

Sixteenth session
Agenda item 8

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA OF THE SIXTEENTH REGULAR SESSION,
ALLOCATION OF ITEMS AND ORGANIZATION OF THE SESSION

Fourth report of the General Committee

1. At its 143rd meeting on 18 December 1961, the General Committee considered the following request for the inclusion of an additional item in the agenda of the sixteenth session:

Organization of peace: item proposed by Honduras (A/5022)

2. On the recommendation of the President, the Committee agreed without objection to recommend to the General Assembly that the item be included in the agenda but that it be placed on the provisional agenda of the seventeenth session, it being understood that the delegation of Honduras had no objection to this course.

3. Following a discussion regarding the organization of the remaining part of the sixteenth session, the General Committee agreed without objection to recommend to the General Assembly that the sixteenth session be adjourned on 20 December 1961 to 15 January 1962 and that at its resumed session the Assembly discuss the following items:

- (a) "The situation in Angola: report of the Sub-Committee established by General Assembly resolution 1603 (XV)" [item 27] (to be discussed in plenary meetings);
- (b) "Question of the future of Ruanda-Urundi: report of the United Nations Commission for Ruanda-Urundi" [item 49] (to be discussed in the Fourth Committee).

4. A proposal that the item proposed by India, "United Nations Year for International Co-operation", be recommended for deferment to the resumed session.

was voted upon. The result of the vote was: 8 in favour, 8 against and 2 abstentions. The proposal was therefore not adopted.

5. It was understood that the First Committee would make recommendations to the General Assembly concerning the disposal of any items remaining on that Committee's agenda.
