As with past resolutions concerning the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the Republic of San Marino has taken steps to implement the provisions contained in resolution 2397 \(2017\).

Measures adopted through Security Council resolutions become enforceable in San Marino through decisions of the Congress of State (Government), which provide a list of the measures to be enforced and mandate the competent authorities of San Marino to implement them.

On 1 February 2018, the San Marino Congress of State adopted decision No. 7 on provisions implementing the measures adopted by the Security Council with respect to the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (herewith enclosed, along with the annexes thereto), which contains the following:*

(a) Measures adopted by the Security Council with respect to the Democratic People's Republic of Korea;

(b) The list established and maintained by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\).

Pursuant to Law No. 57 of 29 March 2019, entitled "Measures to prevent, combat and suppress terrorist financing, the financing of the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and the activity of countries that threaten international peace and security", amendments to lists of entities and individuals established, maintained and transmitted by sanctions committees of the Security Council (including the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1718 \(2006\)) are to be considered enforceable automatically upon their reception by the Department of Foreign Affairs and the Financial Intelligence Agency (AIF), the financial intelligence unit of San Marino, which are the two focal points in this respect. The amendments continue to be posted on a dedicated section of the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of San Marino.
