^{1/} Resolution 995 (X).

14 December 1955, shall contribute for the year of admission to membership an amount equal to ^{1/} of their percentage assessment for 1956 applied to the budget for 1955.

4. That notwithstanding the provisions of resolution 970 (X), paragraph 4, the new Member States listed in paragraph 3 above, which participated in certain United Nations activities before their admission to membership, shall not be required to contribute separately toward the annual expenses of such activities for the years 1956 onwards, and that for the year 1955 the amounts these Members are called upon to contribute under the existing General Assembly resolutions^{2/} shall be reduced by ^{1/}.

5. That the Federal Republic of Germany, which under Economic and Social Council resolution 594 (XX) of 15 December 1955 became a member of the Economic Commission for Europe on 21 February 1956, shall be called upon to contribute 4.61 per cent of the expenses of the Economic Commission for Europe for the years 1956, 1957 and 1958.

(An additional paragraph would be desirable to take into account the admission of new Member States at the eleventh session of the General Assembly.)

6. That the Committee on Contributions shall consider in 1957 the assessment of those States admitted to membership in the United Nations at the eleventh session of the General Assembly and report thereon to the twelfth session of the General Assembly.

^{1/} Will be filled in in accordance with the Committee's decision on paragraphs 21 and 22 of the Report of the Committee on Contributions (A/3121).

^{2/} General Assembly resolutions 876 (IX) and 970 (X).
