THIRD UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON THE LAW OF THE SEA

Letter dated 29 September 1977 from the President of the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea to the President of the General Assembly

I have the honour to inform you that on 15 July 1977 the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea decided to convene its seventh session at Geneva on 28 March 1978 for a period of seven weeks, with a possible extension to eight weeks should the Conference so decide. The Conference also agreed that members should hold informal meetings between the sixth and seventh sessions and accordingly decided to ask the General Assembly to make the necessary arrangements to enable the Secretary-General to provide appropriate facilities for this purpose.

I should be most grateful if you could ensure that the appropriate action is taken in connexion with these decisions.
