Geneva, 15 November 2022

Agenda item 14

Consideration and adoption of the final document

Final document

I. Introduction

1. Article 13 of the Protocol on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Mines, Booby-Traps and Other Devices, as amended on 3 May 1996 (Amended Protocol II), annexed to the Convention on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Certain Conventional Weapons Which May Be Deemed to Be Excessively Injurious or to Have Indiscriminate Effects (CCW), provides for a conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Protocol to be held annually for the purpose of consultations and cooperation on all issues related to the operation of the Protocol.
2. The Twenty-third Annual Conference, held on 10 December 2021, agreed to recommend to the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference a provisional agenda, as contained in its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.23/6, annex II). It also adopted the estimated costs of the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference (CCW/AP.II/CONF.23/4).
3. The Twenty-third Annual Conference recommended in paragraph 30 of its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.23/6), that the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the President-designate of the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference, on behalf of the High Contracting Parties, exercise their authority to achieve the goal of universality of Amended Protocol II.
4. The Twenty-third Annual Conference, in paragraph 33 (c) of its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.23/6), decided to continue focused exchanges on selected article(s) as decided by the Twentieth Annual Conference in paragraph 31 of its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.20/5).
5. The Twenty-third Annual Conference also decided, in paragraph 38 of its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.23/6), that the Group of Experts will review the operation and status of the Protocol, including matters arising from reports by High Contracting Parties according to Article 13 (4) of Amended Protocol II, under the overall responsibility of the President-designate; and the issue of improvised explosive devices (IED), under the overall responsibility of the IED Coordinators. The Conference also decided that the work of the Group of Experts will be considered by the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference.
6. The Twenty-third Annual Conference decided to nominate a representative of the Eastern European Group as President-designate of the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference.
7. The Sixth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention decided in its final document (CCW/CONF.VI/11) that the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference of the High Contracting Parties to Amended Protocol II would be held on 15 November 2022 in Geneva.
8. The Twenty-fourth Annual Conference of the High Contracting Parties to Amended Protocol II was prepared for by a Group of Experts, which took place for two days from 20 to 21 July 2022 in Geneva, as decided by the Sixth Review Conference of the High Contracting Parties to the Convention in its final document (CCW/CONF.VI/11, Decision 4).

- (b) Mine clearance and rehabilitation programmes;
- (c) Steps taken to meet technical requirements of the Protocol and any other relevant information pertaining thereto;
- (d) Legislation related to the Protocol;
- (e) Measures taken on international technical information exchange, on international cooperation on mine clearance, and on technical cooperation and assistance;
- (f) Other relevant matters; and
- (g) Information provided to the database on mine clearance established within the United Nations System.

A synopsis of national annual reports submitted for the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference is contained in annex III of this report.

IV. Conclusions and recommendations

A. Universalization

27. The Twenty-fourth Annual Conference welcomed the efforts undertaken by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the President of the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference, organizations, and the CCW Implementation Support Unit to promote wider adherence to Amended Protocol II.

28. At its second plenary meeting, the Conference decided to issue an appeal to call upon all States that have not yet done so to take all measures to accede to Amended Protocol II as soon as possible. The appeal is contained in annex I.

29. The Conference recommended that the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the President-designate of the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference, on behalf of the High Contracting Parties, exercise their authority to achieve the goal of universality of Amended Protocol II. To this effect, the Conference requested the President-designate to consider reporting to the seventy-eighth session of the United Nations General Assembly on his or her endeavours. The Conference also called on the High Contracting Parties to Amended Protocol II and the Implementation Support Unit to promote wider adherence to Amended Protocol II.

30. The Conference also decided that High Contracting Parties to the Convention should continue their contacts on a voluntary basis with the High Contracting Parties to the original Protocol II that have not yet become parties to Amended Protocol II, to encourage them to accede to it and thus to facilitate the termination of the original Protocol II. Any action with respect to the termination of the original Protocol II should be taken with the consent of the High Contracting Parties to the original Protocol II.

B. Operation and Status of the Protocol

31. The Conference took note of the presentations on Article 8 on Transfers.

32. The Conference decided that:

(a) The Group of Experts should review the operation and status of the Protocol and consider matters arising from the national annual reports;

(b) The Group of Experts should consider measures to increase the rate of national reporting and consistency of the current reporting methodology in the framework of Amended Protocol II;

(c) Focused exchanges on selected article(s) of Amended Protocol II should be continued as decided by the Twentieth Annual Conference in paragraph 31 of its final document (CCW/AP.II/CONF.20/5).

C. Improvised Explosive Devices (IED)

33. The Conference decided:

(a) The High Contracting Parties request the Implementation Support Unit, in consultation with the Coordinators and the High Contracting Parties, to maintain, update and keep available on the CCW website the compilation of existing guidelines, best practices and other recommendations aiming at addressing the diversion or illicit use of materials that can be used for IED, on an ongoing basis as new relevant information is published; they further request the Implementation Support Unit to modernize the CCW website and to improve the user interface and experience.

(b) With a view to ultimately compiling guidelines based on existing best practices, recommendations and lessons learned on methods to educate civilians to the risk posed by IED, the Group of Experts will continue its voluntary information exchange on IED risk education methods, campaigns or practices.

(c) The Group of Experts will, in accordance with the objectives and purposes of the Convention, continue exchange of information, on a voluntary basis and subject to national policies on the protection of sensitive information, on national measures, reporting methodologies, best practices and lessons learned on the following topics:

- (i) Development and consolidation of coherent and coordinated national and regional responses to counter the threat posed by IED;
- (ii) New types of IED, including trigger mechanisms, new components used as main charge and detonators;
- (iii) Methods of clearance of IED, with a particular focus on urban environments, as well as technical innovations and new means for clearance of IED as part of humanitarian action;
- (iv) Methods to protect civilians from IED,

(d) The Implementation Support Unit, in consultation with the Coordinators and the High Contracting Parties, is requested, based on the responses received, to:

- (i) Make available to High Contracting Parties the responses to the original and revised questionnaire on the designated restricted webpages;
- (ii) Maintain a list of national point of contacts for Counter-IED cooperation;

(e) With respect to other fora addressing the threat posed by IED, the Group of Experts will keep apprised of the relevant developments in their activities, with a view to ensuring complementarity of efforts and awareness raising on topics such as methods to prevent the diversion of precursors, ammunition, explosives and components that may be used for the manufacture of IED.

(f) To recognize the importance of a balanced involvement of women and men in the Group of Experts in support of its efforts to address the threats posed by IED.

D. Follow-up

34. The Conference decided that the 2023 session of the Group of Experts will be for a duration of two days and the dates are to be decided by the Meeting of High Contracting Parties to the Convention, to be held on 16 to 18 November 2022. The Conference also adopted the estimated costs of the Group of Experts, as contained in CCW/AP.II/CONF.24/3.

35. The Conference decided that the Group of Experts will review the operation and status of the Protocol, including matters arising from reports by High Contracting Parties according to Article 13 (4) of Amended Protocol II, under the overall responsibility of the President-designate; and the issues on IED, under the overall responsibility of the IED Coordinators. The work of the Group of Experts will be considered by the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference.

36. The Conference decided that the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference will be convened in 2023 on the dates to be decided by the Meeting of High Contracting Parties to the Convention, to be held on 16 to 18 November 2022. The Conference decided to recommend to the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference a provisional agenda, as contained in annex II. It also adopted the estimated costs of the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference, as contained in CCW/AP.II/CONF.24/4.

37. The Conference decided to nominate a representative of the Group of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) as President-designate of the Twenty-fifth Annual Conference of the High Contracting Parties to Amended Protocol II to be held in 2023, and representatives of China, the Western European and Others Group (WEOG) and the Eastern European Group (EEG) as Vice-Presidents-designates.

38. At its second plenary meeting, the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference adopted its final document as contained in CCW/AP.II/CONF.24/CRP.1, as orally amended, which will be issued as document CCW/AP.II/CONF.24/5.

Annex I

An appeal by the Twenty-fourth Annual Conference of the High Contracting Parties to Amended Protocol II

(as adopted at the second plenary meeting on 15 November 2022)

We, the High Contracting Parties which have notified the Depositary of our consent to be bound by Amended Protocol II to the CCW, meeting in Geneva on 15 November 2022 for our Twenty-fourth Annual Conference:

Bearing in mind the important contribution of Amended Protocol II to international efforts to alleviate the suffering caused by certain conventional weapons which may be deemed to be excessively injurious or to have indiscriminate effects,

Noting that Amended Protocol II is the only international legal instrument which covers all types of mines, booby-traps and other devices,

Having reviewed the operation and status of Amended Protocol II, in accordance with paragraph 3 (a) of Article 13,

Having considered the national annual reports presented by High Contracting Parties which have notified the Depositary of their consent to be bound by Amended Protocol II,

1. Welcome the fact that 106 High Contracting Parties have notified the Depositary of their consent to be bound by Amended Protocol II;
2. Emphasize the importance of achieving universalization of Amended Protocol II, including widest possible adherence to it;
3. Urge all States that have not yet done so to take all measures to accede to Amended Protocol II as soon as possible.
