Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Twentieth session

Vienna, 11-15 April 2011

Item 3 of the provisional agenda

Strategic management, budgetary and administrative questions

Colombia: draft resolution

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Support for the development and implementation of an integrated approach to programme development at the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 63/197 of 18 December 2008, entitled “International cooperation against the world drug problem”, and Assembly resolution 64/179 of 18 December 2009, entitled “Strengthening the United Nations crime prevention and criminal justice programme, in particular its technical cooperation capacity”,

Recalling also the strategy for the period 2008-2011 for the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime,¹ which provides a clear framework for the work of the Office,

Recalling further its resolution 2009/23 of 30 July 2009, entitled “Support for the development and implementation of the regional programmes of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime”, and its resolution 2010/20 of 22 July 2010, entitled “Support for the development and implementation of an integrated approach to programme development at the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime”,

¹ Economic and Social Council resolution 2007/12, annex.

1. Welcomes the report of the Executive Director on the development and implementation of the regional programmes of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime;²
2. Expresses its appreciation for increased national ownership and participation in regional programmes, and encourages Member States in other subregions to engage with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in the preparation of similar subregional programmes;
3. Requests the Secretariat to promote a culture of evaluation throughout the organization, to mainstream the use of relevant monitoring and evaluation tools in programme planning and implementation and to provide adequate training, as appropriate and within available resources, to staff both at headquarters and in field offices;
4. Requests that all regional and thematic programmes include provisions for evaluation, including an evaluation budget, an evaluation report and evaluation skills capacity development, and that already existing programmes be supplemented with annexes containing such provisions;
5. Welcomes the launch of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime Quality Control and Oversight Unit, which monitors programme and office performance of field offices and is aimed at demonstrating financial accountability through transparency and documented records, assisting both United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime headquarters and field offices in financial oversight and quality assurance;
6. Encourages Member States to continue to support the regional and thematic programmes of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime through unearmarked voluntary contributions, preferably through the general-purpose fund, when feasible, thereby supporting national ownership and regional prioritization;
7. Welcomes the progress made so far in the operationalization of the Central American Integration System/United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime Mechanism and its corresponding progressive development;
8. Takes note of the ongoing efforts on the thematic and regional programmes developed with the support of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and the launching of the regional programmes for West Africa and East Africa, as well as supporting the ongoing work of the regional programmes for East Asia and the Pacific, South-Eastern Europe and Central America and the Caribbean, and also takes note of the presentation of the regional programme for the Arab States during the meeting of the standing open-ended intergovernmental working group on improving the governance and financial situation of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime on 18 February 2011, and looks forward to its inauguration;
9. Looks forward to the development of regional programmes for Afghanistan and neighbouring countries and Southern Africa, in consultation with the Member States of that region, in the course of 2011;

² E/CN.7/2011/6-E/CN.15/2011/6.

10. Welcomes the establishment of centres of excellence in different countries of Latin America and the Caribbean as an important component for the effective implementation of regional and thematic programmes, and takes note of the possible establishment of such centres of excellence or similar institutions in other countries in the region;

11. Supports the work of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in leading the development of the integrated programme approach, in close cooperation with Member States;

12. Encourages increased joint activities among entities of the United Nations system, development agencies and regional organizations, within their respective mandates;

13. Encourages Member States, where appropriate, to draw on the technical assistance activities outlined in the regional programmes of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and use the regional programmes as a vehicle for increasing regional cooperation on thematic strategies;

14. Encourages the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to engage with bilateral and multilateral aid agencies and financial institutions to continue to support the implementation of regional and thematic programmes of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime;

15. Requests the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to continue to give high priority and support to the implementation of the integrated regional and thematic programme approach, including informing the standing open-ended intergovernmental working group on improving the governance and financial situation of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime of progress made, and to report on progress made in such implementation to the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its twenty-first session.
