5. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted the draft resolution, as further orally revised, without a vote (see para. 6).

III. RECOMMENDATION OF THE FIFTH COMMITTEE

6. The Fifth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Payment of repatriation grant to staff members living in their home country while stationed at duty stations located in another country

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on payment of repatriation grant to staff members living in their home country while stationed at duty stations located in another country, 1/

Recalling section II.D of its resolution 48/224 of 23 December 1993 on the United Nations common system, in which it requested the International Civil Service Commission to study further the practices of the organizations of the United Nations common system regarding the granting of expatriate entitlements to staff members living in their home country while stationed at duty stations located in another country, with a view to harmonizing the practices of the organizations with those of the United Nations, and to make recommendations thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-first session,

Noting the decision of the United Nations Administrative Tribunal in Judgement No. 656, Kremer, Gourdon,

1. Reiterates its decision that the repatriation grant and other expatriate benefits be limited to staff who both work and reside in a country other than their home country;

2. Approves the amendments to the staff regulations contained in the annex to the present resolution;

3. Decides to re-examine the issue of entitlement to repatriation and other expatriate benefits to staff members living in their home country while stationed at duty stations located in another country during its fifty-first session, in the light of the report by the International Civil Service Commission requested in section II.D of its resolution 48/224 of 23 December 1993.

Article V

Replace regulation 5.3 with the following text:

"Regulation 5.3: Eligible staff members shall be granted home leave once in every two years.
