Letter dated 10 November 1951
addressed to the Chairman of the Conciliation Commission by the Representative of Syria

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's letter of 31 October concerning the replies to be made to the proposals of the Conciliation Commission.

As has already been stated, in particular in the note dated 17 September 1951, my delegation is ready to continue its collaboration with the Commission in the task it has undertaken. It is therefore at the Commission's disposal to discuss the proposals.

Please accept, Sir, the assurances of my high consideration.
