorney-General requests an amendment of an application for a forfeiture order and the amendment has the effect of including additional property in the application for the forfeiture order—

- (a) the Attorney-General shall give written notice of the request to amend to any person whom he has reason to believe may have an interest in property to be included in the application for the forfeiture order; and
- (b) any person who claims an interest in the property to be included in the application for the forfeiture order may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the request to amend.

(4) Where the Attorney-General requests an amendment of an application for a pecuniary penalty order against a person and the amendment has the effect of including an additional benefit in the application for the pecuniary penalty order, the Attorney-General shall give the person written notice of the request to amend.

7. (1) Where an application is made to a court for a confiscation order in respect of a person's conviction of a serious offence, the court may, in determining the application, have regard to the transcript of any proceedings against the person in relation to the offence.

Procedure on application.

(2) Where an application is made for a confiscation order to the court before which the person was convicted and the court has not, at the time the application is made, passed sentence on the person for the offence, the court may defer passing sentence until it has determined the application for the confiscation order.

PART III

FORFEITURE ORDERS

8. (1) On an application for a forfeiture order in terms of section four, the court may, if it is satisfied that the property to which the application relates is tainted property, order that the property or such of the property as it may specify in the order, is forfeited to the State.

Forfeiture orders.

(2) Where the court orders that property, other than money is forfeited to the State, it shall specify in the order the amount that it considers to be the value of the property at the time the order is made.

(3) In granting an application for a forfeiture order in respect of any property, the court shall take into consideration—

- (a) any hardship that may reasonably be expected to be caused to any person by the granting of the order; and
- (b) the use that is ordinarily made, or was intended to be made, of the property; and
- (c) the gravity of the offence concerned.

(4) Any evidence given at the hearing of the application for a forfeiture order in respect of any property that the property concerned was in the possession of the convicted person at the time of, or immediately after, the commission of the offence and no evidence is given to show that the property was not used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence, the court shall assume that the property was used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence.

(5) In granting an application for a forfeiture order, the court may give any directions necessary or convenient for giving effect to the order, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, directions to an officer of the court to do anything necessary and reasonable to obtain possession of any document necessary for the transfer of any property subject to registration in the Deeds Registry.

(6) In granting a forfeiture order the court may, if it is satisfied that it would be in the public interest for a person's interest in the property to be transferred to him, determine the nature, extent and value of the interest and declare that the forfeiture order may, to the extent to which it relates to the interest, be discharged in accordance with section twenty-two.

Effects of forfeiture
order.

9. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a court makes a forfeiture order against property the property shall vest in the State.

(2) Where a forfeiture order is made against property subject to registration in the Deeds Registry, any rights in the property shall lie with the State until the registration is effected.

(3) The State shall be registered as owner of any property subject to a forfeiture order and the Minister shall do or authorize to be done anything necessary or convenient to obtain the registration of the State as owner, including, the execution of any instrument required to be executed by a person transferring an interest in property of that nature.

Effect of forfeiture
order on third parties.

10. (1) Where an application for a forfeiture order is made against property, any person who has an interest in the property may, before the forfeiture order is made, apply to the court for an order under subsection (6).

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (7), where a forfeiture order against property has been made, any person who has an interest in the property may apply to the court for an order under subsection (6).

(3) A person who was given notice of an application for a forfeiture order or who appeared at the hearing of the application shall not make an application to court in terms of subsection (2) except with the leave of the court.

(4) The leave of the court referred to in subsection (3) may be granted if the court is satisfied that there are special grounds for granting the leave.

(5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4), the court may grant a person leave to apply if it is satisfied that the evidence which the person intended to adduce in connection with the application under subsection (2) was not available to him at the time of the hearing of the application.

(6) Where a person applies to a court for an order under this subsection in respect of his interest in property against which an application for a forfeiture order or a forfeiture order has been made and the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant was not in any way involved in the commission of the offence concerned; or
- (b) if the applicant acquired his interest at the time, or after the commission, of the offence, the applicant did so—

- (i) for sufficient value; and

- (ii) without knowing and in circumstances such as not to arouse reasonable suspicion that the property was, at the time of the acquisition, tainted property;

the court shall make an order for the transfer of the interest by the State to the applicant or for the payment by the State to the applicant of an amount equal to the value of the interest, as the court thinks fit.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), an application under subsection (2) shall be made before the expiration of a period of six months commencing on the day on which the forfeiture order is made.

(8) Where a forfeiture order is made against property, the court that made the order may, on application being made to it, grant a person claiming an interest in the property leave to apply in terms of subsection (2), after the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (7) if it is satisfied that the person's failure to make his application within that period was not due to any neglect on his part.

(9) A person who makes an application in terms of subsection (1) or (2) shall notify the Attorney-General and the Minister of the making of the application.

(10) The Attorney-General shall be a party to proceedings upon an application in terms of subsection (1) or (2) and the Minister may intervene in any such proceedings.

11. (1) A forfeiture order against property shall be discharged on the quashing of the conviction upon which the forfeiture order is based.

Discharge of forfeiture
order on appeal or on quashing of conviction.

(2) Where a forfeiture order against property is discharged in terms of subsection (1) or on an appeal against the making of the order, the Attorney-General shall—

- (a) as soon as practicable after the discharge of the order, give written notice of the discharge of the order to any person whom he has reason to believe had an interest in the property immediately before the making of the order; or

- (b) if so required by the court, publish in the Gazette a notice of the discharge of the order in such manner and within such time as the court considers appropriate.

(3) A notice referred to in subsection (2) shall specify, in accordance with subsection (4), the manner in which any person who claims an interest in the property shall apply for the transfer of the interest to the person.

(4) Where a forfeiture order is discharged in terms of subsection (1) or on appeal against the making of the order, any person who, immediately before the making of the forfeiture order, claimed an interest in the property may apply to the Minister, in writing, for the transfer of the interest to him and, on receipt of the application, the Minister shall—

- (a) where the interest is vested in the State, arrange for the transfer of the interest to the person; or
(b) in any other case, pay to the person an amount equal to the value of the interest.

(5) Where the Minister is to arrange for the transfer of property to a person, he may do or authorize to be done anything necessary or convenient to effect the transfer, including the execution of any instrument and the making of an application for registration of an interest in the property.

Registered
foreign forfeiture
orders.

12. (1) Where a foreign forfeiture order is registered with the High Court in terms of Part VI of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, this Part shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the foreign forfeiture order.

(2) Any property in relation to which a foreign forfeiture order has been registered in terms of subsection (1) may be disposed of or otherwise be dealt with in accordance with any direction of the Attorney-General or of a person authorized by the Attorney-General in writing for that purpose.

PART IV

PECUNIARY PENALTY ORDERS

Application
of Part IV.

13. This Part shall apply to—

- (a) property that comes into the possession, or under the control, of a person, whether within or outside Zimbabwe and whether before or after the date of commencement of this Act; and
(b) benefits that accrued to a person, whether within or outside Zimbabwe and whether before or after the date of commencement of this Act.

Special provision relating to specified
offences.

14. An application for a pecuniary penalty order against a person in respect of his conviction of a specified offence shall not be granted by a court before the expiry of a period of six months commencing on the date of the conviction upon which the application is based or after the expiry of a period of twelve months from that date.

15. (1) Where an application is made to a court for a pecuniary penalty order in respect of benefits derived by a person from the commission of an offence and the court is satisfied that that person derived benefits from the commission of the offence, the court may, in terms of section sixteen, assess the value of the benefits so derived and order that person to pay to the State, subject to subsections (2) and (3), a pecuniary penalty equal to the value of the benefits assessed.

Pecuniary
orders.

(2) Where property that is the proceeds of an offence has been forfeited in terms of this Act or any other enactment or a forfeiture order is proposed to be made against property that is the proceeds of an offence, the penalty referred to in subsection (1) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the value as at the time of the making of the pecuniary penalty order of the property forfeited.

(3) Where any amount of tax, whether under the law of Zimbabwe or a foreign country, has been paid by a person and that tax is attributable in whole or in part to the benefits in respect of which the pecuniary penalty order is being made, such amount may, if the court so directs, be deductible from the penalty assessed in terms of subsection (1).

(4) The court may reduce the amount payable by a person under a pecuniary penalty order made in relation to an offence by an amount equal to the amount paid by the person by way of restitution, compensation, damages or a fine in relation to the offence.

(5) In calculating the amount payable under a pecuniary penalty order, if the court took into account a forfeiture of, or a proposed forfeiture order in respect of, property and an appeal against the forfeiture order is allowed or the proceedings for the proposed forfeiture order are terminated before the order is made, the Attorney-General may apply to the court for a variation of the pecuniary penalty order to increase the pecuniary penalty by the value of the property concerned and the court may vary the order accordingly.

(6) In calculating the amount payable under a pecuniary penalty order, if the court took into account an amount of tax paid by the person and an amount is repaid or refunded to the person in respect of that tax, the Attorney-General may apply to the court for a variation of the pecuniary penalty order to increase the pecuniary penalty by the amount repaid or refunded and the court may vary the order accordingly.

(7) Any amount payable by a person to the State in terms of a pecuniary penalty order shall be a civil debt due to the State and shall be recoverable by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

16. (1) For the purposes of a pecuniary penalty order against a person (hereinafter referred to as "the defendant"), the value of the benefits derived by the defendant from the commission of an offence shall be assessed by the court having regard to—

Assessment of pecuniary penalty.

(a) the amount of money or value of property that came into the possession or under the control of—

- (i) the defendant; or
- (ii) any other person at the request or direction of the defendant;
by reason of the commission of the offence; and
- (b) the value of any other benefit gained by—
 - (i) the defendant; or
 - (ii) any other person at the request or direction of the defendant;
by reason of the commission of the offence; and
- (c) if the offence consisted of the doing of an act or thing in relation to a narcotic substance—
 - (i) the market value, at the time of the offence, of a similar or substantially similar narcotic substance; and
 - (ii) the amount that was, or the range of amounts that were, ordinarily paid for doing a similar or substantially similar act or thing;
and
- (d) the value of the defendant's property before and after the commission of the offence; and
- (e) the defendant's income and expenditure before and after the offence.

(2) In assessing the value of a benefit for the purposes of this section, the court may treat as the value of the benefit the value that the benefit would have had had the benefit derived at the time the valuation is being made and may have regard to any decline in the purchasing power of money between the time the benefit was derived and the time the valuation is being made.

(3) Where an application is made for a pecuniary penalty order against a person's property in respect of a serious offence other than a specified offence—

- (a) if evidence is adduced that the value of the person's property after the commission of the offence exceeded the value of the person's property before the commission of the offence, the court shall, for the purposes of subsection (1) of section fifteen but subject to paragraph (b) and subsection (7), treat the value of the benefits derived by the person from the commission of the offences as being not less than the amount of the excess;
- (b) if, following the evidence referred to in paragraph (a), the person satisfies the court that—
 - (i) the whole of the excess was due to causes unrelated to the commission of the offence, paragraph (a) shall not apply; or
 - (ii) a part of the excess was due to causes unrelated to the commission of the offence, paragraph (a) shall apply only to that part of the excess which is related to the commission of the offence.

(4) Where an application is made for a pecuniary penalty order against a person's property in respect of a specified offence or offences—

- (a) all the property of that person at the time the application is made; and
- (b) all the property of that person at any time—
 - (i) between the day the offence, or the earliest offence, was committed and the day on which the application is made; or
 - (ii) within the period of five years immediately before the day on which the application is made;

whichever is the shorter;

shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to be property that came into the possession or under the control of the person by reason of the commission of the specified offence or offences.

(5) A benefit shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this section if a pecuniary penalty has been imposed in respect of the benefit in terms of this Act or any other enactment.

(6) For the purposes of this section, where the property of a person has vested in a trustee by reason of the person's insolvency, the property shall be taken to continue to be the property of the person.

(7) At the hearing of an application for a pecuniary penalty order, a police officer who has experience in the investigation of narcotic offences may testify, to the best of his information, knowledge and belief—

- (a) as to the market value of a narcotic substance at a particular time or during a particular period;
- (b) as to the price, or range of prices, paid at a particular period for the doing of an act or thing in relation to a narcotic substance;

notwithstanding any law or practice relating to hearsay evidence, and the testimony shall be prima facie evidence of the matters testified to.

17. (1) In assessing the value of benefits derived by a person from the commission of any serious offence, the court may treat as property of the person any property that, in the opinion of the court, is subject to the effective control of the person whether or not the person has—

Court may lift corporate veil.

- (a) any legal or other interest in the property; or
- (b) any right, power or privilege in connection with the property.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the court may have regard to—

- (a) shareholdings in, debentures over or directorships of any company that has an interest, whether direct or indirect, in the property; and

- (b) any trust that has a relationship to the property; and
- (c) any family, domestic or business relationships between persons having an interest in the property or in any company or trust referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), and any other persons.

(3) Where a court treats particular property as a person's property in terms of subsection (1) for the purposes of making a pecuniary penalty order against that person, the court may, on application by the Attorney-General, make an order declaring that the property is available to satisfy the order.

(4) Where the Attorney-General makes an application in terms of subsection (3)—

- (a) he shall give written notice of the application to the person and to any other person whom he has reason to believe may have an interest in the property; and
- (b) any person referred to in paragraph (a) may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

*Amounts paid
in respect of registered foreign pecuniary
orders.*

18. Where a foreign pecuniary penalty order is registered with the High Court in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, any amount paid, whether in Zimbabwe or in the foreign country in which the order was made or elsewhere, in satisfaction of the foreign pecuniary penalty order shall be taken to have been paid in settlement of the debt arising by reason of the registration of the order with the High Court.

PART V

FORFEITURE IN RESPECT OF SPECIFIED OFFENCES

*Forfeiture of interdicted property in relation to
offences.*

19. (1) Subject to subsection (4) of section thirty-seven, if at the end of a period of six months commencing on the day of conviction an interdict issued in respect of the property of a person convicted of a specified offence is still in force, the property shall be forfeited to the State.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), property forfeited to the State in terms of subsection (1) shall vest in the State.

(3) Where immovable property or other property whose ownership passes through registration is forfeited to the State, the State shall be entitled to be registered as the owner of the property and the Minister shall have power to do, or to authorize to be done, anything necessary or convenient to effect the registration of the State as the owner, including execution of any instrument required to be executed by a person transferring an interest in property of that kind.

(4) Where property is forfeited to the State in terms of this section—

- (a) the property shall not, except with the leave of the court that issued the interdict and in accordance with any directions the court may make, be disposed of or otherwise dealt with by or on behalf of the State until any appeal noted in relation to the matter has been determined or the time for noting an appeal has lapsed without any appeal having been noted; and

- (b) if, at the end of the period referred to in paragraph (a), the conviction has not been quashed, the property may be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, in accordance with any direction of the Minister or of a person authorized by the Minister for the purposes of this paragraph.

(5) Any direction in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (4) may include a direction that the property shall be disposed of in accordance with any enactment specified in the direction.

20. (1) Where property is forfeited to the State in terms of section nineteen, any person who claims an interest in the property may, subject to subsections (2) and (4), apply to the court which issued the interdict for an order under subsection (6) or (7). Recovery of property to which section 19 applies.

(2) The application referred to in subsection (1) shall, subject to subsection (3), be made before the expiry of the period of six months commencing on the day on which the property is forfeited to the State.

(3) The court may grant a person leave to apply after the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (2) if it is satisfied that the delay in making the application was not due to neglect.

(4) An application for an order under subsection (6) or (7) in relation to an interest in property shall not, except with the leave of the court, be made by a person who was given notice of the proceedings at the time of the application for the issue of the interdict.

(5) The court may grant a person leave in terms of subsection (4) if it is satisfied that his failure to have the property excluded from the interdict was not due to any neglect on his part.

(6) Where a person applies for an order in respect of an interest in property and the court is satisfied—

- (a) that the applicant was not in any way involved in the commission of the relevant specified offence; and
- (b) where the applicant acquired the interest at the time of or after the commission of the offence, that he did so lawfully and for sufficient value; and
- (c) that the property was acquired in circumstances such as would not arouse a reasonable suspicion that the property was tainted property;

the court may make an order declaring the nature, extent and value of the interest of the applicant and direct the State to transfer the interest to the applicant or order the payment to the applicant by the State of an amount equal to the value of the interest.

(7) Where a person applies for an order in respect of an interest in property and the court is satisfied that it would not be contrary to public interest for the interest to be transferred to the person and that there is no other reason why the interest should not be transferred to the person, the court may—

quashing of conviction.

- (a) determine the nature, extent and value of the interest; and
- (b) order that section nineteen shall cease to operate in relation to the interest if payment for the interest is made in terms of section twenty-two.

21. (1) Where a conviction in respect of property forfeited to the State in terms of section nineteen is quashed, the Attorney-General shall—

- (a) as soon as practicable after the quashing of the conviction, give notice of the quashing of the conviction to any person whom the Attorney-General has reason to believe may have had an interest in the property immediately before the property was forfeited; and
- (b) if ordered to do so by the court, give written notice or publish a notice in the Gazette of the quashing of the conviction to a specified person or class of persons within such time as the court may fix.

(2) A notice in terms of subsection (1) shall include a statement to the effect that a person claiming an interest in the property may apply in terms of subsection (3) for the transfer of the interest to the person.

(3) Any person who claims to have had an interest in property immediately before it was forfeited to the State may apply to the Minister, in writing, for the transfer of the interest to himself and on receipt of application, the Minister shall—

- (a) if the interest is in respect of property which is still vested in the State, arrange for the transfer of the interest to the person; or
- (b) in any other case, arrange for the payment to the person of an amount equal to the value of the interest.

(4) In arranging for the transfer of any property in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (3), the Minister shall have power to do, or authorize to be done, anything necessary or convenient to effect the transfer, including the execution of any instrument.

Person with interest in forfeited property
entitled to buy back
interest.

22. (1) Where a court makes an order in terms of subsection (6) of section eight in respect of an interest in property, the payment to the State of the amount specified in the order as the value of the interest shall discharge the forfeiture order to the extent to which it relates to the interest.

(2) Where a court makes an order in terms of subsection (7) of section twenty, and a payment to the State of an amount specified in the order as the value of the interest is made, section nineteen shall cease to apply in relation to the interest.

(3) The Minister shall arrange for the interests referred to subsections (1) and (2) to be transferred to the person in whom they were vested immediately before the property was forfeited to the State, and shall have power to do, or authorize to be done, anything necessary or convenient to effect the transfer, including the execution of any instrument.

23. Where a person is, in terms of this Part, authorized to take transfer of any interest in property which is forfeited to the State, the person may, on giving notice to any other person who may have had some other interest in the property immediately before the forfeiture took place, purchase that other interest from the State:

Buying out other interests in forfeited property.

Provided that the person served with the notice may, within twenty-one days of the receipt of the notice, lodge with the Minister a written objection to the purchase of that interest.

24. (1) Where the Attorney-General suspects on reasonable grounds that any person has acquired, holds or is dealing with tainted property and it is not possible—

Forfeiture where person cannot be brought before court.

(a) for any reason to bring the person before a court on a charge for any serious offence; or

(b) for a foreign pecuniary penalty order or a foreign forfeiture order to be made in respect of the person;

he may apply to the High Court for an order declaring the property forfeited to the State.

(2) The High Court may, on an application in terms of subsection (1), if it is satisfied that the property concerned is tainted property and that it is in the interests of justice that the property be forfeited to the State, order accordingly.

PART VI

SEARCH POWERS IN RELATION TO PROPERTY LIABLE TO CONFISCATION

25. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer may search a person for, and seize, any property which the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be tainted property.

Powers of search and seizure.

(2) The search or seizure referred to in subsection (1) shall be made—

(a) with the consent of the person concerned; or

(b) under warrant issued in terms of section twenty-six; or

(c) in emergencies in terms of section twenty-eight.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer may enter upon any land or upon or into premises, search the land or premises for tainted property and seize any property found in the course of the search which the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be tainted property.

(4) In conducting a search in terms of this section, a police officer may also search the clothing that is being worn by the person and any property under or apparently under the person's immediate control:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be construed as authorizing a police officer to carry out a search by way of an examination of body cavities.

Search warrants in relation to tainted
property.

26. (1) Where a police officer has reasonable grounds for believing that there is tainted property of a particular kind on a person, his clothing or under his immediate control, or upon any land or upon or in any premises, he may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant for the tainted property.

(2) On an application in terms of subsection (1), a police officer shall lay before the magistrate information on oath setting out the grounds upon which the warrant is sought and the magistrate may, subject to subsection (4), issue a warrant authorizing a police officer to—

- (a) in the case of a search warrant in respect of land or premises, enter upon the land, or upon or into the premises; and
- (b) search for the tainted property; and
- (c) seize property found in the course of the search which the police officer, on reasonable grounds, believes to be tainted property.

(3) A search warrant may be issued in terms of subsection (2) in relation to tainted property whether or not information has been laid before the magistrate in respect of the relevant offence.

(4) A magistrate shall not issue a warrant in terms of this section unless he is satisfied that—

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant; and
- (b) where information has not been laid before him in respect of the relevant offence at the time of the application for the warrant—
 - (i) the property is tainted property; and
 - (ii) information will be laid before him in respect of the relevant offence within forty-eight hours.

(5) A warrant issued in terms of this section shall specify—

- (a) the purpose for which the warrant is issued, including the nature of the relevant offence; and
- (b) the kind of property authorized to be seized; and
- (c) the date on which the warrant shall cease to have effect; and
- (d) the time during which entry upon any land or premises is authorized.

(6) If in the course of searching under a search warrant issued in terms of this section for tainted property in relation to a particular offence, a police officer finds—

- (a) property which he believes on reasonable grounds to be tainted property in relation to the offence, although not of a kind specified in the warrant; or
- (b) tainted property in relation to another serious offence; or

- (c) anything that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, will afford evidence as to the commission of a criminal offence;

and the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to seize that property or thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction, or its use in committing or continuing or repeating the offence or any other offence, the warrant shall be deemed to authorize the police officer to seize that property or thing.

(7) A police officer acting in accordance with a warrant issued in terms of this section may require a person to remove any clothing that the person is wearing but only if the removal of the clothing is necessary and reasonable for an effective search of the person.

(8) A person shall not be searched in terms of this section except by a person of the same sex and with strict regard to decency.

27. (1) Where, by reason of circumstances of urgency, a police officer considers it necessary to do so, he may apply for a search warrant to a magistrate by telephone. Grant of search warrant by telephone.

(2) Before making the application referred to in subsection (1), the police officer shall prepare the information referred to in subsection (2) of section twenty-six.

(3) On an application in terms of subsection (1), a magistrate may, if satisfied after considering the information referred to in subsection (2) or any other information he may receive concerning the grounds upon which the issue of the search warrant is sought, that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant, he shall issue the warrant and record thereon the reasons for granting it.

(4) Where a magistrate has issued a warrant in terms of subsection (3), he shall inform the police officer of the terms of the warrant and the date on which and the time at which it was signed and the police officer shall in turn complete a form of warrant in terms furnished by the magistrate, including the name of the magistrate.

(5) Not later than the day next following the date of the execution of the warrant or the expiry of the warrant, whichever is the earlier, the police officer shall give the magistrate who authorized the warrant the form of the warrant completed by him and the information in connection with the warrant, duly sworn.

(6) On receipt of the documents referred to in subsection (5), the magistrate shall attach to them the warrant signed by him and deal with the documents in the manner in which he would have dealt with them had the application been made in terms of section twenty-six.

(7) A form of warrant duly completed by a police officer in accordance with subsection (4) shall be authority for any search, entry or seizure.

Search in emergencies.

28. A police officer may search a person for tainted property or enter upon land or upon or into premises and search for tainted property and may seize any tainted property he finds in the course of the search if—

- (a) he believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent the concealment, loss or destruction of the tainted property; and
- (b) the search, entry or seizure is made in circumstances of such seriousness and urgency as to require and justify immediate search, entry or seizure without the authority of an order of the court or a warrant issued in terms of this Act.

Responsibility for seized
property.

29. Where property is seized in terms of this Part, the Commissioner of Police shall arrange for the property to be kept and shall ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to preserve it while it is so kept until it is required for the purposes of this Act or disposed of in terms of this Act.

Return of seized
property.

30. (1) Where property has been seized in terms of this Part and—

- (a) it appears that the property was seized otherwise than because it may afford evidence of the commission of an offence; or
- (b) at the end of the period of forty-eight hours after its seizure, the matter has not been laid before a magistrate; or
- (c) no forfeiture order is made in respect of the property within fourteen days after the conviction of a person in connection with the property;

any person who claims an interest in the property may apply to the court for an order that the property be returned to him.

(2) Where an application for an interdict or a forfeiture order in respect of property seized in terms of this Part is refused, the Commissioner of Police shall arrange for the property to be returned to the person from whose possession it was seized as soon as practicable after the refusal of the application.

Search for and seizure of tainted property in relation to foreign
offences.

31. (1) Where a police officer is authorized in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, to apply to a magistrate for a search warrant under this Act in relation to tainted property in respect of a foreign specified offence, the provisions of this Part shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the application for the search warrant.

(2) If, in the course of searching for tainted property in relation to a foreign specified offence, a police officer finds—

- (a) any property which he believes, on reasonable grounds, to be tainted property in relation to the foreign specified offence although not of the kind specified in the warrant;

- (b) any property which he believes, on reasonable grounds, to be tainted property in relation to another foreign specified offence in respect of which a search warrant is in force; or
- (c) anything which he believes, on reasonable grounds—
 - (i) to be relevant to criminal proceedings in the foreign country in respect of the foreign specified offence; or
 - (ii) will afford evidence as to the commission of a criminal offence;

and he believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to seize that property or thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction, or its use in committing, continuing or repeating the offence or any other offence, the warrant shall be deemed to authorize the police officer to seize that property or thing.

(3) Any person who claims an interest in property seized under a warrant issued in respect of a foreign specified offence may apply to court for an order that the property be returned to him.

(4) On an application in terms of subsection (3), if the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the person is entitled to the property; and
- (b) the property is not tainted property in relation to the foreign specified offence;

the court shall order the Commissioner of Police to return the property to that person.

(5) Where property has been seized in respect of a foreign specified offence and, at the end of thirty days after the day on which the property was seized—

- (a) neither a foreign interdict nor a foreign forfeiture order in relation to the property has been registered in accordance with the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990; and
- (b) an interim interdict has not been issued in terms of this Act in relation to the foreign specified offence;

the Commissioner of Police shall arrange for the property to be returned to the person from whose possession it was seized as soon as practicable after the expiry of that period.

PART VII

INTERDICTS

32. In this Part—

“defendant” means a person convicted of a serious offence.

Interpretation
in Part VII.

33. (1) Where a person has been convicted of a serious offence or has been or is about to be charged with a serious offence, the Attorney-General may apply to court for an interdict in terms of this Part against all or any specified property of that person including property acquired after the issue of the interdict and property of a person other than the defendant. Interdicts.

(2) On an application in terms of subsection (1), the court may, subject to section thirty-four—

- (a) order that the property specified in the application shall not be disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, by any person except in such manner and in such circumstances as are specified in the order; or
- (b) if it is satisfied that the circumstances so require, direct that the property or such part of the property as is specified in the order, be taken into the custody and control of a trustee appointed for that purpose by the court.

(3) An interdict against a person's property may be granted subject to such conditions as the court thinks fit and may make provision for meeting out of the property—

- (a) that person's reasonable living expenses, including the reasonable living expenses of that person's dependants and reasonable business expenses; and
- (b) that person's reasonable expenses in defending a criminal charge; and
- (c) a specified debt incurred by that person in good faith, being a debt to which neither paragraph (a) nor (b) applies.

(4) A court shall not make any provision referred to in subsection (3) unless it is satisfied that the defendant cannot meet the expense or debt concerned out of property that is not subject to the interdict.

(5) Where a trustee takes charge of any property in terms of this section, he may do anything that is reasonably necessary for the purpose of preserving the property, including—

- (a) becoming a party to any civil proceedings affecting the property; and
- (b) ensuring that the property is insured; and
- (c) if the property consists, in whole or in part, of a business, employing or terminating the employment of persons in the business.

Grounds for issuing an interdict.

34. (1) Where the offence concerned is a specified offence, the court shall, subject to this section, issue an interdict against the property.

(2) Where the offence concerned is a serious offence other than a specified offence, the court shall, subject to this section, issue an interdict against the property unless the court is satisfied that it is not in the public interest to make such an order.

(3) Where the defendant has not been convicted of the offence concerned, the court shall not issue an interdict unless—

- (a) the application for the interdict is supported by an affidavit of a police officer stating that he believes that the defendant committed the offence; and

- (b) the court is satisfied, having regard to the matters contained in the affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for holding that belief.

(4) Where the application is made pending the charging of the defendant with the offence concerned, the court shall not issue an interdict unless it is satisfied that the defendant will be charged with the offence or a related offence within forty-eight hours.

(5) Where the offence concerned is a serious offence other than a specified offence, the court shall not issue an interdict against the property of the defendant unless—

- (a) the application is supported by an affidavit of a police officer stating that he believes that —

- (i) the property is tainted property in relation to the offence; or

- (ii) the defendant derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the offence;

and

- (b) the court is satisfied, having regard to the matters contained in the affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for holding that belief.

(6) Where an interdict is sought against a person other than the defendant, the court shall not issue the interdict unless—

- (a) the application is supported by an affidavit of a police officer stating that he believes that—

- (i) the property is tainted property in relation to the offence; or

- (ii) the property is subject to the effective control of the defendant who derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the offence;

and

- (b) the court is satisfied, having regard to the matters contained in the affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for holding that belief.

(7) In determining whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that property is in the effective control of the defendant, the court may have regard to the matters referred to in subsection (2) of section seventeen.

(8) An interdict shall be granted in respect of property whether or not there is any risk of the property being disposed of, or otherwise dealt with, in such manner as would defeat the operation of this Act.

(9) A court may refuse to grant an interdict if the State fails to give the court such undertakings as the court considers appropriate with respect to the payment of damages or costs in relation to the granting and operation of the order.

(10) An affidavit made by a police officer for the purposes of this section shall set out the grounds on which the officer holds any particular belief.

Notice of application for interdict.

35. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Attorney-General shall give written notice of an application for an interdict against property to—

- (a) the owner of the property; and
- (b) any other person whom he has reason to believe may have an interest in the property.

(2) The court may grant an interdict notwithstanding that no notice of the application has been given in terms of subsection (1) if it is satisfied that—

- (a) circumstances of urgency require the granting of the order; or
- (b) it would be contrary to the public interest to give notice of the application;

but, subject to subsection (3), an interdict granted in terms of this subsection shall cease to have effect at the end of such period, not exceeding fourteen days, as may be specified by the court.

(3) The court may, on application by the Attorney-General before the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (2), extend the period of operation of the interdict granted in terms of that subsection if the court is satisfied that there are circumstances justifying the extension and the owner of the property or any other person who may have an interest in the property shall be notified in writing of the application in terms of this subsection.

(4) The court may at any time before the final determination of an application for an interdict or an extension of the period of operation of an interdict, direct the Attorney-General to give or publish notice of the application to a specified person or class of persons, in such manner and within such time as the court may fix.

Persons who may appear and adduce
evidence.

36. Where the Attorney-General has, in terms of section thirty-five, given notice of an application for an interdict or for the extension of the period of operation of an interdict, any person who claims an interest in the property may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

Court may make further
orders.

37. (1) Where a court grants an interdict, it may, at the time it makes the order or at any later time, make any ancillary order which it may consider necessary, including—

- (a) an order varying the property to which the interdict relates; or
- (b) an order varying any condition to which the interdict is subject; or
- (c) an order for the examination on oath of the person (in this section called the "respondent") whose property is subject to the interdict or any other person concerning the affairs of the respondent, including the nature and location of the property of the respondent; or
- (d) an order for the carrying out of any undertaking given by the State in relation to the payment of damages or costs arising from the granting of the interdict; or

(e) where the property is in the custody or under the control of a trustee—

(i) an order directing the manner in which the trustee may exercise his powers or perform his duties in relation to the property; or

(ii) an order determining any question relating to the property including any question relating to the liabilities of the respondent; or

(iii) an order directing the respondent to furnish the trustee, within a specified period, with a statement setting out such particulars of the property as the court may think proper.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may be made on application by—

(a) the Attorney-General; or

(b) the respondent; or

(c) the trustee; or

(d) with the leave of the court, any other person;

and every person with an interest in the matter shall be notified by the applicant, in writing, of the application.

(3) Any person having an interest in property which is the subject of an interdict may apply to court for the variation of the interdict to exclude the person's interest from the order and the court shall grant such application—

(a) if the offence concerned is not a specified offence and the interest is not tainted property; or

(b) where the offence concerned is a specified offence, if it is satisfied that—

(i) the applicant was not in any way involved in the commission of the offence; and

(ii) the interest in the property was acquired for sufficient value, without knowledge, and in circumstances such as not to arouse a reasonable suspicion that the property was tainted property.

(4) An application in terms of subsection (3) may be granted by the court if the court is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so having regard to all the circumstances of the case including—

(a) any financial hardship or other consequence of the interest remaining subject to the interdict; and

(b) the seriousness of the offence; and

(c) the likelihood that the interest may be subject to a forfeiture order or to section nineteen or be required to satisfy a pecuniary penalty order.

(5) A person who has been convicted of or has been charged or is about to be charged with, a specified offence and whose property is subject to an interdict may apply to court for the exclusion of any property from the interdict and the court shall grant such application if it is satisfied that—

(a) the property was not used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence; and

(b) the interest in the property was lawfully acquired.

(6) Where a person is examined before a court pursuant to an order under subsection (1), the person shall not be excused from answering any question on the ground that the answer might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to a penalty.

(7) Where a person other than a person against whom charges have been or are to be laid is examined before a court pursuant to an order under subsection (1), a statement or disclosure made by that person in answer to a question put in the course of the examination, and any information, document or thing obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of the statement or disclosure, shall not be admissible against him in any criminal proceedings except proceedings for giving false testimony in the course of the examination.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (7), proceedings on an application for an interdict, a forfeiture order or a pecuniary penalty order shall not be regarded as criminal proceedings.

(9) Where the Attorney-General applies to court for an order under subsection (1), a witness shall not be required to answer a question or to produce a document if the court is satisfied that the answering of the question or production of the document may prejudice the investigation of, or the prosecution of any person for, an offence.

Trustee to discharge pecuniary
penalty order.

38. (1) Where a court has made a pecuniary penalty order against a person whose property is in the custody or under the control of a trustee, the court may direct the trustee to pay to the State an amount equal to the penalty amount out of the property held by him.

(2) The court may, for the purposes of subsection (1), direct the trustee to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the property in his custody or under his control and authorize him to execute any deed or instrument in the name of the person who owns or has an interest or right in the property.

(3) The trustee shall not apply any money in terms of subsection (1) or dispose of any property in terms of subsection (2) until any appeal noted in relation to the matter has been determined or the time for noting any appeal has lapsed without any appeal having been noted.

Registration
of interdicts.

39. Where an interdict has been granted in respect of immovable property or any property or interest in property that is subject to registration, the Attorney-General shall apply to the appropriate registrar for a recording in the register of the particulars of the interdict.

Contravention of interdicts.

40. (1) Any person who disposes of, or otherwise deals with, property which is subject to an interdict shall be guilty of an offence and liable to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or the value of the property, whichever is the greater, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding fifteen years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or three times the value of the property, whichever is the greater.

(2) Any unauthorized dealing with property which is subject to an interdict may be set aside by the court at the instance of the Attorney-General.

41. (1) If, after a trustee has been directed to pay a pecuniary penalty out of the property of a person, the trustee is given notice in writing of proceedings in terms of the Insolvency Act [Chapter 303] against the person, he shall not take any action to sell or otherwise dispose of any property or pay the State any money until the proceedings have been disposed of.

Duties of trustee.

(2) Where a person whose property is in the custody or under the control of a trustee becomes insolvent, the property shall be deemed to be in the possession or under the control of the trustee as, or on behalf of, the trustee of the estate of the insolvent person.

42. (1) A trustee shall not be personally liable for—

- (a) any loss or damage arising from his having taken custody or control of the property which is sustained by any person claiming the property or an interest in the property unless the court in which the claim is made is of the opinion that the trustee is guilty of negligence in respect of the taking of custody or control of the property; or
- (b) the cost of proceedings instituted to establish a claim to the property or an interest in the property.

Protection of trustee from personal liability.

(2) A trustee shall not be personally liable for any rate or tax due under any enactment in respect of property which is in his custody or under his control.

43. (1) A trustee shall be entitled to remuneration and expenses in respect of the performance of his duties in relation to property in his custody or under his control.

Remuneration and expenses of trustee.

(2) Regulations shall make provision for or in respect of the remuneration and expenses of a trustee in relation to the performance of his duties under this Act.

44. (1) A court may, on application by a person against whom an interdict has been issued, revoke the interdict if the person gives security to the satisfaction of the court for the payment of any pecuniary penalty that may be imposed upon him.

Court may revoke interdicts.

(2) A person who makes an application in terms of subsection (1) shall notify the Attorney-General and, where the property is in the custody or under the control of a trustee, the trustee.

When interdict ceases to have effect.

45. (1) An interdict shall cease to have effect if the charge against the person in relation to whom the interdict was issued is withdrawn or if the person is acquitted.

(2) Where a court has made a confiscation order, an interdict shall cease to have effect once the confiscation order is satisfied or otherwise discharged.

Interim
interdict
in respect of foreign offence.

46. (1) Where the Attorney-General is authorized under the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, to obtain the issue of an interdict in terms of this Act in respect of a foreign specified offence, the provisions of this Part relating to the application for an interdict shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the application for an interdict in respect of the foreign specified offence.

(2) An interdict granted in respect of a foreign specified offence shall cease to have effect on the expiry of a period of thirty days commencing on the day on which the interdict was granted.

(3) On application by the Attorney-General before the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (2), a court may extend the period of operation of the interdict.

(4) Where a foreign interdict is not registered with the High Court in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, before the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (2) or (3), the interdict referred to in subsection (1) shall cease to have effect.

Registered
foreign
interdicts.

47. Where a foreign interdict has been registered with the High Court in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, the provisions of this Part relating to interdicts shall, subject to sections forty-eight and forty-nine, mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to registered foreign interdicts.

Trustee to take control of property
in relation to registered foreign
interdict.

48. (1) Where a foreign interdict has been registered in Zimbabwe, the court may, upon application by the Attorney-General, direct that the property, or any part of the property, be taken into the custody of or under the control of a trustee appointed by the court.

(2) The owner of the property or any other person whom the Attorney-General has reason to believe may have an interest in the property shall be notified in writing of any application in terms of subsection (1).

(3) The court may, before making a direction in terms of subsection (1), direct the Attorney-General to give or publish notice of the application to a specified person or class of persons, in such manner and within such time as the court considers appropriate.

(4) Any person who claims an interest in property in respect of which an application in terms of subsection (1) has been made may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

(5) Where a direction in terms of subsection (1) has been made, the court may at any time make any one or more of the following orders—

- (a) an order regulating the manner in which the trustee may exercise his powers or perform his duties; or
 - (b) an order determining any question relating to that property; or
 - (c) an order directing the owner of the property to furnish the trustee with such particulars relating to the property as the court thinks fit.
- (6) A trustee may do anything that is reasonably necessary for the purpose of preserving the property, including—
- (a) becoming a party to any civil proceedings relating to or affecting the property; and
 - (b) ensuring that the property is insured; and
 - (c) if the property consists, in whole or in part, of a business, employing or terminating the employment of persons in the business.

49. The court may, on application by any person claiming an interest in property which is subject to a foreign interdict and which is in the custody of or under the control of a trustee, make an order requiring the Attorney-General to give or carry out an undertaking with respect to the payment of damages or costs in relation to that foreign interdict.

Undertaking by the Attorney-General.

50. (1) Where—

- (a) a foreign interdict is registered in Zimbabwe against the property of a person convicted of, or alleged to have committed, a foreign specified offence; and
- (b) a foreign pecuniary penalty order against the person is registered in Zimbabwe in relation to the matter; and
- (c) the property is in the custody, or under the control, of a trustee;

Discharge of registered
foreign pecuniary
penalty.

the court in which the foreign pecuniary penalty order is registered may direct the trustee to pay to the State an amount equal to the penalty amount out of that property.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the court may—

- (a) direct the trustee to sell or otherwise dispose of such of the property under his control as the court may specify; and
- (b) authorize the trustee to execute any deed or instrument in the name of the person who owns or has an interest or right in the property.

PART VIII

INFORMATION GATHERING POWERS

51. (1) Where a person has been convicted, or is reasonably suspected of having committed, a serious offence and a police officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that any person has possession or control of any property-tracking document in relation to that offence, he may apply to a judge for an order directing the Production

orders.

person, subject to subsection (5), to produce to a police officer any document described in the order which is in that person's possession or control.

(2) An application in terms of subsection (1) shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds upon which the suspicion is based.

(3) Where, in an application for an order in terms of subsection (1), a police officer includes in the affidavit referred to in subsection (2) information that he has reasonable grounds to believe that the person concerned derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the offence and that the property specified in the affidavit is subject to the effective control of the person, the judge may treat any document relevant to identifying, locating or quantifying that property as a property-tracking document in relation to the offence for the purposes of this section.

(4) In determining in terms of subsection (3) whether to treat a document as a property-tracking document in relation to an offence, a judge may have regard to matters referred to in subsection (2) of section seventeen.

(5) An order for the production of documents shall not be made—

- (a) in respect of bankers' books; or
- (b) unless the judge is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for making the order.

(6) Where a document is produced to a police officer, the police officer may—

- (a) inspect the document; or
- (b) take extracts from the document; or
- (c) make copies of the document; or
- (d) retain the document if, and for as long as, retention of the document is reasonably necessary for purposes of this Act.

(7) A police officer referred to in subsection (6) shall, at the request of the person to whom the order was addressed—

- (a) give the person a copy of the document certified by the police officer in writing to be a true copy of the document; or
- (b) permit the person to—
 - (i) inspect the document; or
 - (ii) take extracts from the document; or
 - (iii) make copies of the document.

(8) A person shall not be excused from producing a document on the ground that the production thereof—

- (a) might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to a penalty; or
- (b) would be in breach of any obligation or privilege not to disclose the existence or contents of the document.

(9) The production of a document in terms of this section or any information, document or thing obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of the production of the document, shall not be admissible against any person, other than the person against whom charges have or are to be laid, in any criminal proceedings except proceedings relating to—

- (a) a contravention of the order of the court; or
- (b) the production of a document known to the person to be false or misleading in a material particular.

(10) For the purposes of subsection (9), proceedings on an application for an interdict, a forfeiture order or a pecuniary penalty order shall not be regarded as criminal proceedings.

(11) In this section—

“bankers’ books” means any accounting records used in the ordinary business of banking and includes ledgers, day-books, cash-books and account books.

52. Where a court makes a production order requiring a person to produce a document to a police officer, that person may apply to the court for a variation of the order and if the court is satisfied that the document is essential to the business activities of the person, it may vary the production order so as to require the person to make the document available to the police officer for inspection.

Variation of production order.

53. (1) Where a police officer is authorized in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, to apply to court for a production order under this Act in respect of a foreign specified offence, he may apply for the order and sections fifty-one and fifty-two shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of the foreign specified offence.

Production orders in relation to foreign offences.

(2) Where a police officer takes possession of a document under a production order made in respect of a foreign specified offence, he may retain the document for a period of one month pending a written direction from the Attorney-General as to the manner in which the document is to be dealt with, which may include a direction that the document be sent to an authority of the foreign country which requested the obtaining of the production order.

54. (1) A police officer may enter upon any land or upon or into any premises and—

- (a) search the land or premises for any property-tracking document in relation to a serious offence; and
- (b) seize any document found in the course of the search which he believes, on reasonable grounds, to be a property-tracking document in relation to the serious offence.

Powers to search for property-tracking document.

(2) Entry by a police officer shall be made with the consent of the occupier of the land or premises or under a warrant issued in terms of section fifty-five.

Search warrant for property-tracking
document.

55. (1) Where a person has been convicted of, or is reasonably suspected of having committed, as serious offence, and a police officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is upon any land or upon or in any premises, a property-tracking document in relation to the offence, that police officer may apply to a judge for a search warrant in respect of the land or premises and the judge may, subject to subsection (5), issue a search warrant authorizing a police officer, with such assistance as is necessary—

- (a) to enter upon the land or into premises specified in the warrant to search for documents described in the warrant; and
- (b) to seize any document found in the course of the search that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be a property-tracking document.

(2) An application in terms of subsection (1) shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds upon which the suspicion is based.

(3) Where, in an application for a warrant in terms of subsection (1), a police officer includes in the affidavit referred to in subsection (2) information that he has reasonable grounds to believe that the person concerned derived a benefit, directly or indirectly, from the commission of the offence and that the property specified in the affidavit is subject to the effective control of the person, the judge may treat any document relevant to identifying, locating or quantifying that property as a property-tracking document in relation to the offence for the purposes of this section.

(4) In determining, in terms of subsection (3), whether to treat a document as a property-tracking document in relation to an offence, the judge may have regard to the matters referred to in subsection (2) of section seventeen.

(5) A search warrant shall not be issued in terms of this section unless the judge is satisfied that—

- (a) the document concerned cannot be identified or described with sufficient particularity for the purposes of obtaining a production order; and
- (b) a production order has been given in respect of the document and has not been complied with; and
- (c) a production order is unlikely to be complied with; and
- (d) the investigation for the purposes of which the search warrant is sought might be seriously prejudiced if the police officer does not gain immediate access to the document without notice to any person; and
- (e) there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant.

(6) The search warrant shall state—

- (a) the purpose for which it has been issued, including the nature of the serious offence which has been or is believed to have been committed; and
- (b) the time during which entry is authorized; and

(c) a description of the kind of documents authorized to be seized; and

(d) a date, being not later than thirty days after the date of issue of the warrant, on which the warrant shall cease to have effect.

(7) If, in the course of searching for a particular document in relation to an offence, a police officer finds—

(a) another document which is not of the kind described in the warrant but which he believes, on reasonable grounds, to be a property-tracking document in relation to the offence concerned or a property-tracking document in relation to another serious offence; or

(b) anything that he believes, on reasonable grounds, will afford evidence as to the commission of an offence;

he may, if he believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to seize the document or thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction, seize the document or thing.

56. (1) Where a police officer is authorized in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, to apply to the High Court for a search warrant under this Act for a property-tracking document in respect of a foreign specified offence, the police officer may apply for the warrant and section fifty-five shall mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of the application.

Search warrants
in relation to foreign offences.

(2) Where a police officer takes possession of a document under a warrant in respect of a foreign specified offence, he may retain it for a period not exceeding thirty days pending a written direction from the Attorney-General as to the manner in which the document is to be dealt with, which may include a direction that the document is to be sent to an authority of the foreign country that requested the issue of the warrant.

57. (1) A police officer may apply to a judge for a monitoring order directing a financial institution to give information to the Commissioner of Police about financial transactions conducted through an account held by a particular person with that financial institution.

Monitoring
orders.

(2) A monitoring order shall apply in relation to financial transactions conducted during a period specified in the order.

(3) A judge shall not make a monitoring order unless he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person in respect of whose account the information is sought—

(a) has committed or is reasonably suspected of having committed a specified offence; or

(b) was involved in the commission of, or is reasonably suspected of having been involved in the commission of, a specified offence; or

(c) has benefitted, directly or indirectly, from the commission of a specified offence.

(4) A monitoring order shall specify the name or names in which the account is believed to be held and the type of information that the financial institution is required to give.

(5) Any financial institution which contravenes a monitoring order or provides false or misleading information shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

Existence of monitoring
order not to be disclosed.

58. (1) A financial institution that is or has been subject to a monitoring order shall not disclose the fact to any person except a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the order.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall not disclose to any person other than a member of the Police Force in the performance of his duties, the existence of a monitoring order.

(3) The Commissioner of Police shall not be required by any court to disclose the existence of a monitoring order.

(4) Any person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to—

(a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

(b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

Monitoring
orders in relation to foreign
offences.

59. (1) Where a police officer is authorized in terms of the Criminal Matters (Mutual Assistance) Act, 1990, to apply to a judge for a monitoring order under this Act in respect of a foreign specified offence, section fifty-eight shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of the foreign specified offence.

(2) Where the Commissioner of Police is given information pursuant to a monitoring order made in relation to a foreign specified offence, he shall forthwith pass the information on to the Attorney-General.

PART IX

OBLIGATIONS OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Retention of records by financial institutions.

60. (1) Subject to section sixty-one, every financial institution shall retain every document relating to a financial transaction in its original form for a minimum period of ten years.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a financial transaction relating to an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars, or such other amount as the Minister may prescribe.

(3) Any financial institution which contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

(4) This section shall not be construed as limiting any other obligation of a financial institution in terms of any other enactment to retain documents.

61. (1) Where a financial institution is required by any enactment to release a document referred to in subsection (1) of section sixty before the period of ten years has elapsed, the institution shall retain a copy of the document.

Register of original documents.

(2) A financial institution shall maintain a register of documents released in terms of subsection (1).

(3) Any financial institution which contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

62. (1) Where a financial institution has reasonable grounds for believing that information about an account held with it may be relevant to an investigation of, or the prosecution of a person for, an offence, the institution may give the information to a police officer.

Communication of information to police.

(2) No action shall lie against a financial institution or a director, officer, employee or agent of the financial institution acting in the course of his employment in relation to any action taken by that institution or person in terms of subsection (1).

PART X

OFFENCES AND GENERAL

63. (1) A person shall be guilty of money-laundering if he—

Money-laundering.

- (a) engages, directly or indirectly, in a transaction, whether in or outside Zimbabwe, which involves the removal into or from Zimbabwe, of money or other property which is the proceeds of crime; or
- (b) receives, possesses, conceals, disposes of, brings into or removes from Zimbabwe, any money or other property which is the proceeds of crime;

and he knows or ought to have reasonably known that the money or other property was derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from the commission of an offence.

(2) Any person guilty of money-laundering shall be liable to—

- (a) in the case of an individual, a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars or twice the value of the property, whichever is the greater, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding fifteen years or to both such fine and such imprisonment;
- (b) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars or three times the value of the property, whichever is the greater.

64. (1) No person shall acquire, hold or in any way deal in any tainted property.

Prohibition in dealing in tainted property.

(2) Any tainted property in relation to a foreign specified offence acquired, held or dealt in in contravention of subsection (1) shall be liable to be forfeited to the State by order of the High Court on application by the Attorney-General.

Conduct of directors,
officers, employees or agents.

65. (1) For the purposes of this Act, where it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in respect of conduct engaged in or deemed, in terms of subsection (2), to have been engaged in, by the body corporate, it shall be sufficient to show that a director, officer, employee or agent of the body corporate, being a director, employee or agent by whom the conduct was engaged in in the course of his employment, had that state of mind.

(2) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by—

- (a) a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporate body in the course of his employment; or
- (b) any other person at the direction or with the consent, whether express or implied, of a director, employee or agent of the body corporate, where the giving of the direction or consent is within the scope of authority of the director, officer, employee or agent;

shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been engaged in by the body corporate.

(3) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate by—

- (a) an employee or agent of the person within the scope of his authority; or
- (b) any other person at the direction or with the consent, whether express or implied, of an employee or agent of the first-mentioned person, where the giving of the direction or consent is within the scope of authority of the employee or agent;

shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been engaged in by the first-mentioned person.

(4) Where it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person in relation to conduct deemed in terms of subsection (3) to have been engaged in by that person, it shall be sufficient to show that the employee or agent of that person, being an employee or agent by whom the conduct was engaged in within the scope of his authority, had that state of mind.

(5) Any reference in this section to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of that person and that person's reasons for that intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

Operation of other laws not affected.

66. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as limiting—

- (a) the operation of any other enactment providing for the forfeiture of property or the imposition of fines; or
- (b) the remedies available in terms of any other law for the enforcement of the rights of the State and the protection of its interests.

67. The Minister may make regulations prescribing matters Regulations.
which are—

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

“production order” has the meaning assigned to it in the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990;

“property-tracking document” has the meaning assigned to it in the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990;

“serious narcotics offence” has the meaning assigned to it in the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990;

“serious offence” means an offence the maximum penalty for which is death or imprisonment for not less than twelve months and “criminal matter” shall be construed accordingly;

“specified offence” has the meaning assigned to it in the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990;

“tainted property” has the meaning assigned to it in the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990.

(2) A reference in this Act to a law of a foreign country shall include a reference to a law of a part of, or a law in force in a part of, the foreign country.

(3) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) a colony, territory or protectorate of a foreign country; or

- (b) a territory for the international relations of which a foreign country is responsible; or
- (c) a ship or aircraft of, or registered in, a foreign country;

shall, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to be part of that country.

3. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), whenever the Minister is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by any foreign country to facilitate the provision to Zimbabwe of assistance in criminal matters, he may, by statutory instrument, declare that the provisions of this Act shall apply in relation to any such foreign country.

Application of Act.

(2) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, direct that the application of this Act in relation to a specified foreign country shall be subject to such conditions or modifications as may be specified in the statutory instrument, and thereupon this Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) This section shall not apply to Part II.

4. For the purposes of this Act, mutual assistance in criminal matters shall include—

Aspects of mutual assistance.

- (a) the obtaining of evidence, documents or other articles;
- (b) the provision of documents and other records;
- (c) the location and identification of witnesses or suspects;
- (d) the execution of requests for search and seizure;
- (e) the making of arrangements for persons to give evidence or assist in investigations;
- (f) the forfeiture or confiscation of property in respect of offences;
- (g) the recovery of pecuniary penalties in respect of offences;
- (h) the interdicting of dealings in property, or the freezing of assets, that may be forfeited or confiscated, or that may be needed to satisfy pecuniary penalties imposed, in respect of offences;
- (i) the location of property that may be forfeited, or that may be needed to satisfy pecuniary penalties imposed, in respect of offences; and
- (j) the service of documents.

5. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as preventing the provision or obtaining of assistance in criminal matters otherwise than as provided in this Act.

Act not to prevent other provision of mutual assistance.

6. (1) A request by a foreign country for assistance under this Act shall be refused if, in the opinion of the Attorney-General—

Refusal of assistance.

- (a) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person for an offence that is, by reason of the circumstances in which it is alleged to have been committed or was committed, an offence of a political character; or
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the request has been made with a view to prosecuting or punishing a person for an offence of a political character; or
 - (c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that the request was made for the purpose of prosecuting, punishing or otherwise causing prejudice to a person on account of the person's race, sex, religion, nationality or political opinions; or
 - (d) the request relates to prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that, if it had occurred in Zimbabwe, would have constituted an offence under the military law of Zimbabwe but not under the ordinary criminal law of Zimbabwe; or
 - (e) the granting of the request would prejudice public safety, public order, defence or the economic interests of Zimbabwe; or
 - (f) the request relates to the prosecution of a person for an offence in a case where the person has been acquitted or pardoned by a competent court or authority in the foreign country, or has undergone the punishment provided by the law of that country, in respect of that offence or of another offence constituted by the same act or omission as that offence; or
 - (g) except in the case of a request under section eleven, the foreign country is not a country to which this Act applies.
- (2) A request by a foreign country for assistance under this Act may be refused if in the opinion of the Attorney-General—
- (a) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that, if it had occurred in Zimbabwe, would not have constituted an offence against the law of Zimbabwe; or
 - (b) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment of a person in respect of an act or omission that occurred, or is alleged to have occurred, outside the foreign country and a similar act or omission occurring outside Zimbabwe in similar circumstances would not have constituted an offence against the law of Zimbabwe; or
 - (c) the request relates to the prosecution or punishment in respect of an act or omission where, if it had occurred in Zimbabwe at the same time and had constituted an offence against the law of Zimbabwe, the person responsible could no longer be prosecuted by reason of lapse of time or any other reason; or

- (d) the provision of the assistance could prejudice an investigation or proceedings in relation to a criminal matter in Zimbabwe; or
- (e) the provision of the assistance would, or would be likely to, prejudice the safety of any person, whether in or outside Zimbabwe; or
- (f) the provision of the assistance would impose an excessive burden on the resources of Zimbabwe.

7. Assistance in terms of this Act may be provided to a foreign country subject to such conditions as the Attorney-General may determine.

Assistance may be conditional.

8. Any request by Zimbabwe for assistance in any criminal matter in terms of this Act shall be made by the Attorney-General.

Request by Zimbabwe.

9. (1) A request by the appropriate authority of a foreign country for assistance in a criminal matter shall be made to the Attorney-General.

Request for assistance by foreign country.

(2) A request made in terms of subsection (1) shall contain or be accompanied by a document giving the following information—

- (a) the name of the authority concerned with the criminal matter to which the request relates; and
- (b) a description of the nature of the criminal matter and a summary of the relevant facts and laws; and
- (c) a description of the purpose of the request and of the nature of the assistance being sought; and
- (d) details of the procedure that the foreign country wishes to be followed by Zimbabwe in giving effect to the request, including details of the manner and form in which any information, document or thing is to be supplied to the foreign country pursuant to the request; and
- (e) the wishes of the foreign country concerning the confidentiality of the request and the reasons for those wishes; and
- (f) details of the period within which the foreign country wishes that the request be complied with; and
- (g) if the request involves a person travelling from Zimbabwe to the foreign country, details of allowances to which the person will be entitled and of the arrangements for accommodation for the person, while the person is in the foreign country pursuant to the request; and
- (h) any other information required to be included with the request under a treaty or other arrangement between Zimbabwe and the foreign country; and
- (i) any other information that may assist in giving effect to the request;

but failure to comply with this subsection shall not be a ground for refusing the request.

PART II

ASSISTANCE IN RELATION TO TAKING OF EVIDENCE AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS OR OTHER ARTICLES

Request by Zimbabwe.

10. The Attorney-General may request an appropriate authority of a foreign country to arrange for—

- (a) evidence to be taken in the foreign country; or
- (b) documents or other articles in the foreign country to be produced;

for the purposes of proceedings in relation to a criminal matter in Zimbabwe.

Request for evidence, etc.,
by foreign country.

11. (1) Where a request is made by the appropriate authority of a foreign country for—

- (a) evidence to be taken in Zimbabwe; or
- (b) documents or other articles in Zimbabwe to be produced;

for the purposes of proceedings in relation to a criminal matter in the foreign country, the Attorney-General may, subject to such terms and conditions as he may determine, authorize the taking of the evidence or the production of the documents or other articles, and the transmission of the evidence, documents or other articles to the foreign country.

(2) Where the Attorney-General authorizes the taking of evidence or the production of documents or other articles in terms of subsection (1)—

- (a) in the case of the taking of evidence, a magistrate may take the evidence on oath of each witness appearing before him to give evidence in relation to the matter, and shall—
 - (i) cause the evidence to be put in writing and certify that the evidence was taken by him; and
 - (ii) cause the evidence so certified to be sent to the Attorney-General; or
- (b) in the case of the production of documents or other articles, a magistrate may, subject to subsection (6), require the production of the documents or other articles and shall send the documents, or copies of the documents certified by him to be true copies, or the other articles, to the Attorney-General.

(3) The evidence of any witness may be taken in the presence or absence of the person to whom the proceedings in the foreign country relate or in the presence of his legal representative, if any.

(4) The magistrate conducting proceedings in terms of subsection (2) may permit—

- (a) any other person giving evidence or producing documents or other articles at the proceedings before him; and

(b) the appropriate authority of the foreign country; to be legally represented at the proceedings.

(5) The certificate by the magistrate made in terms of subsection (2) shall state whether, when the evidence was taken or the documents or other articles were produced—

(a) the person to whom the proceedings in the foreign country relate or his legal representative; or

(b) any person other than the person giving evidence or producing documents or other articles or his legal representative;

was present.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the laws of Zimbabwe with respect to the compelling of persons to attend before a magistrate, and to give evidence, answer questions and produce documents or other articles, upon the hearing of a charge against a person for any offence shall, mutatis mutandis, apply with respect to the compelling of persons to attend before a magistrate, and to giving evidence, answering questions and the production of documents or other articles, for the purposes of this section.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the person to whom the proceedings in the foreign country relate shall be competent but not compellable to give evidence.

PART III

ASSISTANCE IN RELATION TO SEARCH AND SEIZURE

12. (1) This section applies to proceedings or investigations relating to a serious offence against the law of Zimbabwe if there are reasonable grounds to believe that a thing relevant to the proceedings or investigations may be located in a foreign country to which this Act applies.

Requests by Zimbabwe for search and seizure.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Attorney-General may request an appropriate authority of a foreign country to obtain a warrant or other instrument authorizing the search for a thing relevant to the proceedings or investigation and, if such a thing, or any other thing that is or may be relevant to the proceedings or investigation, as the case may be, is found pursuant to such a search, authorizing the seizure of that thing.

(3) A request shall be accompanied by an affidavit by a person verifying the grounds on which the request is made.

13. (1) Where—

(a) proceedings have, or an investigation relating to a criminal matter involving a serious offence has, commenced in a foreign country; and

(b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a thing relevant to the proceedings or investigation is located in Zimbabwe; and

Requests by foreign countries for search and seizure.

- (c) the appropriate authority of the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to arrange for the issue of a search warrant in terms of this section in relation to that thing;

the Attorney-General may, in writing, authorize a police officer to apply to a magistrate in the province in which that thing is believed to be located for the search warrant requested by the foreign country.

(2) Where a police officer authorized under subsection (1) has reason to believe that the thing to which the request relates is or will be, at a specified time—

- (a) on a person; or
- (b) in the clothing that is being worn by a person; or
- (c) otherwise in a person's immediate control;

the police officer may lay before a magistrate information on oath setting out the grounds for that belief and apply for the issue of a warrant in terms of this section, to search the person for that thing.

(3) Where an application is made in terms of subsection (2), the magistrate may, subject to subsection (6), issue a warrant authorizing a police officer—

- (a) to search the person for the thing; and
- (b) to seize anything found in the course of the search that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be relevant to the proceedings or investigation.

(4) Where a police officer authorized in terms of subsection (1) has reason to believe that the thing to which the request relates is or will be at a specified time, upon any land, or upon or in any premises, the police officer may—

- (a) lay before a magistrate information on oath setting out the grounds for that belief; and
- (b) apply for the issue of a warrant in terms of this section to search the land or premises for that thing.

(5) Where an application is made in terms of subsection (4), the magistrate may, subject to subsection (6), issue a warrant authorizing a police officer—

- (a) to enter, upon the land, or upon or into the premises; and
- (b) to search the land or premises for the thing; and
- (c) to seize anything found in the course of the search that the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, to be relevant to the proceedings or investigation.

(6) A magistrate shall not issue a warrant in terms of this section unless—

- (a) the informant or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information, if any, as the magistrate may require concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is sought; and

- (b) the magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant.

(7) There shall be stated in a warrant issued in terms of this section—

- (a) the purpose for which the warrant is issued, including a reference to the nature of the criminal matter in relation to which the search is authorized; and
- (b) whether the search is authorized at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night; and
- (c) a description of the kind of things authorized to be seized; and
- (d) a day, not being later than one month after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.

(8) If in the course of searching under a warrant issued in terms of this section for a thing of a kind specified in the warrant, the police officer finds another thing that the police officer believes on reasonable grounds—

- (a) to be relevant to the proceedings or investigation in the foreign country or to afford evidence as to the commission of an offence in Zimbabwe; and
- (b) is likely to be concealed, lost or destroyed if it is not seized;

the warrant shall be deemed to authorize the police officer to seize the other thing.

(9) Where a police officer finds, as a result of a search in accordance with a warrant issued in terms of this section, a thing which the police officer seizes wholly or partly because he believes on reasonable grounds the thing to be relevant to the proceedings or investigation in the foreign country, the police officer shall deliver the thing into the custody and control of the Commissioner of Police.

(10) Where a thing is delivered into the custody and control of the Commissioner of Police in terms of subsection (9), the Commissioner of Police shall arrange for the thing to be kept for a period not exceeding one month from the day on which the thing was seized, pending a direction in writing from the Attorney-General as to the manner in which the thing is to be dealt with, which may include a direction that the thing be sent to an authority of a foreign country.

(11) A police officer who executes a search warrant issued in terms of subsection (3) or (5) shall, as soon as practicable after the execution of the warrant, give to the person searched, or to the owner or occupier of the land or premises searched, or leave in a prominent position on such land or at such premises, as the case requires, a notice setting out—

- (a) the name and rank of the police officer; and

- (b) the name of the magistrate who issued the warrant and the day on which it was issued; and
- (c) a description of anything seized and removed in accordance with the warrant.

(12) A police officer acting in accordance with a warrant issued in terms of subsection (3) may remove, or require a person to remove, any of the clothing that the person is wearing but only if the removal of the clothing is necessary and reasonable for an effective search of the person in terms of the warrant.

(13) A person shall not be searched under a warrant issued in terms of subsection (3) except by a person of the same sex and the search shall be conducted with strict regard to decency.

(14) Nothing in this section shall be taken to authorize a police officer, in executing a warrant issued in terms of subsection (3), to carry out a search by way of an examination of a body cavity of a person.

(15) Where a police officer is authorized under a warrant issued in terms of subsection (3) to search a person, the police officer may also search—

- (a) the clothing that is being worn by the person; and
- (b) any property in, or apparently in, the person's immediate control.

PART IV

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PERSONS TO GIVE EVIDENCE OR ASSIST IN INVESTIGATIONS

14. (1) Where—

- (a) proceedings relating to a criminal matter have commenced in Zimbabwe; and

 - (i) be detained, prosecuted or punished for any offence against the law of the foreign country that is alleged to have been committed, or that was committed, before the person's departure from Zimbabwe; or
 - (ii) be subjected to any civil suit in respect of any act or omission of the person that is alleged to have occurred before the person's departure from Zimbabwe; or
 - (iii) be required to give evidence in any proceedings in the foreign country;

unless the person has left the foreign country or has had the opportunity to leave the foreign country but has remained in that country otherwise than for the purpose of giving assistance in relation to the investigation to which the request relates; and

- (b) that the person shall be returned to Zimbabwe in accordance with arrangements agreed by the Attorney-General; and
- (c) in a case where the person is being held in custody in Zimbabwe and the Attorney-General requests the foreign country to make arrangements for the keeping of the person in custody while the person is in the foreign country—
 - (i) the making of appropriate arrangements for that purpose; and
 - (ii) that the person shall not be released from custody in the foreign country unless the Attorney-General notifies an appropriate authority of the foreign country that the person is entitled to be released from custody under the law of Zimbabwe; and
 - (iii) if the person is released in the foreign country in terms of subparagraph (ii), that the person's accommodation and other expenses pending the completion of the investigation to which the request relates shall be paid for by the foreign country; and
- (d) such other matters as the Attorney-General thinks appropriate.

26. Where a prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment for an offence against the law of Zimbabwe is released from prison pursuant to a request by the appropriate authority of the foreign country under section twenty-four or twenty-five, the prisoner shall, while in custody in connection with the request, including custody outside Zimbabwe, be deemed to be continuing to serve that term of imprisonment.

Effect of removal to foreign country on prisoner's term of imprisonment.

PART V

CUSTODY OF PERSONS IN TRANSIT

27. (1) Where—

Transit.

- (a) a person is to be transported in custody from a foreign country through Zimbabwe to another foreign country for the purposes of giving evidence in proceedings or giving assistance in relation to an investigation relating to a criminal matter in the other foreign country; and
- (b) at least one of those foreign countries is a foreign country to which this Act applies;

the person may be transported through Zimbabwe in the custody of another person and, if an aircraft, vehicle or train by which the person is being transported lands or calls at a place in Zimbabwe, shall be kept in such custody as the Attorney-General, after consultation with the Minister, directs in writing until his transportation is continued.

(2) Where a person is being held in custody pursuant to a direction in terms of subsection (1) and the person's transportation is not, in the opinion of the Attorney-General, continued within a reasonable time, the Attorney-General may direct that the person be transported in custody to the foreign country from which the person was first transported.

Escaping.

28. (1) Any person who, being a person being kept in custody pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) of section twenty-seven, escapes from such custody, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years.

(2) Sections 100 and 101 of the Prisons Act [Chapter 21] shall, mutatis mutandis, apply as if a reference in those sections to custody in respect of any offence against the law of Zimbabwe were a reference to custody pursuant to a direction in terms of subsection (1) of section twenty-seven.

Arrest of person in transit.

29. (1) Any police officer may, without warrant, arrest a person, if the police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person was being held in custody pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) of section twenty-seven and has escaped from such custody.

(2) A person who has been arrested in terms of subsection (1) shall be returned to custody.

PART VI

PROCEEDS OF CRIME

Request for enforcement of orders.

30. The Attorney-General may request an appropriate authority of a foreign country to which this Act applies to make arrangements for the enforcement of—

- (a) a forfeiture order made in Zimbabwe against property that is believed to be located in that country; or
- (b) a pecuniary penalty order made in Zimbabwe where some or all the property available to satisfy the order is believed to be located in that country; or
- (c) an interdict made in Zimbabwe against property that is believed to be located in that country;

if the order is in respect of a specified offence.

Request for issue of orders in foreign countries.

31. Where criminal proceedings or criminal investigations have commenced in Zimbabwe in relation to a specified offence, the Attorney-General may request an appropriate authority of a foreign country to which this Act applies to direct the issue of a warrant, order or other instrument similar in nature to any of the following warrants and orders under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, in respect of the specified offence—

- (a) a search warrant for tainted property;
- (b) an interdict;
- (c) a production order in respect of a property-tracking document;

- (d) a search warrant in respect of a property-tracking document; or
- (e) a monitoring order.

32. (1) Where—

Registration
of orders.

- (a) an appropriate authority of a foreign country requests the Attorney-General to make arrangements for the enforcement of—

- (i) a foreign forfeiture order made in respect of a foreign specified offence against property that is believed to be located in Zimbabwe; or
- (ii) a foreign pecuniary penalty order made in respect of a foreign specified offence where some or all of the property available to satisfy the order is believed to be located in Zimbabwe;

and

- (b) the Attorney-General is satisfied that—
 - (i) a person has been convicted of the offence; and
 - (ii) the conviction and the order are not subject to appeal in the foreign country;

the Attorney-General may, on application, obtain the registration of the order with the High Court.

(2) Where an appropriate authority of a foreign country requests the Attorney-General to make arrangements for the enforcement of a foreign interdict issued in respect of a foreign specified offence against property that is believed to be located in Zimbabwe, the Attorney-General may, on application, obtain the registration of the order with the High Court.

(3) If, on an application in terms of subsection (1) or (2), the High Court is satisfied from the documents filed on record, or from any other evidence, that the foreign forfeiture order, the foreign pecuniary penalty order or the foreign interdict, as the case may be—

- (a) was properly made against the person concerned; and
- (b) the person concerned was given an adequate opportunity to make representations in regard to the registration of any such order;

the High Court may register the order.

(4) If the High Court is not satisfied as provided in subsection (3), it may adjourn the proceedings or make such other order as will enable the person concerned to make representations in regard to the registration of the order.

(5) The High Court may regard any evidence adduced in a foreign court as conclusive of any matter or fact stated in the documents.

(6) A foreign forfeiture order registered with the High Court in terms of this section shall have effect, and may be enforced, as if it were a forfeiture order made by a court under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, at the time of registration.

(7) A foreign pecuniary penalty order registered with the High Court in terms of this section shall have effect, and may be enforced, as if it were a pecuniary penalty order made by a court under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, at the time of registration and requiring the payment to Zimbabwe of the amount payable under the order.

(8) A foreign interdict registered with the High Court in terms of this section shall have effect, and may be enforced, as if it were an interdict made by a court under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, at the time of registration.

(9) Where any order is registered with the High Court in terms of this section, any amendments made to the order, whether before or after registration, may be registered in the same way as the order and amendments shall not, for the purposes of this Act and the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, have effect until they are registered.

(10) A copy of the appropriate order or amendment sealed or authenticated by the court or other authority making that order or amendment or a copy of that order or amendment duly authenticated in accordance with subsection (2) of section thirty-nine, shall be filed with the High Court on registration of the order or amendment.

(11) A sealed or authenticated copy of an order or amendment shall be regarded for the purposes of this Act as the same as the sealed or authenticated original copy but registration effected by means of a copy shall cease to have effect at the end of twenty-one days unless the sealed or authenticated original copy has been subsequently registered.

(12) The Attorney-General may apply to the High Court for the cancellation of any registration made in terms of this section.

(13) Without limiting the generality of subsection (12), the Attorney-General may apply for a cancellation in terms of that subsection if he is satisfied that—

- (a) the order has ceased to have effect in the foreign country in which it was made; or
- (b) cancellation of the order is appropriate having regard to the arrangements entered into between Zimbabwe and the foreign country in relation to the enforcement of orders of the kind.

(14) Where an application is made to the High Court for cancellation of a registration in terms of subsection (12), the High Court shall cancel the registration accordingly.

33. (1) Where—

- (a) criminal proceedings or criminal investigations have commenced in a foreign country in respect of a foreign specified offence; and

- (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that tainted property in relation to the offence is located in Zimbabwe; and
- (c) the appropriate authority of the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to obtain the issue of a search warrant under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, in relation to the tainted property;

the Attorney-General may, in writing, authorize a police officer to apply to a magistrate of a specified province for the search warrant requested by the appropriate authority of the foreign country.

(2) The province shall be the province in which the tainted property, or some or all of the tainted property, is believed to be located.

34. Where—

- (a) criminal proceedings have commenced in a foreign country in respect of a foreign specified offence; and
- (b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that tainted property that may be made, or is about to be made, the subject of an interdict is located in Zimbabwe; and
- (c) the appropriate authority of the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to obtain the issue of an interdict under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, against the property;

Requests for interim
interdicts.

the Attorney-General may authorize an application to the High Court for the issue of the interdict requested by the appropriate authority of the foreign country.

35. (1) In this section—

“ancillary offence”, in relation to an offence referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection (3), means—

Requests for information gathering
orders.

- (a) a conspiracy to commit, or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of, such offence;
- (b) an offence of receiving or assisting another person to escape punishment for, or disposing of the proceeds of, such offence; or
- (c) an attempt to commit such offence.

(2) Where—

- (a) criminal proceedings or criminal investigations have commenced in a foreign country in respect of a foreign specified offence; and
- (b) a property-tracking document in relation to the offence is reasonably believed to be located in Zimbabwe;

and the appropriate authority of the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to obtain the issue of a production order or a search warrant under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits)

Act, 1990, the Attorney-General may, in writing, authorize a police officer to apply to a judge of the High Court for the order requested by the foreign country.

(3) Where—

- (a) criminal proceedings or criminal investigations have commenced in a foreign country in respect of a foreign specified offence that is—
 - (i) a serious narcotics offence; or
 - (ii) a money-laundering offence in respect of proceeds of a serious narcotics offence; or
 - (iii) an ancillary offence to an offence referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii);
 and
- (b) information about transactions conducted through an account with a financial institution in Zimbabwe is reasonably believed to be relevant to the proceedings or investigations; and the Attorney-General may, in writing, authorize a police officer to apply to a judge of the High Court for the order requested by the foreign country.
- (c) the appropriate authority of the foreign country requests the Attorney-General to obtain the issue of a monitoring order under the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, directing the financial institution to give information to the Commissioner of Police about transactions conducted through the account;

Service of documents.

36. (1) Where the appropriate authority of a foreign country requests the Attorney-General to arrange for the service in Zimbabwe of process relating to a criminal matter in the foreign country, the Attorney-General may arrange for the service of the process.

(2) Without limiting the manner in which the service of a document in a foreign country may be proved in Zimbabwe, service of such document may be proved by the affidavit of the person who served the document.

Evidence.

37. A certificate by the Attorney-General stating that—

- (a) Zimbabwe or a specified foreign country is a party to a specified treaty; or
- (b) a specified treaty entered into force for Zimbabwe or a specified foreign country on a specified day; or
- (c) on a day specified in the certificate, a specified treaty remained in force for Zimbabwe or a specified country;

shall, for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act, be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

38. (1) In proceedings under this Act, or proceedings under or pursuant to the Serious Offences (Confiscation of Profits) Act, 1990, arising directly or indirectly from a request made under this Act, any document that is duly authenticated in terms of subsection (2) shall be admissible in evidence. Authentication of documents.

(2) A document shall be regarded as duly authenticated for the purpose of subsection (1) if it purports to be—

- (a) signed or certified by a judge, magistrate or officer in or of a foreign country; and
- (b) authenticated by the oath of a witness or an officer of the Government of the foreign country or sealed with an official public seal of the foreign country or of a Minister.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the proof of any matter, or the admission in evidence of any document, in accordance with any other law of Zimbabwe.

39. (1) The Minister may make regulations prescribing matters— Regulations.

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Regulations made in terms of subsection (1) may provide for—
