LETTER DATED 15 FEBRUARY 1980 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF MOROCCO TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

On behalf of the representatives of the members of the Islamic Conference, meeting today, 15 February, in New York, I have the honour to request you to convene an urgent meeting of the Security Council to consider the grave and disturbing situation created by the measures recently taken by the Israeli occupying authorities in the occupied Palestinian city of Al-Khalil (Hebron) on the West Bank of the Jordan.

It is worth-while to recall, in this connexion, Security Council resolutions 446 and 452 of 22 March and 20 July 1979 concerning the establishment and the terms of reference of the Commission to examine the situation relating to settlements in the Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem.

(Signed) Abdellatif FILALI
Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of Morocco
Chairman of the Islamic Group
