Letter dated 27 December 2022 from the Chair of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\) addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to transmit herewith the report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\), containing an account of the Committee's activities from 1 January to 31 December 2022. The report, which was approved by the Committee, is being submitted in accordance with the note by the President of the Security Council of 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234).

I should be grateful if the present letter and the report were brought to the attention of the members of the Security Council and issued as a document of the Council.

(Signed) Mona Juul
Chair

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\)

Report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006)

I. Introduction

1. The present report of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 (2006) covers the period from 1 January to 31 December 2022.
2. The Bureau of the Committee consisted of Mona Juul (Norway) as Chair and a representative of Albania as Vice-Chair.

II. Background

3. The Committee is mandated to oversee the implementation, examine and take appropriate action regarding alleged sanctions violations and make recommendations to strengthen the effectiveness of the measures adopted by the Security Council in its resolutions 1718 (2006), 1874 (2009), 2087 (2013), 2094 (2013), 2270 (2016), 2321 (2016), 2356 (2017), 2371 (2017), 2375 (2017) and 2397 (2017). The measures include an arms embargo, an embargo relating to nuclear, ballistic missile and other weapons of mass destruction programmes, sectoral bans on coal, minerals and fuel, a ban on the export of luxury goods, a travel ban and/or asset freeze on designated individuals and entities, a ban on the provision of financial services, a ban on specialized teaching and training in disciplines that could contribute to prohibited activities and programmes, and cargo inspection and maritime procedures. The measures should not impede the activities of diplomatic or consular missions in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea pursuant to the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations and the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations. The Committee is further mandated to examine and take appropriate action regarding requests for exemptions relating to the sanctions measures, taking into account that they are not intended, inter alia, to have adverse humanitarian consequences for the civilian population of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. Similarly, the Committee is to determine additional items, materials, equipment, goods and technology to be specified for the purpose of paragraphs 8 (a) (i) and (ii) of resolution 1718 (2006).
4. A panel of experts, established pursuant to resolution 1874 (2009), acts under the direction of and assists the Committee in implementing its mandate to monitor, promote and facilitate the implementation of the measures imposed in the resolutions.
5. The membership of the Panel of Experts initially consisted of seven experts, but was increased to eight experts under resolution 2094 (2013). The mandate of the Panel was extended most recently by the Security Council in its resolution 2627 (2022).
6. Further background information on the Democratic People's Republic of Korea sanctions regime can be found in the previous annual reports of the Committee.

III. Summary of the activities of the Committee

7. The Committee met four times in informal consultations, on 22 February, 17 June, 26 August and 15 December, in addition to conducting its work through written procedures.
8. The Committee convened two briefings for Member States, on 12 April and 28 October 2022.

9. During the informal consultations held on 23 February, the Committee heard a presentation by the Panel of Experts on its final report (S/2022/132), submitted pursuant to paragraph 2 of resolution 2569 (2021), and held a general discussion on the report.
10. During the informal consultations held on 17 June, the Committee heard a briefing by the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs. The Committee also heard a briefing by the Panel of Experts on ballistic missile launches by the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.
11. During the informal consultations held on 26 August, the Committee heard a presentation by the Panel of Experts on its midterm report (S/2022/668), submitted pursuant to paragraph 2 of resolution 2627 (2022), and held a general discussion on the report.
12. During the informal consultations held on 15 December, the Committee heard a briefing by the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs. The Committee also heard a briefing by the expert on missile issues and other technologies of the Panel of Experts on recent ballistic missile launches by the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. Under any other business, the Committee discussed the working methods of the Panel, particularly those related to travel by experts, after it heard a briefing by the Secretariat on the subject matter.
13. On 24 February, 27 May, 30 August and 28 November, the Chair gave a briefing to the Security Council during closed consultations on the activities of the Committee, pursuant to paragraph 12 (g) of resolution 1718 (2006).
14. To date, the Committee has received 116 reports from Member States on the implementation of resolution 2270 (2016), 108 reports on the implementation of resolution 2321 (2016), 91 reports on the implementation of resolution 2371 (2017) and 96 reports on the implementation of resolution 2375 (2017), as well as 82 reports on the implementation of resolution 2397 (2017) as a whole and 67 reports on the implementation of paragraph 8 of the same resolution.
15. The Committee continued to assist Member States and international organizations in implementing their obligations under the relevant Security Council resolutions. On 12 April and 28 October, the Committee held briefings for Member States on the implementation of sanctions measures and Member States' obligations under the relevant resolutions.
16. The Committee also continued to receive updates on the efforts of the Secretariat to revive the banking channel for humanitarian activities in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. In a letter dated 2 July, the Under-Secretary-General for Political and Peacebuilding Affairs informed the Committee about a one-time interim measure to allow certain United Nations agencies to receive funds to be used solely for humanitarian assistance activities in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. In a letter dated 1 November, the Under-Secretary-General for Political and Peacebuilding Affairs informed the Committee that the funds transfers to United Nations agencies, funds and programmes operating in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea as part of the one-time transfer of the equivalent of $1 million had been completed on 18 October. The Secretariat also informed the Committee about continued efforts to establish a more lasting banking channel for humanitarian operations.
17. The Committee received letters from several Member States and United Nations entities regarding their engagement with the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, including requests for confirmation that their engagement with the Democratic People's Republic of Korea did not contravene the sanctions regime. The Committee responded to some of those requests, recalling the obligations under the relevant Security Council resolutions.

18. The Committee sent 118 communications to 35 recipients comprising Member States and other stakeholders with reference to the implementation of the sanctions measures.

39. In accordance with the updated Implementation Assistance Notice No. 7: Guidelines for Obtaining Exemptions to Deliver Humanitarian Assistance to the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the Committee continued the practice of considering pandemic-related humanitarian exemption requests, as well as requests for time extensions to exemption periods, under expedited no-objection procedures.

V. Sanctions list

40. The criteria for the designation of individuals and entities as subject to the travel ban and asset freeze are set out in paragraphs 8 (d) and (e) of resolution 1718 \(2006\), paragraph 12 of resolution 2087 \(2013\) and paragraph 27 of resolution 2094 \(2013\). The procedures for requesting listing and delisting are described in the Committee's guidelines for the conduct of its work.

41. No entries were added to or removed from the list. As at the end of the reporting period, there were 80 individuals and 75 entities on the sanctions list of the Committee. In addition, there were 59 vessels on the Committee's list of vessels designated pursuant to various provisions of relevant resolutions.

42. Pursuant to paragraph 45 of resolution 2270 \(2016\) and in accordance with the practice of the Committee, the Committee issued a note verbale to Member States dated 29 March to seek their input for the purpose of updating the sanctions list pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\). Based on the responses to that note verbale, on 30 June, the Committee approved the amendment of the entry for one individual on its sanctions list. On 26 July, the Committee approved amendments to the existing entries of 44 individuals and entities. On 14 September, the Secretariat implemented technical amendments to the existing entries of two entities that had previously been amended on 26 July.

VI. Panel of Experts

43. On 4 February, in accordance with paragraph 2 of resolution 2569 \(2021\), the Panel of Experts provided its final report to the Committee, which was transmitted to the Security Council on 25 February and issued as a document of the Council (S/2022/132).

44. On 22 April, following the adoption by the Security Council of resolution 2627 \(2022\) on 25 March, the Secretary-General appointed eight individuals to the Panel to the Experts, with expertise in missile issues and other technologies, non-proliferation and regional security, customs and export controls, finance and economics, nuclear issues, maritime transport, non-proliferation, procurement and trade, and other weapons of mass destruction and conventional arms. The mandate of the Panel expires on 30 April 2023.

45. On 27 May, in accordance with paragraph 3 of resolution 2627 \(2022\), the Panel of Experts presented its programme of work to the Committee.

46. On 3 August, in accordance with paragraph 2 of resolution 2627 \(2022\), the Panel of Experts provided its midterm report to the Committee, which was transmitted to the Council on 2 September and issued as a document of the Council (S/2022/668).

47. The Panel of Experts continued its investigations into incidents of non-compliance and alleged violations.

48. The Panel of Experts conducted visits to Austria, France, the Netherlands, the Republic of Korea and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The Panel also held informal consultations with government officials and national experts of Member States and with representatives of several international organizations and entities, including the International Atomic Energy Agency. It also participated in relevant international meetings, conferences, workshops and seminars.

49. In pursuance of its mandate, the Panel of Experts, through the Secretariat, sent 543 letters to 315 recipients, comprising Member States, the Committee and international and national entities.

VII. Secretariat administrative and substantive support

50. The Security Council Affairs Division provided substantive and procedural support to the Chair and the members of the Committee. Advisory support was also provided to Member States to promote understanding of the sanctions regime and facilitate the implementation of the sanctions measures. Induction briefings were also provided to incoming members of the Council to familiarize them with the specific issues relevant to the sanctions regime. To complement those briefings, from 2 to 4 December, the Secretariat conducted the second issues-based training session on the design, implementation, monitoring, evaluation, adjustment and redesign of sanctions for incoming members of the Council.

51. The Division worked with the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management and the Office of Information and Communications Technology of the Department of Management Strategy, Policy and Compliance to facilitate the conduct of in-person meetings in line with relevant coronavirus disease (COVID-19) guidance and restrictions and continued to make virtual meetings available as an alternative option.

52. To support the Committee in its recruitment of well-qualified experts to serve on sanctions monitoring groups, teams and panels, on 25 October the Division launched a module in Inspira to manage the applicant pool of incumbent and prospective experts. Furthermore, the Division conducted an outreach event on 27 October to attract more women applicants to Panels of Experts and to the pool of experts. On 8 December, a note verbale was sent to all Member States to request the nomination of qualified candidates for the pool of experts. In addition, a note verbale was sent to all Member States on 19 January, notifying them of upcoming vacancies on the Panel of Experts and providing information on recruitment timelines, areas of expertise and pertinent requirements. On 17 January, vacancy announcements were also made available online at the United Nations career portal (<https://careers.un.org>).

53. The Division continued to provide support to the Panel of Experts, assisting in the preparation of the Panel's final report, submitted to the Committee in February, and its midterm report, submitted to the Committee in August. The Secretariat facilitated travel by Panel members to meet with Member States and other stakeholders, taking into account World Health Organization guidelines, national travel advisories and other COVID-19-related requirements. The Secretariat organized an inter-panel workshop on 6 and 7 December, which included a high-level panel on the women and peace and security agenda and the importance of gender mainstreaming in monitoring groups, teams and panels. An investigative techniques workshop for experts was held on 8 and 9 December.

54. The Secretariat continued to update and maintain the United Nations Security Council Consolidated List and the committee-specific sanctions lists in the six official languages and the three technical formats. Furthermore, the Secretariat implemented improvements concerning the effective utilization of and access to the lists, as well as further developing, in all official languages, the data model approved in 2011 by the Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 \(1999\), 1989 \(2011\) and 2253 \(2015\) concerning Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant (Da'esh), Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities, as requested by the Council in paragraph 54 of its resolution 2368 \(2017\). The implementation of the enhanced data model and its supporting application have been completed and the Division is in the process of migrating and verifying data from the sanctions list in all official languages. In May, the Division published a table of updates to the Consolidated List that have been implemented since 2018.
