6. The Executive Secretary informed the Committee that, subsequent to the preparation of his memorandum, a communication had been received from Guinea-Bissau.

7. The Chairman proposed that, in the light of past practice, the Committee should accept the credentials referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 above and that, as an exceptional measure and subject to later validation, it should accept the communications referred to in paragraph 5 above in lieu of formal credentials.

8. The representative of Hungary recorded his delegation's objection to the acceptance of the credentials of the delegation of Democratic Kampuchea, stating that, in the view of the Hungarian delegation, these credentials were null and void.

9. The representatives of China and Japan objected to the statement by the representative of Hungary, stating that, in the view of their delegations, the credentials of Democratic Kampuchea were valid.

10. The Chairman noted that the views and reservations expressed would be reflected in the report of the Committee. Subject to these views and reservations, summarized in paragraphs 8 and 9 above, the Committee decided to approve the following draft resolution:

"The Credentials Committee,

"Taking into account the views expressed during the debate,

"Accepts the formal credentials of the representatives that have been received;

"Accepts as an exceptional measure and subject to later validation, the communications referred to in paragraph 6 of the Executive Secretary's Memorandum of 8 April 1981 in lieu of formal credentials."

Recommendations of the General Committee

[Original: English]
[25 August 1981]

1. The General Committee recommends that the present text of the draft convention contained in A/CONF.62/WP.10/Rev.3 and Corr.1 and 3 be revised at the end of this session. In accordance with A/CONF.62/62,<sup>7</sup> the revision will incorporate the recommendations of the Drafting Committee approved by the Informal Plenary and the decisions taken by the informal plenary Conference on the sites of the International Sea-Bed Authority and the International Law of the Sea Tribunal. In addition, the revision will take into account the results of the consultations and negotiations conducted during this session and which, when presented to the plenary Conference, satisfy the criteria in A/CONF.62/62.

2. The General Committee recognizes that the revised text should now have a higher status than the present text. Therefore, the General Committee proposes to delete the words "informal text" and the revised draft convention will bear the symbol A/CONF.62/L.78. The implication of the General Committee's proposal is that the revised draft convention would no longer be an informal text. It will be the official draft convention on the Law of the Sea of the Conference subject, however, to the following three conditions: Firstly, the door would be kept open for the continuation of consultations and negotiations on certain outstanding issues. The results of these consultations and negotiations, if they satisfy the criteria in A/CONF.62/62, will be incorporated in the draft convention by the Collegium without the need for formal amendments. Secondly, the Drafting Committee will complete its work and its further recommendations, approved by the informal plenary Conference, will be incorporated in the text. Thirdly, in view of the fact that the process of consultations and negotiations on certain outstanding issues will continue, the time has, therefore, not arrived for the application of rule 33 of the rules of procedure of the Conference. At this stage, delegations will not be permitted to submit amendments. Formal amendments may only be submitted after the termination of all negotiations.

3. The General Committee recommends that the Drafting Committee hold a final intersessional meeting to complete its work. The meeting will be from 18 January to 26 February 1982, a period of six weeks, in New York.

4. The General Committee also recommends that the Conference hold its final decision-making session for the adoption of the Convention, from 8 March to 30 April 1982, a period of eight weeks, in New York. The General Committee recommends that the Conference request the Secretary-General of the United Nations to consult the Government of Venezuela in order to arrange for the signature of the final act and the opening of the convention for signature in Caracas in early September 1982.

5. The General Committee took note of the Collegium's intention to submit to the Conference, before the end of this session, a proposed programme for the completion of the work of the Conference at its next and final session.
