Agenda item 15

Elections to fill vacancies in principal organs

(b) Election of eighteen members of the Economic and Social Council

The President: This morning the General Assembly will proceed to the election of 18 members of the Economic and Social Council to replace those members whose term of office expires on 31 December 1997.

The 18 outgoing members are Australia, Belarus, Brazil, Colombia, the Congo, Côte d'Ivoire, India, Jamaica, Luxembourg, Malaysia, the Netherlands, the Philippines, Poland, South Africa, the Sudan, Thailand, Uganda and the United States of America.

I should like to remind members of the Assembly that, as of 1 January 1998, the following States will continue to be represented on the Economic and Social Council: Argentina, Bangladesh, Canada, Cape Verde, the Central African Republic, Chile, China, Cuba, the Czech Republic, Djibouti, El Salvador, Finland, France, Gabon, the Gambia, Germany, Guyana, Iceland, Japan, Jordan, Latvia, Lebanon, Mexico, Mozambique, Nicaragua, the Republic of Korea, Romania, the Russian Federation, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Zambia. The names of these 36 States should therefore not appear on the ballots.

In accordance with paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 2847 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971, and taking into account the number of States which will remain members of the Council after 1 January 1998, the 18 members should be elected as follows: five from African States, four from Asian States, two from Eastern European States, three from Latin American and Caribbean States and four from Western European and other States. The ballot papers reflect this pattern.

I should like to inform the Assembly that the number of candidates, not exceeding the number of seats to be filled, receiving the greatest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of those present and voting will be declared elected. In the case of a tie vote for a remaining seat, there will be a restricted ballot limited to those candidates which have obtained an equal number of votes.

May I take it that the General Assembly agrees to this procedure?

It was so decided.

The President: In accordance with rule 92 of the rules of procedure, the election shall be held by secret ballot, and there shall be no nominations.

Regarding candidatures, I have been informed by the Chairmen of the regional groups that, for the five vacant seats from among the African States, the five endorsed candidates are Algeria, the Comoros, Lesotho, Mauritius and Sierra Leone.

For the four vacant seats from among the Asian States, there are six candidates, namely, India, Malaysia, Oman, Pakistan, Qatar and Viet Nam.

For the Eastern European States, there are three candidates for two vacant seats: Belarus, Georgia, and Poland.

For the three vacant seats from among the Latin American and Caribbean States, there are five candidates: Brazil, Colombia, Guatemala, Peru and Saint Lucia.

The Group of Western European and other States has endorsed four candidates for four vacant seats: Belgium, Italy, New Zealand and the United States of America.

In accordance with rule 92 of the rules of procedure, we shall now proceed to the election by secret ballot.

Ballot papers marked "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E" will now be distributed. I request representatives to use only those ballot papers and to write on them the names of the States for which they wish to vote.

A ballot paper containing more names from the relevant region than the number of seats assigned to it will be declared invalid. Names of Member States on a ballot paper which do not belong to that region will not be counted at all.

At the invitation of the President, Mr. Silva (Angola), Mrs. Dorjee (Bhutan), Mr. Tovar Morillo (Dominican Republic), Mr. Jerónimo (Portugal) and Mrs. Kimliková (Slovakia) acted as tellers.
