I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Conference on Disarmament submits to the fifty-seventh session of the United Nations General Assembly its annual report on its 2002 session, together with the pertinent documents and records.

II. ORGANIZATION OF WORK OF THE CONFERENCE

A. 2002 Session of the Conference

2. The Conference was in session from 21 January to 29 March, 13 May to 28 June and 29 July to 13 September 2002. During this period, the Conference held 26 formal plenary meetings, at which Member States as well as non-Member States invited to participate in the discussions outlined their views and recommendations on the various questions before the Conference. The following dignitaries addressed the Conference on Disarmament during its 2002 session: Ms. Anna Lindh, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Sweden (CD/PV.892); Mr. Ioan Mircea Pascu, Minister of National Defence of Romania (CD/PV.896); Mr. William Graham, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Canada (CD/PV.898); Mr. K. Tokaev, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Kazakhstan (CD/PV.899); and Mr. Abdul Sattar, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Pakistan (CD/PV.900).

3. The Conference also held 11 informal meetings on its agenda, programme of work, organization and procedures, as well as on specific items of its agenda and other matters.

4. In accordance with Rule 9 of the Rules of Procedure, the following Member States assumed successively the Presidency of the Conference: Egypt, Ethiopia, Finland, France, Germany and Hungary.

5. The substantive Secretariat of the Conference on Disarmament was composed as follows: Mr. Vladimir Petrovsky, Secretary-General of the Conference on Disarmament and Personal Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations (until 28 February 2002); Mr. Sergei Ordzhonikidze, Secretary-General of the Conference on Disarmament and Personal Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations (as of 19 March); Mr. Enrique Román-Morey, Deputy Secretary-General of the Conference on Disarmament; and Mr. Jerzy Zaleski, Political Affairs Officer (in charge of the Conference on Disarmament).

B. Participants in the Work of the Conference

6. The representatives of Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bangladesh, Belarus, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Cuba, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ecuador, Egypt, Ethiopia, Finland,

France, Germany, Hungary, India, Indonesia, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Iraq, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Malaysia, Mexico, Mongolia, Morocco, Myanmar, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, Norway, Pakistan, Peru, Poland, the Republic of Korea, Romania, the Russian Federation, Senegal, Slovakia, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Sweden, Switzerland, the Syrian Arab Republic, Tunisia, Turkey, Ukraine, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the United States of America, Venezuela, Viet Nam and Zimbabwe participated as Member States in the work of the Conference.

C. Attendance and Participation of States not Members of the Conference

7. In conformity with Rule 32 of the Rules of Procedure, the States not members of the Conference listed in the following paragraph attended its plenary meetings.

8. The Conference received and considered requests for participation in its work from 37 States not members of the Conference. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure and its decision taken at its 1990 session on its improved and effective functioning (CD/1036), the Conference invited the following non-Member States to participate in its work: Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Costa Rica, Croatia, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Gabon, Georgia, Ghana, Greece, Guinea, the Holy See, Jordan, Kuwait, Latvia, Lebanon, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Madagascar, Malta, Monaco, Oman, the Philippines, Portugal, Qatar, San Marino, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, Slovenia, Sudan, Thailand and Yemen.

D. Agenda and Programme of Work for the 2002 Session

9. At its 889th plenary meeting on 22 January 2002, the Conference adopted its agenda for the 2002 session in conformity with the Rules of Procedure. The agenda (CD/1662) reads as follows:

“Taking into account, inter alia, the relevant provisions of the Final Document of the First Special Session of the General Assembly Devoted to Disarmament, and deciding to resume its consultations on the review of its agenda, and without prejudice to their outcome, the Conference adopts the following agenda for its 2002 session:

1. Cessation of the nuclear arms race and nuclear disarmament.
2. Prevention of nuclear war, including all related matters.
3. Prevention of an arms race in outer space.
4. Effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons.

5. New types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons; radiological weapons.
 6. Comprehensive programme of disarmament.
 7. Transparency in armaments.
 8. Consideration and adoption of the annual report and any other report, as appropriate, to the General Assembly of the United Nations.”
10. In connection with the adoption of the agenda, the President made the following statement: “It is my understanding that if there is a consensus in the Conference to deal with any issues, they could be dealt with within this agenda.”
11. During the annual session, successive Presidents of the Conference conducted intensive consultations with a view to reaching consensus on the programme of work. In the course of these consultations, the Presidents put forward some informal proposals related to the programme of work. The Conference did not, however, agree on the programme of work and did not re-establish or establish any mechanism on any of its specific agenda items during the 2002 session.
12. At its 893rd plenary meeting on 14 February 2002, the Conference adopted decision CD/1667, which reads as follows:
- “The Conference on Disarmament, reaffirming its commitment to work intensively towards the approval of a programme of work, using the Amorim Proposal, as contained in document CD/1624, as a basis for further intensified consultations and taking into consideration all relevant proposals:
- In accordance with CD/1653 (paragraph 41), decides to appoint Special Coordinators on the Review of its Agenda, the Expansion of its Membership and its Improved and Effective Functioning. These Special Coordinators, in discharging their duties and functions, will take into account all proposals and views, as well as future initiatives. The Conference requests these Special Coordinators to report to it before the conclusion of the 2002 session.”
13. At its 896th plenary meeting on 7 March 2002, the Conference appointed Ambassador Eui-Yong Chung of the Republic of Korea as Special Coordinator on Review of the Agenda of the Conference, Ambassador Dimiter Tzantchev of Bulgaria as Special Coordinator on Expansion of the Membership of the Conference, and Ambassador Prasad Kariyawasam of Sri Lanka as Special Coordinator on Improved and Effective Functioning of the Conference.
14. With regard to the programme of work, the Conference had before it the following official document submitted by the then President of the Conference, Ambassador Markku Reimaa of Finland: CD/1670, dated 23 May 2002, entitled “Proposal by the President: Draft Decision”.

15. At the 908th plenary meeting on 31 July 2002, Ambassador Mohamed Salah Dembri of Algeria, on behalf of Ambassador Jean Lint of Belgium, Ambassador Camilo Reyes Rodríguez of Colombia, Ambassador Henrik Salander of Sweden, Ambassador Juan Enrique Vega of Chile and on his behalf, outlined a cross-group initiative on a programme of work of the Conference (CD/PV.908). At the 912th plenary meeting, on 29 August 2002, Ambassador Dembri formally presented the proposal to the Conference (CD/PV.912). A wide range of delegations expressed their appreciation for this initiative.

16. During plenary meetings of the Conference, delegations and groups of delegations expressed their views on the issue of a programme of work. These are duly reflected in the plenary records.

E. Expansion of the Membership of the Conference

17. The importance of the expansion of the membership of the Conference was addressed by delegations in plenary meetings.

18. Requests for membership had been received, since 1982, from the following 22 non-members, in chronological order: Greece, Croatia, Kuwait, Portugal, Slovenia, the Czech Republic, Costa Rica, Denmark, The Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Cyprus, Lithuania, Ghana, Luxembourg, Uruguay, the Philippines, Azerbaijan, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Armenia, Thailand, Georgia, Jordan and Estonia.

19. In discharging his mandate, the Special Coordinator on Expansion of the Membership of the Conference, Ambassador Dimitar Tzantchev of Bulgaria, held bilateral consultations with a number of members and participating non-members of the Conference, as well as an informal open-ended meeting on 16 May 2002, and presented his report in a statement at the 911th plenary meeting on 22 August 2002 (CD/PV.911).

F. Review of the Agenda of the Conference

20. The importance of the review of the agenda of the Conference was addressed by delegations in plenary meetings.

21. In discharging his mandate, the Special Coordinator on Review of the Agenda of the Conference, Ambassador Eui-Yong Chung of the Republic of Korea, held bilateral consultations with a number of members and participating non-members of the Conference, as well as an informal open-ended meeting on 6 June 2002, and presented his report in a statement at the 911th plenary meeting on 22 August 2002 (CD/PV.911).

G. Improved and Effective Functioning of the Conference

22. The importance of the improved and effective functioning of the Conference was addressed by delegations in plenary meetings.

23. In discharging his mandate, the Special Coordinator on Improved and Effective Functioning of the Conference, Ambassador Prasad Kariyawasam of Sri Lanka, held bilateral consultations with a number of members and participating non-members of the Conference, as well as two informal open-ended meetings on 23 and 30 May 2002, respectively, and presented his report in a statement at the 911th plenary meeting on 22 August 2002 (CD/PV.911).

H. Communications from Non-Governmental Organizations

24. In accordance with Rule 42 of the Rules of Procedure, a list of all communications from non-governmental organizations and persons was circulated to the Conference (document CD/NGC/36).

III. SUBSTANTIVE WORK OF THE CONFERENCE DURING ITS 2002 SESSION

25. The substantive work of the Conference during its 2002 session was based on its agenda. The list of documents issued by the Conference, as well as the texts of those documents, are included as Appendix I to this report. An index of the verbatim records, by country and subject, listing the statements made by delegations during 2002, and the verbatim records of the meetings of the Conference, are attached as Appendix II to the report.

26. The Conference had before it a letter dated 8 January 2002 from the Secretary-General of the United Nations (CD/1660) transmitting all the resolutions and decisions dealing with or related to disarmament and international security adopted by the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session in 2001, including those making specific reference to the Conference on Disarmament:

- 56/22 “Conclusion of effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons” (operative paragraphs 2, 4 and 5)

I. Consideration and Adoption of the Annual Report of the Conference and Any Other Report as Appropriate to the General Assembly of the United Nations

43. The Conference began its 2002 session reaffirming its support for CD/1624 as a basis for further intensified consultations, and taking into consideration all relevant proposals. The session witnessed frequent debates, active plenary discussions, enhanced cooperation and a number of efforts, including an unprecedented cross-group effort to develop a programme of work. On these grounds, with a view to commencing early work on various agenda items during its 2003 session, the Conference requested the current President and the incoming President to conduct appropriate consultations during the intersessional period and, if possible, make recommendations, taking into account all existing proposals and views presented and discussions held in the 2002 session.

44. The Conference on Disarmament took note of the reports of the Special Coordinator on Review of the Agenda of the Conference on Disarmament, the Special Coordinator on Expansion of Membership of the Conference on Disarmament, and the Special Coordinator on Improved and Effective Functioning of the Conference on Disarmament. While agreeing that priority should be given to pursue substantive work, the Conference recommended that Special Coordinators on relevant procedural issues be appointed, if deemed necessary, during its 2003 session.

45. The Conference decided that the dates for its 2003 session would be:

First part: 20 January - 28 March 2003

Second part: 12 May - 27 June 2003

Third part: 28 July - 10 September 2003

46. The annual report to the fifty-seventh session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, as adopted by the Conference on 12 September 2002, is transmitted by the President on behalf of the Conference on Disarmament.
