Page 5, paragraph 13: Replace existing text by the following:

13. "In Germany the Allied High Commission requested, in February 1950, the Federal Government of Germany to adopt a law defining the status of the DP/refugees who would remain in Germany. This law adequately defines the political and civil rights of the refugees. However, there is yet no firm basis for their economic integration. Further measures to achieve this will have to be taken."
