Permanent Mission of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea
to the United Nations

New York, September 20, 1991

Excellency,

We have the honour to inform you that today the Governments of Grenada and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea have issued simultaneously a joint communique concerning the re-establishment of diplomatic relations between the two countries, the text of which is as follows:

The Government of Grenada and the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea desirous of developing relations of friendship and cooperation in all fields on the basis of the principles of complete equality and mutual benefit, mutual respect for the sovereignty and non-interference in each other's internal affairs, have agreed to the re-establishment of diplomatic relations and the exchange of diplomatic representatives at ambassadorial level between the two countries.

We request Your Excellency to circulate this communication as a United Nations document, and we take this opportunity to renew to you the assurances of our highest consideration.
