I. INTRODUCTION

1. By its resolution 34/180 of 18 December 1979, the General Assembly adopted the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women. In its subsequent resolutions 35/140, 36/131, 37/64, 38/109, 39/130, 40/39, 41/108, 42/60, 42/62, 43/100, 44/73, 45/124, 47/94 and 49/164, the Assembly urged States that had not yet ratified or acceded to the Convention to do so as soon as possible and requested the Secretary-General to report on the status of the Convention. In its resolution 45/124 of 14 December 1990, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit this report annually. In accordance with those resolutions, the Secretary-General has submitted at each session of the Assembly a report on the status of the Convention (A/35/428, A/36/295 and Add.1, A/37/349 and Add.1, A/38/378, A/39/486, A/40/623, A/41/608 and Add.1, A/42/627, A/43/605, A/44/457, A/45/426, A/46/462, A/47/368, A/48/354 and A/49/308).

2. In its resolution 49/164 of 23 December 1994, on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, the General Assembly recommended "that the States parties to the Convention, in the light of the reports mentioned in paragraphs 6 and 7 above, review the working situation of the Committee and its capacity to fulfil its mandate more effectively, and in this context also that the States parties consider the possibility of amending article 20 of the Convention so as to allow for sufficient meeting time for the Committee". It also "requested the States parties to the Convention to meet in 1995 in order to consider the review of article 20 of the Convention mentioned in paragraph 8 above". The reports mentioned in the resolution included the report of the Secretary-General on the working methods of the Committee and its capacity to fulfil its mandate 1/ as well as the reports of the Committee on its twelfth 2/ and thirteenth 3/ sessions.

3. In its decision 49/448 on "Consideration of the request for the revision of article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women", the "General Assembly, on the recommendation of the Third Committee, 4/ aware that the Governments of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden have made a written request 5/ for the revision of article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women 6/ by replacing the words 'normally meet for a period of not more than two weeks annually in order' by the words 'meet annually for a period necessary', and having noted that article 26 of the Convention stipulates that the General Assembly shall decide upon the steps, if any, to be taken in respect of such a request decided: (a) to request the States parties to the Convention to consider the request for a revision of article 20, paragraph 1, at a meeting to be convened in 1995; and (b) to request the States parties at the meeting to limit the scope of any revision of the Convention to article 20, paragraph 1, thereof".

4. In pursuance of General Assembly decision 49/448, the 8th meeting of State parties took place at United Nations Headquarters in New York on 22 May 1995. On the basis of its discussion the meeting of States parties adopted resolution 8/1 on "Proposed amendment to article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women". The resolution is contained in annex I to the present report.

II. STATUS OF THE CONVENTION ON THE ELIMINATION OF ALL FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN

5. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 1 March 1980 and, in accordance with its article 27, entered into force on 3 September 1981.

6. As at 1 August 1995, 143 States had ratified the Convention, of which 49 States had acceded and 5 had succeeded to it. In addition, six States had signed it without yet ratifying it. Since the last progress report (A/49/308), the following States parties have ratified, acceded or succeeded to the Convention: Cameroon, Chad, Comoros, Georgia, Kuwait, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea, Uzbekistan (see annex II, List of States that have signed, ratified or acceded to the Convention as at 1 August 1995).

7. Reservations were made upon ratification to the Convention by Malaysia and Kuwait (see annex III).

8. An objection was received during the period 1 August 1994 to 1 August 1995 from Norway (see annex V).

9. One reformulation of a reservation made upon accession was made by the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya (see annex IV).

10. One withdrawal of a reservation and declaration was received from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (see annex VI).

ANNEX I

Draft resolution 8/1

Proposed amendment to article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women

The States parties to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 49/164 of 23 December 1994 on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women,

Noting the proposed revision of article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women by replacing the words "normally meet for a period of not more than two weeks annually in order" by the words "meet annually for a period necessary" put forward by the Governments of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden, in accordance with article 26 of the Convention,

Further noting General Assembly decision 49/448 in accordance with article 26 requesting that the current meeting of States parties consider the proposed amendment and to limit the scope of any revision of the Convention to article 20, paragraph 1,

Reiterating the importance of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women as well as the contribution of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women to the United Nations efforts to eliminate discrimination against women,

Noting that the workload of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women has increased because of the growing number of States parties of the Convention and that the annual session of the Committee is the shortest of all the annual sessions of the human rights treaty bodies,

Recalling recommendation 22 of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women at its fourteenth session on the meeting time of the Committee,

Convinced of the need to adopt measures to enable the Committee, in accordance with its mandate, to consider in a thorough and timely manner the reports submitted by States parties and to discharge all its responsibilities under the Convention,

Also convinced that an adequate amount of time for the meetings of the Committee is a vital factor in ensuring in future years the continued effectiveness of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women,

1. Decide to replace article 20, paragraph 1, of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women with the following

text: "The Committee shall normally meet annually in order to consider the reports submitted in accordance with article 18 of the present Convention. The duration of the meetings of the Committee shall be determined by a meeting of the States parties to the present Convention, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.";

2. Recommend that the General Assembly take note with approval of this amendment at its fiftieth session;

3. Decide that the amendment shall enter into force following consideration by the General Assembly and when it has been accepted by a two-thirds majority of States parties which shall have so notified the Secretary-General as depositary of the Convention.

ANNEX III

Reservations made upon ratification from 1 August 1994
to 1 August 1995

Reservations made by the Government of Kuwait
upon ratification

The Government of Kuwait enters a reservation regarding article 7 (a), inasmuch as the provision contained in that paragraph conflicts with the Kuwaiti Electoral Act, under which the right to be eligible for election and to vote is restricted to males.

The Government of Kuwait reserves its right not to implement the provision contained in article 9, paragraph 2, of the Convention, inasmuch as it runs counter to the Kuwaiti Nationality Act, which stipulates that a child's nationality shall be determined by that of his father.

The Government of the State of Kuwait declares that it does not consider itself bound by the provision contained in article 16 (f) inasmuch as it conflicts with the provisions of the Islamic Shariah, Islam being the official religion of the State.

The Government of Kuwait declares that it is not bound by the provision contained in article 29, paragraph 1.

Reservation made by the Government of Malaysia upon accession

The Government of Malaysia declares that Malaysia's accession is subject to the understanding that the provisions of the Convention do not conflict with the provisions of the Islamic Shariah law and the Federal Constitution of Malaysia. With regards thereto, further, the Government of Malaysia does not consider itself bound by the provisions of articles 2 (f), 5 (a), 7 (b), 9 and 16 of the aforesaid Convention.

In relation to article 11, Malaysia interprets the provisions of this article as a reference to the prohibition of discrimination on the basis of equality between men and women only.

[4 June 1995]

Reformulations of reservations entered upon accession to the Convention from 1 August 1994 to 1 August 1995

Reformulation of reservation made by the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya

I have the honour to inform you that, in response to the request of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women, the competent authorities in the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya have reviewed the aforementioned reservation and have reformulated the reservation so that paragraph 3 of the aforementioned instrument of accession of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya reads as follows:

"The Socialist People's Libyan Arab Jamahiriya has declared its accession to the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 18 December 1979, with the following reservation:

'1. Article 2 of the Convention shall be implemented with due regard for the peremptory norms of the Islamic Shariah relating to determination of the inheritance portions of the estate of a deceased person, whether female or male.

'2. The implementation of paragraph 16 (c) and (d) of the Convention shall be without prejudice to any of the rights guaranteed to women by the Islamic shariah.'"

I am pleased to convey to you the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya's approval of the new formulation of its reservation to the Convention, which replaces the formulation contained in the instrument of accession.

[28 April 1995]

Objections made from 1 August 1994 to 1 August 1995

Objection by the Government of Norway to reservations made by the Government of the State of Kuwait

The Government of Norway has examined the content of the reservations made by Kuwait upon accession which reads as follows: "1. Article 7 (a) - The Government of Kuwait enters a reservation regarding article 7 (a), inasmuch as the provision contained in that paragraph conflicts with the Kuwaitian Electoral Act, under which the right to be eligible for election and to vote is restricted to males. 2. Article 9, paragraph 2 - The Government of Kuwait reserves its right not to implement the provision contained in article 9, paragraph 2, of the Convention, inasmuch as it runs counter to the Kuwait Nationality Act, which stipulates that a child's nationality shall be determined by that of his father. 3. Article 16 (f) - The Government of the State of Kuwait declared that it does not consider itself bound by the provision contained in article 16 (f) inasmuch as it conflicts with the provision of the Islamic Shariah, Islam being the official religion of the State. 4. The Government of Kuwait declares that it is not bound by the provision contained in article 28, paragraph 1."

The Norwegian Government will stress that by acceding to the Convention, a State commits itself to adopt the measures required for the elimination of discrimination, in all its forms and manifestations, against women. A reservation by which a State party limits its responsibilities under the Convention by invoking internal or religious law may create doubts about the commitments of the reserving State to the object and purpose of the Convention. Furthermore, under well established international treaty law, a State may not invoke the provisions of its internal law as justification for its failure to perform a treaty. It is in the common interest of States that treaties to which they have chosen to become parties also are respected, as to their object and purpose, by all parties. For these reasons, the Government of Norway objects to the Kuwaiti reservation.

The Government of Norway does not consider this objection to preclude the entry into force of the above-stated Convention between the Kingdom of Norway and the State of Kuwait.

[4 January 1995]

Withdrawals of reservations and declarations from 1 August 1994 to 1 August 1995

Withdrawal of a reservation and a declaration by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

On 4 January 1995, the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland notified the Secretary-General of its decision to withdraw the reservation with respect to article 13 as well as the following declaration with respect to article 11 which it had made upon ratification of the Convention. The declaration reads as follows:

"... the United Kingdom declares that, in the event of a conflict between obligations under the present Convention and its obligations under the Convention concerning the Employment of Women on Underground Work in Mines of all kinds (ILO Convention No. 45), the provisions of the last mentioned Convention shall prevail."
