576. On the recommendation of the Governing Council of the UNDP, the Council also adopted a resolution (1250 (XLIII)) containing changes to be made in technical assistance programming procedures (E/4398, annex IV). In the same resolution it recommended that the General Assembly adopt a draft resolution under the terms of which the Assembly would approve the procedures recommended by the Governing Council for the preparation, approval and implementation of the projects of the Technical Assistance component of the United Nations Development Programme for 1969 and future years. Also on the recommendation of the Governing Council, the Economic and Social Council decided to invite the General Assembly to extend the terms of its resolution 1946 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963, as amended by resolution 2179 (XXI) of 9 December 1966, to permit the continued authorization of the use of funds of the Technical Assistance component of the United Nations Development Programme for the provision of operational personnel at the request of Governments, by all participating and executing organizations, for the duration of the programme period beginning on 1 January 1969.
