SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW CONCERNING FRIENDLY
RELATIONS AND CO-OPERATION AMONG STATES

GHANA, INDIA AND YUGOSLAVIA: PROPOSAL

Principle C: Non-Intervention

1. No State or group of States has the right to intervene, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatsoever, in the internal or external affairs of any other State; nor to interfere in the right of any State to choose and develop its own political, economic and social order in the manner most suited to the genius of its people.
2. Accordingly no State may use or encourage the use of coercive measures of an economic or political character to force the sovereign will of another State and obtain from it advantages of any kind. In particular States shall not:
  - (a) organize, assist, foment, incite or tolerate subversive or terrorist activities against another State or interfere in civil strife in another State;
  - (b) interfere with or hinder, in any form or manner, the promulgation or execution of laws in regard to matters essentially within the competence of any State;
  - (c) use duress to obtain or maintain territorial agreements or special advantages of any kind; and
  - (d) recognize territorial acquisitions or special advantages obtained by duress of any kind by another State.
