

SECRETARY-GENERAL'S BULLETIN NO. 69, REV. 1

To: Members of the Staff of United Nations

Subject: OVERTIME

In SGB/69, 26 May 1947, the following insertion has been made:

3. (g) During meetings of General Assembly and other strenuous periods the Assistant Secretary-General for Administrative and Financial Services may decide that regular staff members other than those employed for service solely during the General Assembly or the period in question be compensated in cash for one-half of the overtime worked and in equal time off for the remaining half within the three months period immediately following the close of the General Assembly or within a period to be specified in respect of other periods of exigency.

In Paragraph 4 the reference (f) is amended to read (g).

By direction of the Secretary-General
