Dear Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I had an interview with the Visiting Mission on the 16th April 1960 Re my petition No. 217.<sup>1/</sup>

They informed me that I should approach to you please kindly to see about my difficulties as I am in distress and worries day by day as the result of my brothers death. Now I have a more harder times then ever before to take care of his family as well.

I have no any employment. My work has been stopped long ago therefore I pray to you to see my position and go into my matters I am practically penniless point of starvation with a big family. Please kindly see to my difficulties as soon as can and to let me to know what to do. I here with enclosed my admissions copy for interview received to day.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully
