(14 June 1988)

Chapter One: Interpretation

1. In this Law

Definitions

"the Minister" means the Prime Minister;

"drugs" means dangerous drugs as defined in the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance (New Version), 5733-1973, 1/ and drugs designated by the Minister by regulations after consultation with the Minister of Health and with the approval of the Labour and Social Affairs Committee of the Knesset;

"drug abuse" includes the doing of anything connected with drugs otherwise than for medical purposes or without legal authorization.

1/ Note by the Secretariat: E/NL.1976/10.

Chapter Two: The Authority

Article One: Establishment and Functions of Authority

Establishment of Authority

2. There is hereby established a Drug Control Authority, hereinafter referred to as "the Authority".

Authority to be body corporate

3. The Authority shall be a body corporate.

Authority to be inspected body

4. The Authority shall be an inspected body within the meaning of section 9 (6) of the State Comptroller Law (Consolidated Version), 5918-1958.

Functions of authority

5. (a) The Authority shall determine policy as to prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, punishment and law enforcement in the field of drug abuse in order that such policy may serve as a basis for its activity and the activity of the Government in the matter. When the Authority has framed a policy as to one of the matters within the scope of its functions, the Minister shall, at its request, submit such policy to the Government for approval.

(b) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (a), the Authority shall also:

(1) frame a policy of co-operation between Government Ministries, local authorities and other bodies active in the field of drug abuse, and co-ordinate and promote such co-operation;

(2) plan and promote, in accordance with its policy, frameworks and services for prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, punishment and law enforcement in the field of drug abuse;

(3) act, in schools and other frameworks, for the prevention of drug abuse by expanding and deepening the education of pupils and youth;

(4) spread information and deepen public awareness as to the plague of drugs with a view to preventing drug abuse;

(5) in accordance with its policy and in co-operation with the Ministries concerned, act for the establishment, development, management and maintenance of suitable frameworks, and of services and projects, for prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, punishment and law enforcement in the field of drug abuse;

(6) assist State and local government services by advice and guidance as to the treatment of drug victims and the members of their families;

(7) encourage voluntary activities, of individuals and bodies for the prevention of drug abuse and the treatment and rehabilitation of drug abusers, and direct, guide and supervise such activities;

(8) initiate and co-ordinate the training and accreditation of professional manpower in institutions and services active in drug abuse prevention and in the treatment and rehabilitation of drug abusers and supervise the activities of such institutions and services;

(9) follow up, and make suggestions as to, law enforcement and punishment in the field of drug abuse;

(10) prescribe rules for appropriations from its budget to bodies active in drug abuse prevention and in the treatment and rehabilitation of drug abusers, and to effect such appropriations;

(11) collection information, initiate research and develop know-how in the sphere of its activity, subject to the provisions of any law;

(12) maintain contact with national and international bodies active in matters of drug abuse.

Article Two: Council of Authority

Council of Authority

6. (a) The Authority shall have a Council of forty-three members appointed by the Minister with the approval of the Government. Notice of the appointment shall be published in Reshumot.

(b) The Council shall consist of the following:

(1) sixteen office-holders as specified in the Schedule;

(2) one representative each of the Prime Minister's Office, the Ministry of the Interior, the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Construction and Housing and the Ministry of Defence;

(3) one representative each of the National Insurance Institute, the Employment Service, the Prisoner Rehabilitation Authority, the Council for Higher Education, the Israel Medical Association, the Psychologists' Association, the Social Workers' Organization, the Nurses' Association, the Israel Criminological Society, the Local Government Centre, the Youth Movements Council, the National Council for Research and Development, the Teachers' Association and the Post-Elementary Teachers' Organization;

(4) three members appointed respectively by the Minister in consultation with the Minister of Health, from the kibbutz movements, from voluntary bodies treating drug users and from the sick-funds;

(5) four representatives of the public designated by the Minister.

(c) At the request of the Minister, the Council may invite an additional office-holder to its deliberations as a permanent participant.

(d) The Minister may by order, after consultation with the Minister concerned, prescribe that, instead of one of the office-holders mentioned in the Schedule, another office-holder from the same Ministry concerned with drug control shall be designated.

7. The Minister shall appoint a chairman for the Council from among its members and may so appoint a deputy chairman.

Chairman

8. The period of tenure of the members of the Council appointed under section 6 (b) (2) to (5) shall be three years. A member whose period of tenure has expired may be reappointed. A member whose period of tenure has expired shall continue to serve until another member is appointed in his stead or until he is reappointed, as the case may be.

Period of tenure

9. The Minister may remove a member of the Council from office if:

Removal of member from office

(1) he has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude or

(2) he is incapable of carrying out his functions for reasons of health or

(3) he has been absent from four consecutive meetings of the Council without just cause.

10. Where a member of the Council ceases to hold the position by virtue of which he has been appointed, or has resigned from the Council or been removed from office or has died, another member shall be appointed in his stead in the same manner in which he himself was appointed.

Replacement of members

11. The Council shall:

Functions of Council

(1) determine the policy of the Authority;

(2) guide the Board in the discharge of its functions and supervise its activities;

(3) consider the draft annual budget referred to in section 18, the annual report and any other matter relating to the activities of the Authority.

12. The Council may appoint committees from among its members and delegate powers to them.

Committees

13. (a) The Minister may, in consultation with the Council, by regulations, prescribe provisions as to a quorum, the modes of convening the Council and its committees and the conduct of their meetings, the voting procedure, the powers of the chairman of the Council and the chairman of a committee and the reimbursement of expenses incurred by members of the Council or the Board who are not employees of the Authority or the State in consequence of their attendance at meetings of the Council, the committees or the Board.

Procedures

(b) The Council and its committees shall prescribe the procedure of their business as far as it is not prescribed by regulations under subsection (a).

(c) The Council shall meet at least four times a year.

Article Three: The Director of the Authority;
the Board and its Functions
