Unification of Yemen: Support of the international community for its economic and social infrastructure

The General Assembly,

Welcoming the merger on 22 May 1990 of the Yemen Arab Republic and the People's Democratic Republic of Yemen to form a single sovereign State called the Republic of Yemen,

Taking into consideration the Ministerial Declaration issued by the fourteenth annual meeting of the Group of 77, held in New York on 1 October 1990, in which the world community was requested to render support for the economic and social infrastructure of Yemen so as to achieve prosperity for its people,

Realizing the difficult economic situation facing Yemen as a result of the merger of the economic and social infrastructure following the unification of Yemen, in addition to the new economic and social burden resulting from the situation between Iraq and Kuwait,

1. Expresses its solidarity with Yemen in its efforts to overcome these conditions;

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77.

2. Calls upon States and governmental and international non-governmental organizations to extend their assistance in support of the national efforts to improve the economic and social infrastructure of Yemen;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to assist in mobilizing resources and to develop a comprehensive programme to assess the needs of Yemen in order to enable the world community to extend assistance to meet those needs;

4. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit a report on the implementation of the present resolution to the General Assembly at its forty-sixth session, through the Economic and Social Council of its second regular session of 1991.
