Chapter I

Matters calling for action by or brought to the attention of the General Assembly

In 2005, the Economic and Social Council adopted resolutions and decisions that call for action by or that are to be brought to the attention of the General Assembly. The relevant paragraphs of those resolutions and decisions are summarized below.

Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters (item 1)

Enlargement of the Executive Committee of the Programme of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

By decision 2005/243, the Council recommended that the General Assembly, at its sixtieth session, decide on the question of enlarging the membership of the Executive Committee of the Programme of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees from 68 to 69 States.

Special economic, humanitarian and disaster relief assistance (item 5)

Strengthening of the coordination of emergency humanitarian assistance of the United Nations

By resolution 2005/4, the Council requested the Secretary-General, in consultation with States and relevant organizations, to further develop and improve, as required, mechanisms for the use of emergency standby capacities, including, where appropriate, regional humanitarian capacity, under the auspices of the United Nations, inter alia through formal agreements with appropriate regional organizations, and to report on that issue to the General Assembly at its sixty-first session through the Economic and Social Council.

By the same resolution, the Council recommended to the General Assembly that it improve the Central Emergency Revolving Fund, inter alia through the possible inclusion of a grant facility component based on voluntary contributions, and requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on that issue for consideration by the Assembly at its sixtieth session. The Council also requested the Secretary-General to reflect the progress made in the implementation of and follow-up to the resolution in his next report to the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly on the strengthening of the coordination of emergency humanitarian assistance of the United Nations.

Economic and social repercussions of the Israeli occupation on the living conditions of the Palestinian people in the occupied Palestinian territory, including Jerusalem, and the Arab population in the occupied Syrian Golan (item 11)

Economic and social repercussions of the Israeli occupation on the living conditions of the Palestinian people in the occupied Palestinian territory, including Jerusalem, and the Arab population in the occupied Syrian Golan

By resolution 2005/51, the Council requested the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixtieth session, through the Council, a report on the implementation of the resolution and to continue to include in the report of the United Nations Special Coordinator an update on the living conditions of the Palestinian people, in collaboration with relevant United Nations agencies.

Economic and environmental questions (item 13)

Sustainable development (item 13 (a))

Support for the travel of representatives of developing countries and countries with economies in transition to future sessions of the Commission on Sustainable Development

By resolution 2005/6, the Council invited donor Governments, institutions and other organizations to provide contributions to the Trust Fund to Support the Work of the Commission on Sustainable Development and recommended that the General Assembly decide that support to participants from developing countries, with priority given to the least developed countries, as well as from countries with economies in transition, may be provided from the Trust Fund for travel from funds designated for that purpose.

Human settlements (item 13 (d))

By decision 2005/298, the Council took note of the report of the Secretary-General on the coordinated implementation of the Habitat Agenda (E/2005/60) and decided to transmit the report to the General Assembly for consideration at its sixtieth session.

Social and human rights questions (item 14)

Advancement of women (item 14 (a))

Declaration of the Commission on the Status of Women on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the Fourth World Conference on Women

Action taken by the Council

5. Under agenda items 6 and 8, the Council adopted resolution 2005/48.

Role of the Economic and Social Council in the integrated and coordinated implementation of the outcomes of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits

6. At the 33rd meeting, on 20 July, the representative of Jamaica, on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China, introduced a draft resolution entitled “Role of the Economic and Social Council in the integrated and coordinated implementation of the outcomes of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits” (E/2005/L.31), which read as follows:

“The Economic and Social Council,

“Recalling its agreed conclusions 1995/1 and 2002/1 and its relevant resolutions on the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of major United Nations conferences and summits,

“Recalling also General Assembly resolutions 50/227 of 24 May 1996, 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 and 57/270 B of 23 June 2003,

“Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the role of the Economic and Social Council in the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits,

“1. Underlines the unique opportunity provided by the High-level Plenary Meeting of the General Assembly in September 2005 to advance the implementation of all the commitments made in the Millennium Declaration and in the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits;

“2. Takes note with appreciation of the contributions of the functional commissions, the regional commissions and other relevant subsidiary bodies to the preparation of the input of the Economic and Social Council to the High-level Plenary Meeting of the General Assembly;

“3. Underlines the urgency of the completion of the multi-year work programme of the coordination segment of the Economic and Social Council, which will enable the Council and the functional commissions to introduce thematic coherence and predictability into their programmes of work and periodically undertake comprehensive reviews of the implementation of the outcomes of specific conferences or of progress on a common theme;

“4. Welcomes the progress made in the review of the working methods of several functional commissions, and invites those functional commissions and other relevant subsidiary bodies that have not done so to complete the examination of their methods of work in order to effectively pursue the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the Millennium Declaration and in the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits;

“5. Recognizes that progress has been made in several areas to enhance cooperation among the functional commissions and between the functional commissions and the funds and programmes, and invites the functional commissions to continue to work towards further strengthening this cooperation, including through the exchange of experiences with the aim of contributing to the quality and impact of intergovernmental decisions;

“6. Invites the functional commissions to clearly identify the implications of their work on operational activities and to bring those implications to the attention of the governing bodies of the funds and programmes for their consideration and guidance on operational activities in order to strengthen the link between policy guidance and operational activities;

“7. Decides to further strengthen its linkages with the United Nations regional commissions, including through the contribution of the commissions to the preparation of reports on implementation reviews;

“8. Invites the United Nations regional commissions to continue to develop closer links among themselves through knowledge sharing and to enhance cooperation with the United Nations funds and programmes in order to ensure coherence in their work at the regional level;

“9. Recognizes the importance of an efficient reporting system in order to make better use of the information provided to the Economic and Social Council and to allow the Council to exercise its coordinating and policy guidance role, and encourages subsidiary bodies to adhere to the guidelines for documentation adopted by the General Assembly and the Council;

“10. Decides to continue to promote integrated and coordinated implementation of the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the Millennium Declaration and in the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences and summits;

“11. Stresses the important contribution of civil society in the implementation of conference outcomes, and emphasizes that the contribution of non-governmental organizations and the private sector to the work of the Economic and Social Council should be further encouraged and improved, in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Council;

“12. Decides to continue to take necessary steps for the effective implementation of the provisions of General Assembly resolutions 50/227, 52/12 B and 57/270 B, which are relevant to the work of the Economic and Social Council and its subsidiary machinery;

“13. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the role of the Economic and Social Council in the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 50/227, 52/12 B and 57/270 B for consideration by the Council at its substantive session in 2006.”

7. At its 40th meeting, on 27 July, the Council had before it a draft resolution submitted by the Vice-President of the Council, Agim Nesho (Albania), on the basis of informal consultations, entitled “Role of the Economic and Social Council in the integrated and coordinated implementation of the outcomes of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits” (E/2005/L.43).

8. At the same meeting, the Council adopted draft resolution E/2005/L.43. See Council resolution 2005/48.

9. In the light of the adoption of draft resolution E/2005/L.43, draft resolution E/2005/L.31 was withdrawn by its sponsors.

1. Follow-up to the International Conference on Financing for Development

Action taken by the Council

10. Under agenda item 6 (a), the Council adopted decision 2005/224.

Documents considered by the Council in connection with item 6 (a)

11. At its 31st meeting, on 19 July, the Council, on the proposal of the Vice-President of the Council, Agim Nesho (Albania), took note of the following documents:

(a) Note by the Secretary-General on coherence, coordination and cooperation in the context of the implementation of the Monterrey Consensus: achieving the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the Millennium Declaration (E/2005/50);

(b) Summary by the President of the Economic and Social Council of the special high-level meeting of the Council with the Bretton Woods institutions, the World Trade Organization and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (New York, 18 April 2005) (A/59/823-E/2005/69).

See Council decision 2005/224.

2. Review and coordination of the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010

Action taken by the Council

12. Under agenda item 6 (b), the Council adopted draft resolution 2005/44.

Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010

13. At the 33rd meeting, on 20 July, the representative of Jamaica, on behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China, introduced a draft resolution entitled “Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010” (E/2005/L.28), which read as follows:

“The Economic and Social Council,

“Recalling the Brussels Declaration and the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010,

“Recalling also its decision 2001/320 of 24 October 2001, in which it decided to establish, under the regular agenda item entitled ‘Integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the major United Nations conferences and summits’, a regular sub-item entitled ‘Review and coordination of the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010’,

“Recalling further its resolution 2003/17 of 22 July 2003 and its decision 2003/287 of 24 July 2003, as well as the ministerial declaration of the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2004 on the theme ‘Resources mobilization and enabling environment for poverty eradication in the context of the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010’,

“Recalling paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 59/244, in which the Assembly decided to hold the comprehensive review of the Programme of Action in 2006 within the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, in accordance with paragraph 114 of the Programme of Action, and paragraph 6 of the same resolution, in which the General Assembly decided to consider at its sixtieth session the modalities for conducting such a comprehensive review,

“1. Takes note of the annual progress report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010;

“2. Expresses its deep concern over the weak implementation of the Programme of Action;

“3. Urges the least developed countries and their bilateral and multilateral development partners to undertake increased efforts and to adopt speedy measures with a view to creating an overall enabling environment for the implementation of the Programme of Action and to meeting its goals and targets in a timely manner;

“4. Urges the least developed countries that have not yet done so to develop, adopt and implement national development strategies to achieve the goals and targets of the Programme of Action;

“5. Requests the development partners to assist the least developed countries in the development and implementation of their national development strategies based on the goals and targets of the Programme of Action;

“6. Calls upon developed countries that have not yet done so to expeditiously fulfil their commitment of 0.15-0.20 per cent of their gross national income as an official development assistance target to the least developed countries and urges all development partners to align their support with the national development strategies of the least developed countries aimed at achieving the goals and targets as contained in the Programme of Action;

“7. Requests development partners, including the United Nations system, to provide assistance to national statistical bodies of the least developed countries in order to strengthen monitoring and reporting on the implementation of the Programme of Action;

“8. Calls on the least developed countries, in preparation for the comprehensive review in 2006 by the General Assembly at its sixty-first session, to undertake their national reviews on the implementation of the Programme of Action, with a particular focus on progress, obstacles, constraints, actions and measures necessary to further the implementation of the Programme of Action;

“9. Requests United Nations resident coordinators to assist the least developed countries in undertaking their national reviews, in preparation for the comprehensive review of the implementation of the Programme of Action by the Assembly at its sixty-first session;

“10. Requests the regional commissions to assist the least developed countries in undertaking regional reviews of the implementation of the Programme of Action in their respective regions, in preparation for the comprehensive review in 2006 by the Assembly at its sixty-first session;

“11. Encourages the United Nations system and other international organizations to undertake, in preparation for the comprehensive review in 2006 by the Assembly at its sixty-first session, sectoral reviews of the implementation of the Programme of Action by their governing bodies;

“12. Requests the Secretary-General to include least developed countries issues in all relevant reports in the economic, social and related fields, particularly those that analyse global development trends, such as the World Economic Situation and Prospects to ensure the follow-up of their development in a broader context;

“13. Reiterates the critical importance of the participation of Government representatives from the least developed countries in the annual review of the Programme of Action by the Economic and Social Council, underlines in that regard the low representation so far of least developed countries delegations, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure predictable funds for the travel and daily subsistence allowance of two representatives from each least developed country to attend the annual review of the Programme of Action;

“14. Emphasizes the importance of coordinating action within the United Nations system for the implementation of the Programme of Action, and calls on the Secretary-General to continue to provide the Office of the United Nations High Representative for the Least Developed Countries, Landlocked

Developing Countries and Small Island Developing States with adequate resources for indicator-based and results-oriented reporting;

“15. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a results-oriented annual progress report on the implementation of the Programme of Action in a more analytical and results-oriented way, by placing greater emphasis on the progress achieved by the least developed countries and their development partners.”

14. At its 40th meeting, on 27 July, the Council had before it a draft resolution submitted by the Vice-President of the Council, Agim Nesho (Albania), on the basis of informal consultations, entitled “Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Least Developed Countries for the Decade 2001-2010” (E/2005/L.46).

15. At the same meeting, the Secretary of the Council read out a statement of programme budget implications in connection with the draft resolution (see E/2005/SR.40).

16. At the same meeting, the representative of the United States orally amended the text of the draft resolution, as follows:

(a) In operative paragraph 5, the “Requests” was changed to “Calls upon”;

(b) In operative paragraph 14, the word “greater” was deleted.

17. At the same meeting, the Council adopted draft resolution E/2005/L.46, as orally amended. See Council resolution 2005/44.

18. Also at the same meeting, in the light of the adoption of draft resolution E/2005/46, draft resolution E/2005/L.28 was withdrawn by its sponsors and the corresponding statement on programme budget implications, submitted by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 31 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council (E/2005/L.39), was also withdrawn.

Operational activities segment of the substantive session of 2005 of the Economic and Social Council

9. At its 2nd meeting, on 4 February, the Council decided that the work of the operational activities segment of its substantive session of 2005 would be devoted to the progress on and implementation of General Assembly resolution 59/250 of 22 December 2004 on the triennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system. See Council decision 2005/205.

Theme for the regional cooperation item of the substantive session of 2005 of the Economic and Social Council

10. At its 2nd meeting, the Council decided that the theme for the item on regional cooperation at its substantive session of 2005 would be: "Achievement of the internationally agreed development goals, including those contained in the United Nations Millennium Declaration: a regional perspective". See Council decision 2005/206.

Applications for consultative status and requests for reclassification received from non-governmental organizations

11. At its 2nd meeting, the Council decided to grant consultative status with the Council to 87 non-governmental organizations. See Council decision 2005/207.

Matters pertaining to reinstatement of the consultative status of non-governmental organizations in cases where consultative status was suspended by the Economic and Social Council

12. At its 2nd meeting, the Council decided to request the Asociación para la Paz Continental, a non-governmental organization suspended in 2000 from its consultative status with the Council, to submit an updated application for consultative status, which the Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations would examine at a future session. See Council decision 2005/208.

Organization of work of the Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations for its 2005 regular session

13. At its 2nd meeting, the Council decided that the two days not used by the Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations at its 2005 regular session would be added to its two-week resumed session to be held in May 2005, on the understanding that conference services for those two days would be provided on an as-available basis. See Council decision 2005/209.

Working arrangements for the substantive session of 2005 of the Economic and Social Council

14. At its 3rd meeting, on 1 March, the Council decided on the following working arrangements for its substantive session of 2005:

- (a) Substantive segments:
  - (i) The high-level segment would be held from 29 June to 1 July 2005;
  - (ii) The coordination segment would be held from 5 to 7 July 2005;
  - (iii) The operational activities segment would be held from 8 to 12 July 2005;
  - (iv) The humanitarian affairs segment would be held from 13 to 18 July 2005;
  - (v) The general segment would be held from 18 to 25 July 2005;
  - (vi) The Council would conclude its work on 26 and 27 July 2005;

(b) Dialogue with the Executive Secretaries of the regional commissions: the dialogue with the Executive Secretaries of the regional commissions would be held immediately after the high-level segment of the substantive session of the Council, on the morning of 5 July 2005;

(c) Issue of transition from relief to development: the Council would consider holding an event to discuss the issue of transition from relief to development and would hold further consultations in that regard, including on the possible format and modalities of such an event.<sup>1</sup>

See Council decision 2005/210.

Date of the special high-level meeting of the Economic and Social Council with the Bretton Woods institutions, the World Trade Organization and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development

15. At its 3rd meeting, on 1 March, the Council decided that the special high-level meeting with the Bretton Woods institutions, the World Trade Organization and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development would be held at Headquarters on 18 April 2005. See Council decision 2005/211.

Theme for the humanitarian affairs segment of the substantive session of 2005 of the Economic and Social Council

16. At its 4th meeting, on 31 March, the Council decided:

(a) That the theme for the humanitarian affairs segment of its substantive session of 2005 would be “Strengthening of the coordination of the United Nations humanitarian assistance, including capacity as well as organizational aspects”;

(b) That it would also convene a panel on the theme “Lessons learned from the recent earthquake/tsunami Indian Ocean disaster”.

See Council decision 2005/212.

Improvement of the work of the Commission on Population and Development

17. At its 4th meeting, on 31 March, the Council, in order to improve the work of the Commission on Population and Development, decided:

(a) With effect from the thirty-eighth regular session of the Commission, to be held from 4 to 8 April 2005, that, immediately following the closure of each regular session, the Commission would hold the first meeting of its subsequent regular session for the sole purpose of electing a new Chairman and other members of the Bureau, in accordance with rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Council;

(b) That the terms of office of the members of the Commission would be for four regular sessions of the Commission, to begin immediately after the conclusion of the Commission's regular session held after 1 January, following their election by the Council, and to end at the conclusion of the regular session held after 1 January, following the election of the States that were to succeed them as members of the Commission, unless they were re-elected;

(c) To extend to the conclusion of the thirty-ninth regular session of the Commission the terms of office of members of the Commission that were to expire on 31 December 2005; to extend to the conclusion of the fortieth regular session of the Commission the terms of office of members of the Commission that were to expire on 31 December 2006; to extend to the conclusion of the forty-first regular session of the Commission the terms of office of members of the Commission that were to expire on 31 December 2007; and to extend to the conclusion of the forty-second regular session of the Commission the terms of office of members of the Commission that were to expire on 31 December 2008;

(d) That the pertinent provisions of General Assembly resolution 1798 (XVII) of 11 December 1962 would apply only to the substantive part of the session of the Commission.

See Council decision 2005/213.

Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Burundi

18. At its 3rd meeting, on 1 March, the Council decided to consider the reports of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Burundi at its substantive session of 2005 and requested that the report of the Group to that session describe, inter alia, how the Group had fulfilled its mandate. See Council resolution 2005/1. Subsequently, at its substantive session, in its resolution 2005/33, the Council decided that the work of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Burundi would be reviewed at the substantive session of 2006, with a view to considering whether to continue the mandate of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group based on the Council's consideration of the report of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group, which should be submitted no later than six weeks before the start of the substantive session of 2006 (see above, chap. VII, paras. 54-57).

Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Guinea-Bissau

19. At its 3rd meeting, on 1 March, the Council decided to extend the mandate of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Guinea-Bissau until the substantive session of 2005 and requested that, in its report to the Council at that session, the Group describe how it had fulfilled its mandate. The Council also decided to consider the reports of the Advisory Group at its substantive session of 2005. See Council resolution 2005/2. Subsequently, at its substantive session, in its resolution 2005/32, the Council decided, in the light of the current situation in Guinea-Bissau, to extend the mandate of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group until the substantive session of 2006, with the understanding that the decision on whether to renew its mandate would be based on the Council's consideration of the report of the Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Guinea-Bissau, which should be submitted no later than six weeks before the start of the substantive session of 2006, and of the situation prevailing in Guinea-Bissau at that time (see above, chap. VII, paras. 58-61).

Public administration and development

20. At its 4th meeting, on 31 March, the Council requested the Secretary-General to focus the work of the Organization on public administration according to the recommendations contained in its decision 2004/302 of 23 July 2004, General Assembly resolution 58/231 of 23 December 2003 and the report of the Committee of Experts on Public Administration on its third session, in particular those aimed at strengthening the human capital in the public sector, facilitating access to information and best practices, promoting good governance and accountability in public administration, at the national and international levels, and strengthening public administration institutions in developing countries, in particular the least developed countries, and encouraged the Secretary-General to continue his consultations with Member States on a regular basis on the nomination of members of the Committee, keeping in mind Council resolution 2001/45 and its annex. The Council also encouraged the United Nations system and Member States to celebrate United Nations Public Service Day in a more visible manner, and invited Member States to nominate candidates for the United Nations Public Service Awards. See Council resolution 2005/3.

B. Resumed organizational session

Agenda

21. At its 8th meeting, on 28 April, the Council had before it the agenda of its resumed organizational session (E/2005/2 and Add.1 and Add.1/Corr.1).

Action taken by the Council

22. At its resumed organizational session for 2005, the Council adopted six decisions concerning organizational matters. See Council decisions 2005/214 to 2005/219.

Implementation of resolutions concerning the participation of associate member countries of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean in the follow-up to United Nations world conferences and in the work of the Economic and Social Council

23. At its 8th meeting, on 28 April, the Council decided to defer to its substantive session of 2005, under agenda item 10, "Regional cooperation", its consideration of draft resolution III, entitled, "Implementation of resolutions concerning the participation of associate member countries of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean in the follow-up to United Nations world conferences and in the work of the Economic and Social Council".<sup>2</sup> See Council decision 2005/214. Subsequently, at the substantive session, by its decision 2005/302, the Council decided to note receipt of the resolution and not to take action on the matter (see above, chap. VII, para. 90).

Participation of intergovernmental organizations in the work of the Economic and Social Council

24. At its 8th meeting, on 28 April, the Council decided to include in the agenda of its substantive session of 2005, for its consideration, the request of the Global Water Partnership Organization to participate as an observer in the work of the Council. See Council decision 2005/215. Subsequently, at its substantive session, the Council approved the application of the Global Water Partnership Organization to participate in the work of the Council, in accordance with rule 79 of its rules of procedure. See Council decision 2005/233.

Economic and Social Council event to consider the issue of the transition from relief to development

25. At its 8th meeting, on 28 April, the Council decided to hold an event on the morning of Wednesday, 13 July 2005, entitled “Economic and Social Council event to consider the issue of the transition from relief to development”, on an informal basis, as follows:

- (a) A brief presentation would be followed by interactive discussions with interested delegations;
- (b) There would be a Chairperson’s summary but no negotiated outcome document;
- (c) A brief reference to the event would be included in the report of the Economic and Social Council; and accordingly decided that the operational activities segment would conclude its work on the afternoon of 12 July 2005 and the humanitarian segment would begin its work on the afternoon of 13 July 2005. See Council decision 2005/216.

Reform proposed by the Secretary-General in the area of human rights

26. At its 9th meeting, on 9 June, the Council:

- (a) Bearing in mind General Assembly resolutions 59/145 of 17 December 2004 and 59/291 of 15 April 2005, in which the Assembly, inter alia, requested the President of the General Assembly to continue to hold open, inclusive and transparent consultations with all Member States with a view to reaching the broadest possible agreement on all major issues relating to the High-level Plenary Meeting of the General Assembly to be held in September 2005, and also taking note of Commission on Human Rights decision 2005/116 of 22 April 2005, decided to request the Chairperson of the Commission on Human Rights to organize, at the Commission’s sixty-first session, an open-ended informal consultation of up to two days to reflect on the recommendations on human rights contained in the report of the Secretary-General entitled “In larger freedom: towards development, security and human rights for all”<sup>3</sup> with a view to contributing to the intergovernmental deliberations to be held in the Assembly on the proposed reform of the United Nations;

(b) To that end also decided to authorize the Chairperson to prepare a summary of the informal consultation by 15 June 2005 to be transmitted to the President of the General Assembly through the President of the Economic and Social Council (A/59/847-E/2005/73).

See Council decision 2005/217.

Multi-year work programme for the coordination segment of the Economic and Social Council

27. At its 9th meeting, on 9 June, the Council decided to defer to the coordination segment of its substantive session of 2005 its consideration of the multi-year work programme for the coordination segment of the Council. See Council decision 2005/218. Subsequently, at its substantive session, the Council adopted the theme for the coordination segment of its substantive session of 2006 and the multi-year programme for the coordination segment. See Council decision 2005/221.

Participation of intergovernmental organizations in the work of the Council

28. At its 9th meeting, on 9 June, the Council decided to include in the agenda of its substantive session of 2005, for its consideration, the request of the Union économique et monétaire ouest africaine to participate as an observer in the work of the Council. See Council decision 2005/219. Subsequently, at its substantive session, the Council approved the application of the Union économique et monétaire ouest africaine to participate in the work of the Council, in accordance with rule 79 of its rules of procedure. See Council decision 2005/233.

C. Substantive session

Action taken by the Council

29. At its substantive session of 2005, the Council adopted four decisions concerning organizational matters. See Council decisions 2005/220, 2005/221, 2005/233 and 2005/300.

Agenda

30. At its 10th meeting, on 29 June, the Council considered the agenda and organization of work of its substantive session of 2005. It had before it the following documents:

(a) Annotated provisional agenda for the substantive session of 2005 (E/2005/100);

(b) Proposed programme of work for the substantive session of 2005 (E/2005/L.9);

(c) Note by the Secretariat on the status of documentation for the session (E/2005/L.10);

(d) Updated status of documentation for the substantive session of the Economic and Social Council for 2005 (CRP.2).

31. At the same meeting, the Council adopted the agenda for its substantive session of 2005 (see annex I) and approved the programme of work of the session. See Council decision 2005/220.

Requests from non-governmental organization for hearings

32. At its 10th meeting, the Council approved the requests made by non-governmental organizations to be heard by the Council (see E/2005/76) at its substantive session of 2005, in connection with the items on the Council's agenda for that session. See Council decision 2005/220.

Theme for the coordination segment of the substantive session of 2006 of the Economic and Social Council and multi-year work programme for the coordination segment

33. At its 17th meeting, on 6 July 2005, the Council:

(a) Decided to adopt the following theme for the coordination segment of its substantive session of 2006:

“Sustained economic growth for social development, including the eradication of poverty and hunger”;

(b) Also decided that the establishment and implementation of a multi-year work programme for the coordination segment of its substantive session would be guided by the following considerations:

(i) The role and functions of the coordination segment as identified in General Assembly resolution 45/264 of 13 May 1991, namely, the coordination of the activities of the specialized agencies, organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system in the economic, social and related fields, in accordance with Articles 63 and 64 of the Charter of the United Nations;

(ii) That the multi-year work programme for the coordination segment should contribute to the integrated and coordinated implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of the major United Nations conferences in the economic, social and related fields, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 50/227 of 24 May 1996 and 57/270 B of 23 June 2003;

(c) Further decided to continue consultations on a multi-year work programme for the coordination segment, with a view to finalizing the work programme before the beginning of the substantive session of 2006 of the Economic and Social Council.

See Council decision 2005/221.

Participation of intergovernmental organizations in the work of the Economic and Social Council

34. At its 34th meeting, on 21 July, the Council decided to grant observer status with the Council to two intergovernmental organizations: Global Water partnership (see E/2005/49) and Union économique et monétaire ouest africaine (see E/2005/64). See Council decision 233. See also Council decisions 2005/215 and 2005/219 adopted at the resumed organizational session (see sect. B, paras. 24 and 28 above).

Theme for the 2006 high-level segment of the Economic and Social Council

35. At its 40th meeting, on 27 July, the Council decided to defer consideration of the theme for the 2006 high-level segment to a later date. See Council decision 2005/300.

Annex IV

Economic and Social Council event to consider the issue of transition from relief to development

At its 8th meeting, on 28 April 2005, at its resumed organizational session, the Economic and Social Council adopted decision E/2005/216, in which it outlined the modalities of an informal event to consider the issue of transition from relief to development (see E/2005/SR.8). Pursuant to that decision, the Council held the informal event on 13 July 2005, during its substantive session, and heard a brief presentation, followed by an interactive debate. The event was summarized by the Vice-President of the Council, Johan Verbeke (Belgium).
