Benin, Libyan Arab Republic and Mauritius: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Gravely concerned over the situation in South Africa and southern Africa as a whole,

Reaffirming that the imposition of apartheid in South Africa and the massive violence and repression by the racist régime of South Africa against the great majority of the population is seriously disturbing international peace and security,

Noting that the South African racist régime continues illegally to occupy the Territory of Namibia in defiance of the resolutions of the Security Council and has, in particular, failed to implement resolution 385 (1976),

Considering that the South African racist régime continues to occupy Namibia illegally and through its military occupation forcefully prevents the United Nations from exercising its responsibility for the Territory and people of Namibia and, hence, is in a state of war against the United Nations,

Recalling resolutions 387 (1976) and 393 (1976), in which the Security Council has condemned the South African racist régime for aggression against the People's Republic of Angola and the Republic of Zambia, respectively,

Noting that the South African racist régime has failed to implement the provisions of resolutions 387 (1976) and 393 (1976),

Recognizing that the South African racist régime has continued to assist the illegal racist minority régime in Southern Rhodesia in defiance of resolutions adopted by the Security Council under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations and in contravention of the provisions of Article 25 of the Charter,

Considering that these acts of violence, aggression and defiance of the United Nations by the South African racist régime have resulted from its efforts to perpetuate the inhuman policy of apartheid and consolidate oppression of the black majority in South Africa,

1. Declares that the South African racist régime has flagrantly and persistently violated the principles contained in the Charter of the United Nations;

2. Further declares that the policies and actions of the South African racist régime have seriously disturbed peace in the region and constitute a grave threat to international peace and security;

3. Urgently calls on the South African racist régime to take steps to comply with its obligations under the Charter of the United Nations and the provisions of the relevant resolutions of the Security Council;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to follow the situation and report on the implementation of this resolution not later than 31 August 1977;

5. Decides that, in case of non-compliance with paragraph 3 of this resolution, the Security Council shall consider appropriate action under all the provisions of the Charter, including Articles 39 to 46 of Chapter VII.
