Replace by the following paragraph:

"Mr FLETCHER-COOKE (United Kingdom) said that his delegation included an educational expert, Mr. Ward, who was the Deputy Educational Advisor to the Secretary of State for the Colonies. He doubted whether there would be any advantage in a general educational discussion at that stage because it would inevitably lead to a certain amount of repetition when the separate items on the agenda were considered. He therefore felt that it would be preferable to deal with the sub-items of item 6 seriatim."
