MR. AIDID ABDILLAHI ILKAHANAF (Expert)

(Nominated by the Government of Somalia)

1. At present I am employed as a deputy Chief State Counsel for the Somali Government.

2. The details of my legal education, experience and qualifications (Curriculum Vitae) are as follows:

After passing higher teachers examination in June 1958, I sat for and passed the Law examination for Magistrates and Police Officers of the Ex-Somali-Land Protectorate in January 1960;

From 1960 to 1968 I was a Public Prosecutor (Attorney) at the Regional Courts and the Court of Appeal;

In October 1968, I was admitted to Lincolns Inn, and started my studies in the same month at the Inns of Courts School of Law for Barristers in England (United Kingdom). My studies were sponsored by the United Nations. In July 1971 I was called to the Bar and awarded the Degree of Barrister-at-Law;

From September 1971 to April 1972 I did pupillage (a practical training in advocacy) under James Wadsworth of No.4 Paper Building, London, E.C.4. During this period I took practical training both in advocacy and construction of documents, i.e. legislation, drafting of contracts, giving legal opinion, etc.;

In May 1972, I was appointed as legal adviser to the Somalia Police Force, a post previously held by a foreigner;

And in April 1976, in addition to the above I was appointed as Deputy Chief State Counsel for the Somali Government, a post I at present hold.

3. Since my return to Somalia in May 1972, I drafted the following main legislations:

Revision of the Criminal Procedure Code;

The Foreign Investment Law;

The Tenancy Law;

Revision of the Traffic Code;

Law for the Local Governments;

The new Police Law;

The Law for the Custodial Corps;

The Anti-Contraband Law;

Law on essential Articles.

4. I have also advised the Government and gave legal opinion on agreements, conventions and contracts e.g. The construction of Mogadiscio Port Agreement and the Juba Sugar Project Agreement.

5. Apart from being a legal adviser to the Somalia Police, I am also representative to INTERPOL, and in this capacity I have since 1975 been attending all the General Assembly sessions and African Regional Conferences.
