

Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women

Distr.
GENERAL

CEDAW/C/SR.45-63/Corr.1
25 April 1985

ENGLISH

UN/ISA COLLECTION

COMMITTEE ON THE ELIMINATION OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN

Fourth session

CORRIGENDUM TO THE SUMMARY RECORDS OF THE 45th TO 63rd MEETINGS

Held at the Vienna International Centre, Vienna, from 21 January to 1 February 1985

This corrigendum contains participants' corrections to the summary records of the fourth session of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW/C/SR.45-63).

With the issuance of this corrigendum, the records of all meetings of the fourth session of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women may be considered final.

Convention on the Elimination
of all Forms of Discrimination
Against Women

CEDAW/C/SR.45

Paragraph 44

The first sentence should read

Ms. MACEDO DE SHEPPARD said that it would be impossible to discuss a document of such length as the Compendium in such a short time, seeing that it had been made available so recently.

The third sentence should read

She agreed, however, that as soon as possible a preliminary discussion should take place during which a working group should be set up, and that the Committee should evaluate the group's findings towards the end of the session.

CEDAW/C/SR.46

Paragraph 4

The second sentence should read

The Committee had already decided that the 1986 session should be held in New York, and her personal preference would be for the 1987 session also to be held in New York.

Paragraph 51

The paragraph should read

51. Ms. BIRYUKOVA said that, according to paragraph 348 of the report on the third session, only some experts had suggested that the Secretary should verify how the matter was handled by similar groups of experts and consult with government representatives. There had been no decision of the Committee on that score.

CEDAW/C/SR.47

Paragraph 4

Line 6: after participation of women in delete development and in Line 7: after peace and disarmament insert and against colonialism and neo-colonialism, apartheid and racism

Line 10: after attention should also be paid insert in the Compendium

Line 14: for inclusion read exclusion

Paragraph 19

Line 6: for economic and political situation on read international economic and political situation on the position of

CEDAW/C/SR.48

Paragraph 100

For the existing text, substitute

100. Ms. IDER said that she joined the previous speakers in thanking the Government of Canada for its substantial report and the representative of Canada for the introductory statement. The report of Canada showed that the Government of Canada was dedicated to the elimination of discrimination against women; nevertheless, much remained to be done.

CEDAW/C/SR.50

Paragraph 24

The last three lines should read training of women. While vocational training was important, the real obstacle arose basically from traditional prejudice, which would call for a complete change of attitude. In that connection, the activities of the Office for Women could play a positive role.

CEDAW/C/SR.53

Paragraph 6

Lines 9 and 10: for in its consideration of the articles read to consider in detail each article