Annotations

1. Adoption of the agenda

In accordance with rule 9 of its rules of procedure, the Committee on the Rights of the Child may revise the agenda and may, as appropriate, add, defer or delete items. Only urgent items may be added to the agenda.

The provisional agenda for the eighty-second session was prepared by the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Chair of the Committee, in accordance with rule 6 of the rules of procedure.

* The present document was submitted after the deadline in order to reflect the most recent information.

2. Organizational matters

The eighty-second session of the Committee will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva (Palais Wilson, ground floor conference room), from 9 to 27 September 2019. The first meeting of the session will be convened on Monday, 9 September, at 10 a.m.

In accordance with rule 39 of the rules of procedure, the meetings of the Committee shall be held in public, unless the Committee decides otherwise.

Under the present item, the Committee will consider its programme of work for the session, as well as any other matters concerning the performance of its functions under the Convention.

3. Submission of reports of States parties

Reports received

In addition to the reports that are already scheduled for consideration by the Committee at its eighty-second session (see the timetable for consideration of reports under item 4 below) and the reports included in the provisional agenda for the eighty-first session (CRC/C/81/1), the Secretary-General has received the following reports on the implementation of the Convention.

In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. The representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their States, and may also submit further information.

In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and venue of the eighty-second session of the Committee and the meetings at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend those meetings.

A meeting of the pre-sessional working group of the Committee is convened before each session to prepare lists of issues relating to reports, for transmission to States parties before the meetings at which their reports are to be considered. The meeting of the pre-sessional working group for the eighty-second session, established in accordance with rule 67 of the rules of procedure, was held at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 4 to 8 February 2019. The responses of the States parties to the lists of issues will be before the Committee at its eighty-second session.

5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

The Committee will continue its discussion on how its cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

6. Methods of work of the Committee and treaty body strengthening process

The Committee will continue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work and the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports of States parties and their follow-up. In particular, the Committee will discuss issues related to its methods of work and will continue its discussion on follow-up to the treaty body strengthening process and the 2020 review.

7. Activities of the Committee under the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on a communications procedure

The Committee will consider any communication and information it has received in relation to the Optional Protocol.

8. Day of general discussion

At its eighty-first session, the Committee decided that its next day of general discussion, to be held in September 2020, would focus on the rights of children at risk of being placed or living in alternative care.

9. General comments

At its eighty-first session, the Committee adopted its general comment No. 24 (2019), replacing its general comment No. 10 (2007) on children's rights in juvenile justice. The Committee will now start working on its new general comment dedicated to children's rights in the digital environment.

10. Future sessions

The Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future sessions.

11. Other matters

Members will discuss any other matters relating to the work of the Committee, as considered necessary.
