OF DETENTION OR IMPRISONMENT

STATUS OF THE CONVENTION AGAINST TORTURE AND OTHER CRUEL, INHUMAN OR DEGRADING TREATMENT OR PUNISHMENT

Report of the Secretary-General

1. The General Assembly, by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, and called upon all Governments to consider signing and ratifying the Convention as a matter of priority.
2. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 4 February 1985. In accordance with article 27 thereof, the Convention entered into force on 26 June 1987, on the thirtieth day after the date of the deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession.
3. By its resolution 1990/28 of 2 March 1990, the Commission on Human Rights reiterated its request to all States to become parties to the Convention as a matter of priority; invited all States ratifying or acceding to the Convention and those States parties which had not yet done so to consider the possibility of making the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention; and requested the Secretary-General to continue submitting to the General Assembly and to the Commission on Human Rights annual reports on the Status of the Convention.
4. As at 1 January 1991, the Convention had been ratified or acceded to by 55 States. In addition, 19 States had signed the Convention. The list of States that have signed, ratified or acceded to the Convention, as well as the dates of their signature, ratification or accession, is contained in the annex to the present report.

5. As at the same date, 25 of the States parties to the Convention, namely, Algeria, Argentina, Austria, Canada, Denmark, Ecuador, Finland, France, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey and Uruguay, had made the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention. In addition, one State party, namely the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, had only made the declaration provided for in article 21 thus bringing the total of declarations under this article to 26. 1/ Under article 21, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee against Torture to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State party claims that another State party is not fulfilling its obligations under the Convention. Under article 22, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee to receive and consider communications from or on behalf of individuals subject to its jurisdiction who claim to be victims of a violation by a State party of the provisions of the Convention.

6. The provisions of articles 21 and 22 entered into force on 26 June 1987 in accordance with paragraph 2 of article 21 and paragraph 8 of article 22.

7. The Committee against Torture held its fourth and fifth sessions at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 23 April to 4 May 1990 and from 12 to 23 November 1990, respectively. In accordance with article 24 of the Convention, the Committee submitted its annual report, 2/ which covered the activities of the Committee at its third and fourth sessions, to the States parties and to the General Assembly at its forty-fifth session.

8. By its resolution 45/142 of 14 December 1990, the General Assembly, inter alia, welcomed the report of the Committee against Torture, and stressed the importance of strict adherence by States parties to the obligations under the Convention regarding the financing of the Committee against Torture, thus enabling it to carry out in an effective and efficient manner all the functions entrusted to it under the Convention, so as to ensure the long-term viability of the Committee as an essential mechanism for overseeing the effective implementation of the provisions of the Convention. The Assembly also welcomed the attention which the Committee against Torture had given to the development of an effective reporting system on implementation by States parties to the Convention, and especially its revision of its general guidelines for the submission of initial reports by States parties.
