WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

(Provisional Agenda for the Second Part of the First Session)

Item 12 (c) of the Supplementary List

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL
ON 17 SEPTEMBER 1946 DURING ITS THIRD SESSION

In accordance with the Resolutions of the Council of 15 February and 11 June 1946, the International Health Conference met in New York to establish a single International Health Organization, and adopted the following instruments:

Final act of the International Health Conference.*

Constitution of the World Health Organization.**

Arrangement concluded by the governments represented at the International Health Conference establishing an Interim Commission of the World Health Organization.***

Protocol Concerning the Office Internationale d'Hygiene Publique.****

The Economic and Social Council notes with satisfaction the completion and signature of the Constitution of the World Health Organization, and recognizes the importance of bringing it into effective operation as soon as possible.

The Economic and Social Council also notes with satisfaction the establishment of the Interim Commission of the World Health Organization, and recognizes the desirability of transferring to the Organization or to its Interim Commission as soon as possible the functions and activities of the League of Nations Health Organization and the Office Internationale d'Hygiene Publique, and the health functions performed by UNRRA in respect of the International Sanitary Conventions.

THEREFORE

The Economic and Social Council requests the General Assembly

1. to recommend to all members of the United Nations the acceptance by them of the Constitution of the World Health Organization at the earliest possible date;
2. to instruct the Secretary-General to take the necessary steps as contemplated by the Final Act of the International Health Conference to effect the transfer of the functions and activities of the League of Nations Health Organization which have been assumed by the United Nations to the Interim Commission of the World Health Organization;
3. to recommend to members of the United Nations, and in particular those members parties to the Rome Agreement of 1907 constituting the Office Internationale d'Hygiene Publique, the acceptance by them at the earliest possible date of the Protocol of the International Health Conference concerning the Office Internationale d'Hygiene Publique;
4. in response to the application of the Interim Commission to approve a grant or loan of $300,000 by the United Nations for the purpose of financing the activities of the Interim Commission from the commencement of its work to the end of the financial year 1946, and to approve the inclusion of $1,000,000 in the Budget of the United Nations for the financial year 1947 for the purpose of financing through a further grant or loan the activities of the Interim Commission or the World Health Organization during that year;
5. to authorize the Secretary-General to transmit any Assembly recommendations in pursuance under (1) and (3) above to all States which, whether members of the United Nations or not, sent representatives or observers to the International Health Conference.
