Ireland (2013), United States of America (2010), Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of) (2010) and Zimbabwe (2010).

2. States not members of the Commission and international governmental organizations may attend the session as observers and participate in the deliberations. In addition, invited international non-governmental organizations may attend the session as observers and represent the views of their organizations on matters where the organization concerned has expertise or international experience so as to facilitate the deliberations at the session.

III. Annotations to agenda items

Item 1. Opening of the session and scheduling of meetings

3. The fourteenth session of the Working Group will be held at the Vienna International Centre from 20 to 24 October 2008. Meeting hours will be from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. and from 2.30 to 5.30 p.m., except on Monday, 20 October 2008, when the session will be opened at 10 a.m. There will be five working days available for consideration of the agenda items at the session. The Working Group may wish to note that, consistent with decisions taken by the Commission at its thirty-fourth session,<sup>1</sup> the Working Group is expected to hold substantive deliberations during the first nine half-day meetings (that is from Monday to Friday morning), with a draft report on the entire period being presented for adoption at the tenth and last meeting of the Working Group (on Friday afternoon).

Item 2. Election of officers

4. In accordance with its practice at previous sessions, the Working Group may wish to elect a Chairman and a Rapporteur.

Item 4. Security interests in intellectual property

(a) Background information

5. At its thirty-ninth session, in 2006, the Commission considered its future work on secured financing law. It was noted that intellectual property rights (e.g. copyrights, patents and trademarks) were increasingly becoming an extremely important source of credit and should not be excluded from a modern secured transactions law. In addition, it was noted that the recommendations of the draft Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions (“the draft Guide”) generally applied to security rights in intellectual property to the extent that they were not inconsistent with intellectual property law. Moreover, it was noted that, as the recommendations had not been prepared with the special intellectual property law issues in mind, the draft Guide suggested that enacting States might consider making any necessary adjustments to the recommendations to address those issues.<sup>2</sup>

6. In order to provide more guidance to States, the suggestion was made that the Secretariat should prepare, in cooperation with international organizations with expertise in the fields of secured financing and intellectual property law and in particular the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), a note for submission to the Commission at its fortieth session, in 2007, discussing the possible scope of work that could be undertaken by the Commission as a supplement to the draft Guide. In addition, it was suggested that, in order to obtain expert advice and the input of the relevant industry, the Secretariat should organize expert group meetings and colloquiums as necessary.<sup>3</sup> After discussion, the Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare, in cooperation with relevant organizations and in particular WIPO, a note discussing the scope of future work by the Commission on intellectual property financing. The Commission also requested the Secretariat to organize a colloquium on intellectual property financing ensuring to the maximum extent possible the participation of relevant international organizations and experts from various regions of the world.<sup>4</sup>

7. Pursuant to the decision of the Commission, the Secretariat organized in cooperation with WIPO a colloquium on security rights in intellectual property rights (Vienna, 18 and 19 January 2007). The colloquium was attended by experts on secured financing and intellectual property law, including representatives of Governments and national and international, governmental and non-governmental organizations. At the colloquium, several suggestions were made with respect to adjustments that would need to be made to the draft Guide to address issues specific to intellectual property financing.<sup>5</sup>

8. At the first part of its fortieth session (Vienna, 25 June-12 July 2007), the Commission considered a note by the Secretariat entitled "Possible future work on security rights in intellectual property" (A/CN.9/632). The note took into account the conclusions reached at the colloquium on security rights in intellectual property rights. In order to provide sufficient guidance to States as to the adjustments that they might need to make in their laws to avoid inconsistencies between secured financing and intellectual property law, the Commission decided to entrust Working Group VI (Security Interests) with the preparation of an annex to the draft Guide specific to security rights in intellectual property rights.<sup>6</sup>

9. At its resumed fortieth session (Vienna, 10-14 December 2007), the Commission finalized and adopted the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions ("the Guide") on the understanding that an annex to the Guide specific to security rights in intellectual property rights would subsequently be prepared.<sup>7</sup>

10. At its thirteenth session (New York, 19-23 May 2008), the Working Group considered a note by the Secretariat entitled "Security rights in intellectual property rights" (A/CN.9/WG.VI/WP.33 and Add.1). At that session, the Working Group requested the Secretariat to prepare a draft of the annex to the Guide on security rights in intellectual property rights reflecting the deliberations and decisions of the Working Group (see A/CN.9/649, para. 13). As the Working Group was not able to reach agreement as to whether certain matters related to the impact of insolvency on a security right in intellectual property (see A/CN.9/649, paras. 98-102) were sufficiently linked with secured transactions law so as to justify their discussion in the Annex to the Guide, it decided to revisit those matters at a future meeting and to recommend that Working Group V (Insolvency Law) be requested to consider those matters (see A/CN.9/649, para. 103).

11. At its forty-first session (New York, 16 June-3 July 2008), the Commission noted with satisfaction the good progress achieved by the Working Group. The Commission also noted the decision of the Working Group with respect to certain matters related to the impact of insolvency on a security right in intellectual property and decided that Working Group V should be informed and invited to express any preliminary opinion at its next session. It was also decided that, should any remaining issue require joint consideration by the two working groups after that session, the Secretariat should have discretion to organize a joint discussion of the impact of insolvency on a security right in intellectual property when the two Working Groups meet back to back in the Spring of 2009.<sup>8</sup>

(b) Documentation for the fourteenth session

12. The Working Group will have before it, and may wish to use as a basis of its considerations, a note by the Secretariat entitled: “Draft Annex on security right in intellectual property” (A/CN.9/WG.VI/WP.35 and Addenda). The Guide, which should be available at the session, may be used as background documentation.

13. UNCITRAL documents are posted on the UNCITRAL website (<http://www.uncitral.org>) upon their issuance in all the official languages of the United Nations. Delegates may wish to check the availability of the documents by accessing the Working Group’s page in the “Working Groups” section of the UNCITRAL website.

Item 5. Other business

14. The fifteenth session of the Working Group is scheduled to take place in New York from 25 to 29 May 2009.

Item 6. Adoption of the report

15. The Working Group may wish to adopt, at the close of its session, on Friday, 24 October 2008, a report for submission to the forty-second session of the Commission. The main conclusions reached by the Working Group at its ninth meeting (on Friday morning) will be summarily read out for the record at the tenth meeting (on Friday afternoon) and subsequently incorporated into the report.
