Persecution of Uighur people in Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region (UAR), China

The whole world celebrated the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, but the people in Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region (UAR), China are suffering an intense oppression at the hand of China.

The Coordination des Associations et des Particuliers pour la Liberté de Conscience with EMISCO and many other NGOs would like to bring the attention of the Human Rights Council to the suffering of Uighur people who have lived for centuries in their home country which is now called Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region (UAR), China.

In the last few years, the Chinese Communist Party has carried out systematic killing, torture and destruction of villages by doing so they have killed hundreds of people from all ages.

To stop this oppression, we would like to appeal to the international community and the Human Rights Council to not overlook what is happening to the Uighur people in the Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region (UAR), China. We would also like to bring the attention that this inhumane treatment is carried out against other minorities like Christians, Kazakh or Kyrgyz.

The world is very well aware what happen in The Tibet Autonomous Region (TAR), China and we do not wish the same fate for Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous Region (UAR), China.

We call upon the Human Rights Council to take immediate action against these atrocities committed by the Chinese Communist Party.
