Agenda item 21 (c)

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 22 December 2011

[on the report of the Second Committee (A/66/442/Add.3)]

66/212. Development cooperation with middle-income countries

The General Assembly,

Recalling the outcomes of the United Nations major international conferences and summits, including the United Nations Millennium Declaration¹ and the 2005 World Summit Outcome,² as well as the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolutions,

Reaffirming its resolution 62/208 of 19 December 2007, entitled “Triennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system”, in which it recognized that middle-income developing countries still face significant challenges in the area of poverty eradication and that efforts to address those challenges should be supported in order to ensure that achievements made to date are sustained, including through support to the effective development of comprehensive cooperation policies,

Recalling its resolutions 63/223 of 19 December 2008 and 64/208 of 21 December 2009,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;³
2. Stresses the importance of the continued substantive consideration of the issue of development cooperation with middle-income countries;
3. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixty-eighth session a report on development cooperation with middle-income countries, and decides to include in the provisional agenda of the session, under the item entitled “Globalization and interdependence” the sub-item entitled “Development cooperation with middle-income countries”.
