

Economic and Social Council

Distr.: Limited
28 March 2013

Original: English

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Twenty-second session

Vienna, 22-26 April 2013

Item 7 of the provisional agenda*

World crime trends and emerging issues and responses in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice

Argentina: draft resolution

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

International cooperation in the prevention, investigation, prosecution and punishment of economic fraud and identity-related crime

The Economic and Social Council,

Concerned about the emerging problem of large-scale transnational economic fraud and identity-related crime and substantial increases in the volume, rate of transnational occurrence and range of offences of this nature,

Concerned also about the use of economic fraud and identity-related crime to further the commission of other illicit activities,

Concerned further about the role played by information, communications and computer technologies in the evolution and spread of economic fraud and identity-related crime,

Convinced of the need to develop comprehensive, multifaceted and coherent strategies and measures, including both reactive and preventive measures, to counter such forms of crime,

Convinced also of the importance of partnerships and synergies between Member States, the private sector and civil society, in particular in developing their respective strategies and measures,

* E/CN.15/2013/1.

Recalling the Salvador Declaration on Comprehensive Strategies for Global Challenges: Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Systems and Their Development in a Changing World,¹ in which serious concerns were expressed about the challenge posed by economic fraud and identity-related crime and their links to other criminal and, in some cases, terrorist activities, and in which Member States were invited to take appropriate legal measures to prevent, prosecute and punish economic fraud and identity-related crime and to continue to support the work of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in that area and were encouraged to enhance international cooperation in that area, including through the exchange of relevant information and best practices, as well as through technical and legal assistance,

Acknowledging the efforts of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to facilitate the work of the core group of experts on identity-related crime as a platform to bring together on a regular basis representatives from Governments, private sector entities, international and regional organizations and academia to pool experience, develop strategies, facilitate further research and agree on practical action against identity-related crime,

Noting the work of the core group of experts on identity-related crime at its five meetings held in Vienna from 2007 to 2010 and the outcomes of this work, such as the Handbook on Identity-related Crime, which included a practical guide to international cooperation to combat identity-related crime, as well as studies on legal and criminalization approaches, victim protection and partnerships between the public sector and the private sector,

Recalling its resolutions 2004/26 of 21 July 2004, 2007/20 of 26 July 2007, 2009/22 of 30 July 2009 and 2011/35 of 28 July 2011,

1. Takes note of the report of the sixth meeting of the core group of experts on identity-related crime;²
2. Welcomes the outline for model legislation on identity-related crime, as well as the checklist of strategic elements in developing national strategies for the prevention, investigation, prosecution and punishment of identity-related crime, both of which are contained as appendices in the above-mentioned report;
3. Takes note of the document on the development of a framework containing the basic components of a national strategy on the prevention, investigation, prosecution and punishment of identity-related crime, as well as the document on successful cases of public-private partnerships to address identity-related crime;
4. Invites Member States to provide information to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime on national efforts, if any, to develop strategies for the prevention, investigation, prosecution and punishment of identity-related crime;
5. Requests the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to continue its efforts, in consultation with the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law, to promote mutual understanding and the exchange of views and expertise between various stakeholders, in particular between public and private sector entities, on issues pertaining to identity-related crime through the future work of the core group of experts on identity-related crime, including draft model legislation on identity-related crime;

¹ General Assembly resolution 65/230, annex.

² E/CN.15/2013/25, annex.

6. Invites the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to continue to cooperate with other international and intergovernmental organizations active in this field by enabling their participation and active involvement in the future work of the core group of experts on identity-related crime;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its twenty-third session on the implementation of the present resolution.
