NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 111th plenary meeting of its thirty-fifth session, on 6 March 1980, the General Assembly adopted resolutions 35/227 A to J, entitled "Question of Namibia".*

In paragraphs 23 and 29 of resolution 35/227 A, the General Assembly

"Calls upon the Security Council to act decisively against any dilatory manoeuvres and fraudulent schemes of the illegal occupation régime aimed at frustrating the legitimate struggle of the Namibian people, under the leadership of the South West Africa People's Organization, for self-determination and national liberation, as well as at negating the achievements of their just struggle;

"Solemnly calls upon the Security Council to convene urgently to impose comprehensive mandatory sanctions against South Africa, as provided for under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, in order to ensure South Africa's immediate compliance with the resolutions and decisions of the United Nations relating to Namibia".

In paragraphs 6 and 7 of resolution 35/227 I, the General Assembly

"Draws the attention of the Security Council to the fact that the hearings on Namibian uranium have shown serious violations of Council resolutions 276 (1970), 283 (1970) and 301 (1971) and requests the Council to take appropriate action;

"Also draws the attention of the Security Council to the increased threat to international peace and security caused by the development by South Africa of a nuclear capability, using Namibian uranium, and the dangers of nuclear proliferation arising from the sale of Namibian uranium without safeguards by South Africa, and requests the Council to take action to ensure that South Africa does not continue to acquire nuclear technology from other countries".
