Gravely concerned over the aggression by the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan which has resulted in the occupation of about 20 percent of the territories of Azerbaijan;

Expressing its profound concern over continued occupation of significant part of the territories of Azerbaijan and illegal transfer of settlers at the Armenian nationality to those territories;

Deeply distressed over the plight of more than one million Azerbaijani displaced persons and refugees resulting from the Armenian aggression and over magnitude and severity of these humanitarian problems;

Reaffirming all previous relevant resolutions and, in particular, the Resolution No. 21/10-P(IS), adopted by the Tenth Session at the Islamic Summit Conference held in Putrajaya, from 20 to 21 Shaban, 1424H (16-17 October 2003);

Urging strict adherence to the Charter of the UN and full implementation of the relevant Security Council resolutions;

Welcoming all diplomatic and other efforts for the settlement of the conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan;

Reaffirming commitment by all Member States to respect the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence at the Republic of Azerbaijan;

Noting also the destructive influence of the policy of aggression of the Republic of Armenia on the peace process within the OSCE framework;

Taking note of the Report of the Secretary General (Document No. OICIICFM-34/POLISG-REP.6).

1. Strongly condemns the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan.
2. Considers the actions perpetrated against civilian Azerbaijani population in the occupied Azerbaijani territories as crimes against humanity.

3. Strongly condemns any looting and destruction of the archeological, cultural and religious monuments in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan.
4. Strongly demands the strict implementation of the United Nations Security Council resolutions 822, 853, 874 and 884, and the immediate, unconditional and complete withdrawal of Armenian forces from all occupied Azerbaijani territories including the Nagorno-Karabakh region and strongly urges Armenia to respect the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan.
5. Expresses its concern that Armenia has not yet implemented demands contained in the above stated UN Security Council resolutions.
6. Calls on the UN Security Council to recognize the existence of aggression against the Republic of Azerbaijan; to take the necessary steps under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations to ensure compliance with its resolutions; to condemn and reverse aggression against the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and decides to take coordinated action to this end at the United Nations.
7. Urges all States to refrain from providing any supplies of arms and military equipment to Armenia, in order to deprive the aggressor of any opportunity to escalate the conflict and to continue the occupation of the Azerbaijani territories. The territories of the Member States should not be used for transit of such supplies.

23. Requests the Secretary-General to follow up the implementation of this resolution and to report thereon to the Thirty-fifth Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers.

Annex II to the letter dated 7 June 2007 from the Permanent Representative of Azerbaijan to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Report of the Secretary-General of the Organization of the Islamic Conference on the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan

1. This report covers the activities of the OIC that took place from July 2006 to March 2007 regarding the Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict.
2. Almost 20 years after the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan, the Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict remains unresolved and 20% of the territory of Azerbaijan, including the Nagorno-Karabakh region and seven other regions of Azerbaijan continue to be under occupation, despite the various efforts and negotiations that have taken place.
3. The ongoing Armenian aggression against the Republic of Azerbaijan since 1988 has resulted in violent displacement of more than one million Azerbaijanis from their homes. This situation has caused a large-scale humanitarian crisis.

The OIC's Condemnation:

4. The OIC, through its various Resolutions, has condemned the Armenian aggression and continued occupation of the Azerbaijani territories by Armenia.
5. The OIC Resolutions urged Armenia to comply with the UN Security Council Resolutions No.822, 853, 874 and 884 of 1993. The latest of the OIC Resolution was No. 12/10-P(IS) adopted by the Tenth Summit held in Putrajaya, Malaysia, October 2003 and 9/33-P adopted by the 33rd ICFM, held in Baku, Azerbaijan, June 2006. Both Resolutions demanded the immediate, unconditional and complete withdrawal of Armenian forces from all occupied territories of Azerbaijan.
6. On the incidents of massive fires that took place in the eastern part of the occupied territories of Azerbaijan in 2006 where a number of towns, villages, agricultural lands, cultural and historical monuments existing flora and fauna had been destroyed or burnt, the OIC demanded from Armenia as the occupying power to take urgent measures to prevent ecological disaster. The fires have made those territories unsuitable for living and cultivating, and inflicted damage to the ecological system of those occupied territories and other neighboring areas of Azerbaijan.
7. With regard to the so-called "parliamentary elections" held by the Armenian side on the occupied territories of Azerbaijan in December 2006, the OIC condemned these elections as illegal stating that this was against international law and in particular the provisions of the 1949 Geneva Convention.

Cooperation with UN and OSCE:

8. The OIC, in cooperation with the United Nations and the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), will continue to support the process of finding a peaceful solution of the conflict. In this context, I supported the talks between the Foreign Ministers of Azerbaijan and Armenia, which have taken place within the recent years.

OIC Delegation visited IDPs and Refugees:

9. Upon the invitation of the Government of the Republic of Azerbaijan, in September 2006 the OIC delegation visited the temporary settlements for refugees and IDPs in Narimanov, Binagadi, Saatly, Imishi and Bilasuvar districts of Azerbaijan. The mission has identified that despite commendable efforts of the Government of Azerbaijan these refugees and IDPs are living under difficult conditions and this grave situation requires constant and focused attention of the international community. Only 6 Islamic Organizations are among humanitarian agencies presently providing assistance to these refugees and IDPs.

Appeal to render assistance to refugees and IDPs:

10. In view of the importance to assist the IDPs and refugees in Azerbaijan, I have requested all Member States, IDB, Islamic Solidarity Fund (ISP) and international community, as well as the humanitarian organizations to generously assist these refugees and IDPs, suffering from the severe consequences of the conflict. To this end I also recommend to consider establishing an OIC Trust Fund for assistance to IDPs and refugees in Azerbaijan.

Member States' strong support:

11. On the issue of the aggression of the Republic of Armenia against the Republic of Azerbaijan I appeal to the OIC Member States to exert their utmost effort to support the settlement process of the Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict on the basis of norms and principles of international law, as well as in conformity with the relevant UN Security Council Resolutions, and to continue extending the strong political support, in particular in the international organizations, to the Government of Azerbaijan on the issue of full restoration of its territorial integrity and sovereignty.

12. This report is submitted to the 34th Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers for appropriate decision.
