6. The Summit was also attended by the following former Heads of State and Government of SADC Member States:

- H.E. Sir Ketumile Masire, former President of the Republic of Botswana;
- H.E. Joaquim Alberto Chissano, former President of the Republic of Mozambique;
- H.E. Dr. Sam Shafishuna Nujoma, Founding President and Father of the Namibian Nation; and
- H.E. Kenneth David Kaunda, Founding President of the Republic of Zambia.

7. The following organizations were represented at the Summit: the African Development Bank, the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa (COMESA), the East African Community (EAC), the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, the Southern African Customs Union and the SADC Parliamentary Forum.

8. His Excellency President Hifikepunye Pohamba of the Republic of Namibia, host of the thirtieth SADC Jubilee Summit, welcomed the SADC Heads of State and Government and all the delegates to the Republic of Namibia. His Excellency thanked the former Heads of State and Government of SADC Member States for their vision and dedication as well as for laying a solid foundation for the development of SADC.

9. The Summit was also addressed by the Chairperson of the African Union, His Excellency Ngwazi Prof. Bingu wa Mutharika, the President of the Republic of Malawi. His Excellency underscored the need for the region to achieve food security as a basis for sustainable economic growth. His Excellency further called on the Southern African leaders to enhance the region's application of science and technology to address issues of climate change, energy and infrastructure development. His Excellency also urged Member States to give attention to safe motherhood programmes, at both country and regional levels, in order to significantly reduce maternal, infant and child mortality by 2015.

10. In his handover statement, the outgoing Chairperson of SADC, His Excellency President Joseph Kabila Kabange paid tribute to, among others, the Founding Fathers of SADC, the Frontline States and the visionary pan-African leaders. He highlighted the achievements recorded by SADC in the last 30 years, which include infrastructure development and the launch of the SADC Free Trade Area.

11. In his acceptance statement, His Excellency President Hifikepunye Pohamba thanked the outgoing Chairperson for the able manner in which he steered SADC during his term of office. His Excellency pledged to further strengthen cooperation among SADC Member States in order to enhance the capacity of the region to address common challenges.

12. The Executive Secretary of SADC, Dr. Tomaz Augusto Salomão, highlighted progress made during the past year in the implementation of the regional development and integration agenda. He noted that the region was still recovering from the global economic crisis and outlined policy measures to enable the region to cushion itself from any future economic crisis.

13. The Summit congratulated the Republic of Angola and the Republic of South Africa for successfully hosting the 2010 Africa Cup of Nations and the FIFA World Cup, respectively.

14. The Summit received a report from the outgoing Chairperson of the Organ on Politics, Defence and Security Cooperation, His Excellency Armando Emílio Guebuza. The Summit noted that the region continues to consolidate democracy, peace and security. In this regard, the Summit noted the peaceful and orderly manner in which the people of Botswana, Mauritius, Mozambique and Namibia exercised their democratic rights as they voted in the presidential and parliamentary elections held in their respective countries. The Summit noted that these electoral processes were regarded as free, fair, transparent and credible.

15. The Summit noted the efforts being made in the search for sustainable political solutions in the Kingdom of Lesotho, the Republic of Madagascar and the Republic of Zimbabwe.

16. On the Kingdom of Lesotho, the Summit commended the stakeholders for their commitment to the post-electoral dialogue, the role of the Christian Council of Lesotho and the SADC Facilitation Team in mediating the Lesotho post-election dialogue. The Summit also urged the Lesotho stakeholders to work together towards the finalization of the Bill Amending the Electoral Law as a matter of urgency.

17. On Madagascar, the Summit commended His Excellency President Joaquim Chissano, SADC Mediator in the Madagascar dialogue, for his efforts to restore constitutional normalcy in the country. The Summit approved the following:

- SADC, the African Union and the wider international community should lend their political, technical, material and financial support to the process of Malgacho-Malgache dialogue;
- the SADC Mediator should continue to closely follow the situation, offer his support and facilitation to the Malagasy as appropriate, and report regularly to SADC and the African Union on developments in Madagascar;
- the need for the dialogue process to observe the key principles of neutrality, consensus, credibility and inclusiveness;
- establishment of a SADC liaison office in Madagascar in order to support the dialogue process in the country; and
- continuation of the sanctions on the Republic of Madagascar until the country returns to constitutional normalcy.

18. On Zimbabwe, the Summit:

- commended His Excellency Jacob Zuma, President of the Republic of South Africa and Facilitator of the Zimbabwe Political Dialogue, for facilitating the implementation of the Global Political Agreement (GPA).
- commended the Zimbabwe stakeholders for their efforts towards implementation of the GPA;
- urged the Zimbabwe stakeholders to remain committed to the implementation of the GPA;
- reiterated its call on the international community to lift all forms of sanctions imposed on Zimbabwe in view of the negative effects they have on Zimbabwe and the SADC region in general; and
- mandated the Chairperson of SADC, assisted by the Chairperson of the Organ and the Facilitator of the Zimbabwe Political Dialogue, to engage the international community on the issue of sanctions on Zimbabwe.

19. The Summit noted the economic and security threat posed by piracy in the coastal waters of SADC Member States, especially Seychelles, Mauritius and the United Republic of Tanzania. The Summit mandated the Secretariat to send a team of technical experts to establish the extent of the problem and recommend appropriate measures.

20. The Summit received a report from the Ministerial Task Force on Regional Economic Integration, and noted that the Task Force had adopted a comprehensive work programme with concrete actions and timelines aimed at consolidating the SADC Free Trade Area.

21. The Summit reaffirmed the commitment to establish a SADC Customs Union and endorsed the decision of the Task Force to appoint a high-level expert group. The main mandate of this group will be to consolidate and refine the technical work so far done in order to reach agreement and common understanding on the parameters, benchmarks, timelines, a model customs union and its implementation modalities. A report will be submitted to the Task Force before December 2011.

22. The Summit noted the preparations towards establishing the COMESA-EAC-SADC Tripartite Free Trade Area. The Summit also noted that SADC will host the next Tripartite Council and Summit. To this end, the Summit mandated the Chairperson of Council and the Executive Secretary to consult with Member States regarding the dates and venue of the Tripartite Council and Summit meetings.

23. The Summit reviewed progress on the socio-economic situation in the region, with particular focus on the impact of the global economic crisis on the region, food security, climate change, HIV and AIDS and gender and development.

24. The Summit noted the adverse socio-economic effects of the global economic crisis on the region and underscored the need to take into account various factors and players, such as the emerging economies and business community, in formulating remedial measures. In this regard, the Summit mandated the SADC Secretariat, in collaboration with the Chairperson of SADC, to convene an Extraordinary Summit on Economic Development.

25. With regard to the food security situation in the region, the Summit noted that there was an overall improvement. In this regard, the Summit noted that the region recorded overall increased food production in the current marketing year, with cereal surpluses in Malawi, Mozambique, South Africa and Zambia. The Summit noted that while food production and availability had improved in the region, access to food and household malnutrition remain a challenge.

26. The Summit urged Member States to scale up the implementation of the Dar-es-Salaam Declaration on Agriculture and Food Security and to support the African Food Basket Initiative, which is aimed at enabling the African Continent to achieve food self-sufficiency within the next five years. In this regard, the Summit mandated the Secretariat to explore how SADC could access resources from the $22 billion L'Aquila Food Security Initiative pledged by the Group of Eight.

27. The Summit reiterated SADC's support to the African common negotiating position on the global climate change regime after the expiry of the Kyoto Protocol in 2012. The Summit noted that this issue would be discussed at the sixteenth session of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, to be held in Cancun, Mexico, from 29 November to 10 December 2010.

28. The Summit noted progress made in the implementation of the Maseru Declaration on Combating HIV and AIDS, in particular on prevention of mother-to-child transmission and the uptake of antiretroviral therapy. In order to achieve universal access targets and to mitigate the impact of HIV and AIDS on socio-economic development and regional integration, the Summit urged Member States to intensify their efforts in implementing the Maseru Declaration on Combating HIV and AIDS. The Summit also urged Member States and the international community to support the replenishment of resources to the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria.

29. The Summit noted progress made towards the achievement of 50 per cent representation of women in political and decision-making positions at all levels in line with its 2005 decision. The Summit noted that the overall situation was generally varied, with some SADC Member States recording improvement while others were regressing. Summit urged Member States to ratify and implement the SADC Protocol on Gender and Development.

30. The Summit urged Member States to support safe motherhood programmes in order to reduce maternal, infant and child mortality in line with the Millennium Development Goal commitments.

31. The Summit endorsed the Council decision on the establishment of the Regional Poverty Observatory, which will facilitate the implementation of the SADC Declaration on Poverty Eradication and Sustainable Development.

32. The Summit decided that a review of the role, functions and terms of reference of the SADC Tribunal should be undertaken and concluded within six months.

33. The Summit celebrated the thirtieth SADC anniversary, during which felicitations on this special occasion were delivered on behalf of all SADC Heads of State and Government by His Excellency Vice-President Fernando Dias dos Santos, His Excellency Dr. Kenneth Kaunda and His Excellency President Robert Gabriel Mugabe.

34. The Summit conferred the Sir Seretse Khama SADC Medal on the following notable statesmen of the SADC region:

(a) His Excellency Dr. Kenneth David Kaunda, former President of the Republic of Zambia;

(b) His Excellency Dr. Sam Nujoma, former President of the Republic of Namibia; and

(c) Ambassador Brigadier General Hashim Mbita of the United Republic of Tanzania.

35. The Summit appointed Ms. Emilie Ayaza Mushobekwa from the Democratic Republic of the Congo as SADC Deputy Executive Secretary for Finance and Administration and she was sworn in by His Excellency Ariranga G. Pillay, President of the SADC Tribunal.

36. The Summit also received the Windhoek Declaration of the 2010 SADC First Spouses Summit of the SADC Region, which underscored the importance of women's economic empowerment as a strategy for poverty reduction.

37. The Summit expressed its appreciation to the Government and people of the Republic of Namibia for the warm hospitality extended to all delegates and facilities placed at their disposal that made this Summit a success.

38. His Excellency Fernando da Piedade Dias dos Santos, Vice-President of the Republic of Angola, gave a vote of thanks and, on behalf of President Jose Eduardo dos Santos, invited all Heads of State and/or Government to the Republic of Angola for the next Summit.
