COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
Forty-fourth session
Agenda item 24

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE SUB-COMMISSION ON PREVENTION OF DISCRIMINATION AND PROTECTION OF MINORITIES

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 1334 (XLIV) of 31 May 1968, the Commission on Human Rights at its fortieth session (53rd meeting, 13 March 1984) elected 26 members of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities for a term of three years from nominations of experts made by States Members of the United Nations. (For the list of these members see annex II.)
2. As the term of office of these members has expired, the Commission on Human Rights is called upon to hold a new election of members of the Sub-Commission.
3. In accordance with the relevant resolutions and decisions of the Economic and Social Council (resolution 1334 (XLIV) and decision 1978/21), the geographical distribution of the membership of the Sub-Commission is as follows: (a) seven members from African States; (b) five members from Asian States; (c) six members from Western European and other States; (d) five members from Latin American States; (e) three members from Eastern European States.
4. With regard to the designation of alternates, the Economic and Social Council adopted resolution 1983/32, in which it decided that:

"... notwithstanding, paragraph 2 of article 13 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, the following rules shall henceforth apply to the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and protection of Minorities:

(a) A nomination of a candidate for membership of the Sub-Commission may be accompanied by a nomination of an expert of the same nationality, who shall be elected simultaneously with the candidate for membership, and who serve temporarily as an alternate if the member is unable to attend;

(b) The qualifications for alternates shall be the same as for members;

(c) No person may serve as alternate for a member except the expert elected as alternate, pursuant to subparagraph (a) above."

5. In order to ensure better continuity in the work of the Sub-Commission, the Economic and Social Council, by its resolution 1986/35, decided that, from 1987 */ onwards, members of the Sub-Commission should be elected for a term of four years that half of the membership of the Sub-Commission and the corresponding alternates, if any, should be elected every two years and that, accordingly, at the elections held in 1987 */ the Chairman should draw lots to select those members whose terms would expire in two years. The Council also authorized the Chairman of the forty-third */ session of the Commission on Human Rights to draw lots to select the members and, as applicable, their corresponding alternates, whose terms would expire after two years in accordance with the following pattern: three members from African States; three members from Asian States; three members from Latin American States; one member from Eastern European States; and three members from Western European and other States.

6. As at 16 December 1987, the Secretary-General has received nominations of candidates for election to membership of the Sub-Commission from the Governments of Algeria, Argentina, Bangladesh, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ethiopia, France, Greece, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Lebanon, Mexico, Morocco, Netherlands, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, the Philippines, Romania, Saint Lucia, Somalia, the Syrian Arab Republic, the United States of America, Yugoslavia and Zambia.

7. Further communications and nominations of candidates received from Governments will be circulated as addenda to the present document.

8. The nominations so far received from Governments are listed below and biographical data relating to the candidates are included in annex I to the present document.

*/ Pursuant to Economic and Social Council decision 1987/102 of 6 February 1987, these elections were postponed to the Commission's forty-fourth session in 1988.

Mr. ASBJØRN EIDE (Expert)

(Nominated by the Government of Norway)

Present position: Director, Norwegian Human Rights Institute, Oslo,
(Address: St. Olavsgate 29, 0166 Oslo 1, tel. (472) 11 10 52).

The Norwegian Human Rights Institute is a semi-autonomous institution with an international focus, established within the University of Oslo, attached to the Faculty of Law. Its task is to organize through international collaboration activities in the fields of research, information and documentation on the realization of international human rights.

Former Director and senior fellow of the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo.

The International Peace Research Institute is an institution for post-graduate research in the fields of conflict studies, armament and disarmament, and on policies of peace, including those of international agencies.

Former Secretary-General (1971-1975), International Peace Research Association.

Former member (1981-1983), United Nations Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities.

Former member (1979-1982), Council of Europe, Committee of Experts on Human Rights Education, Information and Research.

PAST ACTIVITIES IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Most of the books and some of the articles in English, French and Norwegian on human rights are found in the abbreviated bibliography attached.

Involved in the organization of and contributed to numerous seminars on human rights in different parts of the world. These include, inter alia, the series called Armand Hammer conferences on Human Rights and Peace. The first was organized in Oslo in 1978 and subsequently held annually or near-annually in Poland, United States of America, France and Spain.

Lectured on human rights in United States, Canada, France, Switzerland, Africa (Gaborone, Dakar, Harare, Yaounde), Poland, as well as in the Nordic countries - Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden. This comprises several series of lectures at the summer courses of the International Institute of Human Rights.

Invited as resource person, consultant and author of background papers to numerous seminars and other activities organized by the United Nations Centre (formerly Division) of Human Rights, to UNESCO seminars, to UNITAR projects, and to the United Nations University. My contributions were in most cases published by these institutions. Some are found in the attached, abbreviated bibliography.

Initiator of international networks of human rights research, information and documentation. These include:

Founder member and former Vice-President of the Human Rights Documentation System (HURIDOCs), co-ordinator of the Nordic Committee of Co-operation for Human Rights Research, Information and Education; contributed through all the preparatory stages to the formation of the newly established (Harare, August 1987) African Association of Human Rights in Development; founder member of International Alert, a body dealing with research and information on human rights during times of conflict.

Special rapporteur of the United Nations Sub-Commission, entrusted with the task of preparing several studies. These include: Asbjørn Eide and Mubanga-Chipoya: The Right to Conscientious Objection as a Human Right (United Nations document E/CN.4/Sub.2/1983/30), Asbjørn Eide: The Achievements of the Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination (first part in E/CN.4/Sub.2/1985/7, the final report to be delivered in 1988), and Asbjørn Eide: The New International Economic Order and the Promotion of Human Rights: The Right to Adequate Food as a Human Right (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1987/23).

Member of Advisory Board, Human Rights Internet, Harvard, United States of America. Member of Advisory Board, Human Rights Advocates, California. Member of Advisory Board, Food International Action Network (FIAN); headquarters Bonn, Federal Republic of Germany.

For many years chairman of a Norwegian Committee providing financial assistance for purposes of education to refugees from territories under racist and colonial régimes: South Africa, Namibia, in the 1970s also from Rhodesia and the Portuguese colonies.

Editor, Nordic Journal of Human Rights (Mennesker og Rettigheter).

Mr. AIDID ABDILLAHI ILKAHANAF (Expert)

(Nominated by the Government of Somalia)

1. At present I am employed as a Deputy Chief State Counsel for the Somali Government.

2. The details of my legal education, experience and qualifications (Curriculum Vitae) are as follows:

After passing higher teachers examination in June 1958, I sat for and passed the law examination for magistrates and police officers of the Ex-Somali-Land Protectorate in January 1960;

From 1960 to 1968 I was a Public Prosecutor (Attorney) at the Regional Courts and the Court of Appeal;

In October 1968, I was admitted to Lincolns Inn, and started my studies in the same month at the Inns of Courts School of Law for Barristers in England (United Kingdom). My studies were sponsored by the United Nations. In July 1971 I was called to the Bar and awarded the Degree of Barrister-at-Law;

From September 1971 to April 1972 I did pupillage (a practical training in advocacy) under James Wadsworth of No. 4 Paper Building, London, E.C.4. During this period I took practical training both in advocacy and construction of documents, i.e. legislation, drafting of contracts, giving legal opinion, etc.;

In May 1972, I was appointed as legal adviser to the Somalia Police Force, a post previously held by a foreigner;

And in April 1976, in addition to the above I was appointed as Deputy Chief State Counsel for the Somali Government, a post I at present hold.

3. Since my return to Somalia in May 1972, I drafted the following main legislations:

Revision of the Criminal Procedure Code;

The Foreign Investment Law;

The Tenancy Law;

Revision of the Traffic Code;

Law for the Local Governments;

The new Police Law;

The Law for the Custodial Corps;

The Anti-Contraband Law;

Law on essential Articles.

4. I have also advised the Government and gave legal opinion on agreements, conventions and contracts, e.g. the construction of Mogadiscio Port Agreement and the Juba Sugar Project Agreement.

5. Apart from being a legal adviser to the Somalia Police, I am also representative to INTERPOL, and in this capacity I have since 1975 been attending all the General Assembly sessions and African Regional Conferences.
