NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At its 93rd plenary meeting on 24 January 1979, the General Assembly adopted resolutions 33/183 A to O* on the policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa.

In paragraph 2 of resolution 33/183 E, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council to consider urgently a mandatory embargo on the supply of petroleum and petroleum products to South Africa under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations;"

In paragraph 1 of resolution 33/183 G, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council to consider measures aimed at effectively preventing South Africa from developing nuclear weapons;"

In paragraph 2 of resolution 33/183 H, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council urgently to consider mandatory economic sanctions against the racist régime of South Africa and take action, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to bring about the total cessation of:

"(a) Supplies of petroleum, petroleum products or other strategic materials to South Africa;

"(b) Loans to, and investments in, South Africa;

"(c) Guarantees or other inducements for investments in South Africa;

"(d) Tariff and other preferences for imports from South Africa;

"(e) All trade with South Africa;"

In paragraphs 1 and 2 of resolution 33/183 M, the General Assembly

"1. Requests the Security Council to declare that any military or nuclear collaboration with South Africa constitutes a threat to international peace and security, and urgently to take mandatory measures, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to end all military and nuclear collaboration with the apartheid régime and all supplies of materials or technology to or from South Africa which may be used for military purposes or for the development of nuclear-weapon capability;

"2. Further requests the Security Council to take mandatory measures to ensure that all States:

"(a) Revoke all licenses granted to South Africa for the manufacture of arms and equipment;

"(b) Prohibit corporations within their jurisdiction from any involvement in the manufacture in South Africa of arms and related equipment for the use of the military and police forces, and in the transfer of technology and capital for that purpose;

"(c) Terminate the exchange of military attachés with the apartheid régime;

"(d) Prohibit the supply of aircraft, aircraft engines, parts and computers to South Africa;

"(e) Take effective legislative and other measures to prevent the recruitment, training and transit of mercenaries for assistance to the apartheid régime, and to punish such mercenaries;"

In resolution 33/183 O, the General Assembly

"Urges the Security Council to consider the matter at an early date with a view to taking effective steps to achieve the cessation of further foreign investments in, and financial loans to, South Africa."
