Scusciuban
7 April 1955

We have been awaiting your arrival in our country and now that you have come we thank God.

1. We have asked the Government to furnish our needs and our country's needs, but now we despair of receiving them.

2. Our district is divided into five parts. We ask for the selection of 'Arif Abyadh, because we need him.

3. We have received no assistance at all from the United Nations.

4. We have not been helped with wells and shambas as others have.

5. The people of our district have no work.

6. We ask the United Nations Administration to take the train and visit us and see our plight and the plight of our land.
