UNITED NATIONS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

Jamaica: draft resolution*

Strengthening of operational activities in the field of industrial development

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2152 (XXI) of 17 November 1966 on the United Nations Industrial Development Organization,

Recalling further resolution 3086 (XXVIII) of 6 December 1973 in which, inter alia, it endorsed the recommendation contained in decision III (VII) of the Industrial Development Board calling for an increase in the number of industrial development field advisers, and resolution 31/162 of 21 December 1976 on the strengthening of operational activities in the field of industrial development,

Bearing in mind the need to strengthen the field presence of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization,

1. Recommends that the number of industrial development field advisers should be substantially increased in order to enable the United Nations Industrial Development Organization to maintain an effective field presence in the developing countries serviced by its operational programmes;

2. Requests the Executive Director to submit to the Secretary-General a review of the status of funding of industrial development field advisers with an indication of the number that would have to be financed from the regular budget of
