I. Introduction

1. By its resolution 968 (1994) of 16 December 1994, the Security Council established the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan (UNMOT) for a period of up to six months, subject to the proviso that the Mission would continue beyond 6 February 1995 only if the parties agreed to extend the Agreement on Temporary Ceasefire and the Cessation of Other Hostile Acts on the Tajik-Afghan border and within the Country for the duration of the Talks, signed on 17 September 1994 (S/1994/1102, annex I), and remained committed to an effective ceasefire, national reconciliation and the promotion of democracy.

2. In its resolution 1138 (1997) of 14 November 1997, the Security Council authorized the Secretary-General to expand the size of UNMOT. Within the mandate set out by that resolution, UNMOT was required to promote peace and national reconciliation and to assist in the implementation of the General Agreement on the Establishment of Peace and National Accord in Tajikistan (A/52/219-S/1997/510, annex I).

3. The Security Council extended the mandate of the Mission in subsequent resolutions. The mandate of the Mission expired on 15 May 2000.

Liquidation

4. The withdrawal of the UNMOT personnel and assets from the Mission area as well as other field liquidation tasks were carried out from 16 May to 30 June 2000. Following the completion of liquidation tasks in the field, additional liquidation activities were undertaken in Headquarters from 1 July to 30 September 2000.

5. The Advisory Committee concurred with the request made by the Controller, as contained in a letter dated 16 June 2000 from its Chairman to the Secretary-General, to enter into commitments in an amount not exceeding $3.4 million gross ($3.3 million net) to carry out liquidation activities at United Nations Headquarters. The corresponding action by the General Assembly is still pending.

Disposition of assets

6. Information on the disposition of the assets of UNMOT was contained in the report of the Secretary-General dated 17 June 2002 (A/57/89). The General Assembly will review the report at the resumed fifty-seventh session.
