United Nations Conference to Review All Aspects of the Set of Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Business Practices

Report of the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development

1. It is recalled that the General Assembly, in its resolution 40/192 of 17 December 1985, having considered the report of the United Nations Conference to Review All Aspects of the Set of Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Business Practices, held at Geneva from 4 to 15 November 1985, 1/ together with the proposals made by regional groups, 2/ invited the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the President of the United Nations Conference to Review All Aspects of the Set of Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Business Practices, to undertake consultations, as appropriate, with regional groups and Governments on the reconvening of the Conference at Geneva and to report thereon to the General Assembly at the earliest opportunity.

2. Consultations have now been held with the representatives of the regional groups and Governments and it has been agreed to recommend that the General Assembly should convene in 1990, under the auspices of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, a United Nations Conference to Review All Aspects of the Set of Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the
