

Security Council

Distr.: General
12 December 2024

Original: English

Letter dated 9 December 2024 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

The Security Council, in its resolutions 2722 \(2024\) and 2739 \(2024\), requested me to provide written monthly reports, up to and including 15 January 2025, on any further Houthi attacks on merchant and commercial vessels in the Red Sea, in order to inform the future consultations of the Council. Pursuant to that request, I am transmitting as an annex to the present letter, and as it was received, information provided by the International Maritime Organization, providing updates since the previous report (S/2024/810), covering the period up to 9 December 2024.

I should be grateful if you would bring the present letter and its annex to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

(Signed) António Guterres

Updates to the report on Houthi attacks on merchant and commercial vessels in the Red Sea for the period from 10 January to 9 December 2024 compiled in response to a request from the Security Council in its resolutions 2722 \(2024\) and 2739 \(2024\)

No.	Date	Ship name (International Maritime Organization No.)	Flag	Type	Location	Brief description	Links to Houthis	Picture
52	28 October	Motaro (9310290)	Liberia	Bulk carrier	Southern Red Sea	Attacked by three uncrewed aerial devices, which all landed within 150 to 250 meters of the vessel, with no injuries or damage reported	Confirmed by Houthis in a statement
53	17–18 November	Andalou S (9667758)	Panama	Bulk carrier	Southern Red Sea	Attacked by two uncrewed aerial devices, with no injuries or damage reported	Confirmed by Houthis in a statement

Source: Information has been derived from flag States, coastal States, States members of the International Maritime Organization, shipowners and regional organizations and their representation in the area.

Note: All information herein has been provided by the International Maritime Organization and is transmitted as it was received.