Delete lines 6, 7, 8 and 9, and substitute the following:

"... rather late in submitting information was that the change in the stipulated period of transmission had not been adopted by the General Assembly until November 1948 and that the United States had therefore been unable to prepare the necessary information by December of that year. It hoped to transmit ..."

Pages 11 and 12:

Replace the remarks attributed to Mr. LI (China), and substitute the following:

"Mr. LI (China) referred to document A/915/Add.1, explaining the reason for ceasing the transmission of information on the Panama Canal Zone, as well as to the statement of the delegation of Panama in the Fourth Committee on 14 November, 1946, to the effect that the Panama Canal Zone could not be considered a Non-Self-Governing Territory because the sovereignty of the Canal Zone rested in the Republic of Panama. He drew attention to page 358 in the Summaries and Analyses of information transmitted to the Secretary-General, and to page 24 of document A/908/Add.3 containing the statement that Hong Kong comprised the Kowloon Territory and the New Territories.

He recalled the fact that both Kowloon and the New Territories were leased territories, sovereignty over which still rested in the Republic of China. If the fact that sovereignty over a territory rested with another state was considered a reason for ceasing to transmit information, then information should cease to be transmitted on Kowloon and the New Territories as sovereignty over those territories rested in the Republic of China.

As the case of Kowloon and the New Territories was similar to the case of the Panama Canal Zone under item 4(c), Mr. Li wished to state the position of the Chinese delegation and to bring it to the attention of the United Kingdom representative."
