Agenda item 85

The scope and application of the principle of universal jurisdiction

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 4 December 2024

on the report of the Sixth Committee ([A/79/475, para. 10)]

79/127. The scope and application of the principle of universal jurisdiction

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its commitment to the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, to international law and to an international order based on the rule of law, which is essential for peaceful coexistence and cooperation among States,

Recalling its resolutions 64/117 of 16 December 2009, 65/33 of 6 December 2010, 66/103 of 9 December 2011, 67/98 of 14 December 2012, 68/117 of 16 December 2013, 69/124 of 10 December 2014, 70/119 of 14 December 2015, 71/149 of 13 December 2016, 72/120 of 7 December 2017, 73/208 of 20 December 2018, 74/192 of 18 December 2019, 75/142 of 15 December 2020, 76/118 of 9 December 2021, 77/111 of 7 December 2022 and 78/113 of 7 December 2023,

Taking into account the comments and observations of Governments and observers and the discussions held in the Sixth Committee at the sixty-fourth to seventy-ninth sessions of the General Assembly on the scope and application of universal jurisdiction,¹

Noting the constructive dialogue in the Sixth Committee, including in the context of its working group, recognizing the diversity of views expressed by States, including concerns expressed in relation to the abuse or misuse of the principle of universal jurisdiction, and acknowledging, in order to make progress, the need for continuing discussions on the scope and application of the principle of universal jurisdiction in the Sixth Committee,

Noting also the decision of the International Law Commission at its seventieth session to recommend the inclusion of the topic “Universal criminal jurisdiction” in its long-term programme of work,

Reiterating its commitment to fighting impunity, and noting the views expressed by States that the legitimacy and credibility of the use of universal jurisdiction are best ensured by its responsible and judicious application consistent with international law,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General reviewing all the submissions of Member States and relevant observers, as well as views expressed in the debates of the Sixth Committee since the sixty-second session of the Assembly, and identifying possible convergences and divergences on the definition, scope and application of universal jurisdiction;²

2. Decides that the Sixth Committee shall continue its consideration of the scope and application of universal jurisdiction, without prejudice to the consideration of this topic and related issues in other forums of the United Nations, and for this purpose decides to establish, at its eighty-first session, a working group of the Sixth Committee to continue to undertake a thorough discussion of the scope and application of universal jurisdiction;

3. Invites the working group of the Sixth Committee, to be established at its eighty-first session, to consider and comment on the question “how the principle of universal jurisdiction is distinct from other related concepts”;

4. Invites Member States and relevant observers to the General Assembly, as appropriate, to submit, before 25 April 2025, information and observations on the scope and application of universal jurisdiction, including, where appropriate, information on the relevant applicable international treaties and on their national legal rules and judicial practice, and requests the Secretary-General to prepare and submit to the Assembly at its eightieth session a report based on such information and observations;

5. Decides that the working group shall be open to all Member States and that relevant observers to the General Assembly will be invited to participate in the work of the working group;

6. Also decides to include in the provisional agenda of its eightieth session the item entitled “The scope and application of the principle of universal jurisdiction”.

*47th plenary meeting
4 December 2024*
